The Golden Age

Every art has its Golden Age, bringing those wondrous works that live on through all the years. And it seems that a Golden Age has dawned for the newest of all arts—the motion picture. The master artist of the screen has brought to us a creation of such exquisite wonder and beauty, of such haunting charm and purity, that all else seems as of yesterday.

D.W. GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

taken from a story of Thomas Burke, is at once the most pitiful, most tragic, and withal, the most sublime love story ever told. And in the telling, the master, Griffith, has wrought such rare and undreamed-of beauties that a new art, full, rich, boundless, is revealed.
