THE REFORM SCHOOL.

A Glance at Some of the Provisions Contained in the Bill.

It Will Be of Much Benefit to Both the City and the State.

In a review of the work accomplished by the legislature last week the Helena Independent says:

A very important bill that passed the senate yesterday was one to provide for the establishment and location of a state reform school at Miles City. The school is to be for the keeping and reformatory training of all youths between the ages of 8 and 21 years, who are residents of Montana, and who, on presentation to the presiding officer of such school, by an accompanying officer, parent or guardian, shall be accompanied by a certificate of commitment from a court legally authorized to make such commitment. The school is to consist of two departments, male and female. The inmates are to be trained in morality, temperance and frugality, and instructed in the different trades and callings of the two sexes as far as possible in the scope of the institution.

When a boy or girl of sane mind, between the ages of 8 and 21 years, shall in any court of record in this state, be found guilty of any crime, except murder or manslaughter, or if for want of proper paternal care, is growing up in mendicancy, or vagrancy, or is incorrigible, and complaint thereof is made and properly sustained by evidence, the court may, if in its opinion the accused is a proper subject therefor, instead of entering judgment, cause an order to be entered for such boy or girl to be sent to the state reform school. A copy of the order, under seal of court, shall be sufficient warrant for carrying such boy or girl to the school and for his or her commitment to the custody of the director. When a boy or girl of sane mind, between the ages of 8 and 21 years shall be convicted before a justice of the peace or other inferior court, of any crime, mendicancy, vagrancy or incorrigibility, it shall be the duty of the magistrate before whom he or she may have been convicted, to forthwith consign such boy or girl, together with all papers filed in his office on the subject, under the control of some officer, to the judge of a court of record, who shall then issue an order to the parent or guardian of said boy or girl, or such other person as may have him or her in charge, or with whom he or she has last resided, or any one known to be related to him or her, or if he or she be running friendless, then to such person as the judge may appoint to act as guardian for the purposes of such case, requiring him or her to appear at the time and place stated in the order, to show cause why said boy or girl should not be committed to the state reform school for training and reformation.

Each boy or girl committed to the state reform school shall remain there until he or she arrives at the age of 21, unless specially paroled or legally discharged. The discharge of any boy or girl having arrived at the age of 21 shall be a complete release from all penalty incurred by conviction of the offense for which he or she was committed.

Not That Kind.

Mother—Henry, before you go out I wish you would bring up a hod of coal.

Henry—Why, mother, you know that violent exercise doesn't agree with me.

Mother—Very well. Kate can bring it up. Where are you going now?

Henry—Only down to the alley to roll a few strings of tenpins.—Boston Transcript.

Single Blessedness.

Mrs. Jones—I hear you are going to marry again, and your husband has only been dead three months.

Widow Smith—What! Me thinking of marrying again? If I were to be a widow every six months, it would never occur to me to marry again.—Texas Siftings.

Cautious.

Coroner—Is this man, whom you found dead on the railroad track, a total stranger?

Mike (who has been told to be careful in his statements)—No, sor. His leg was gone intoirely. He was a partial sthranger, sor.—Truth.

Poor Old Sport.

The game of pool I play today
Is naught beside of that
In times gone by I used to play,
When I was new thereat.

The fish I'm catching now are naught
To those that in my youth
I threw right back as soon as caught—
Ten pounders they, in truth.

And so I sigh for days gone by;
My heart bleeds—oh, it does!
And tears come welling to mine eye
For times that used to was.
—Carlyle Smith in Life.

CHRONIC WOES.

Nothing to do but work,
Nothing to eat but food,
Nothing to wear but clothes,
To keep us from going nude.

Nothing to breathe but air,
Quick as a flash to freeze;
Nowhere to fall but on,
Nowhere to stand but on.

Nothing to see but hills,
Save bleak Lookout that towered,
Nothing to weep but tears,
Nothing to bury but dead.

Nothing to sing but songs,
Ah, well, the saddest;
Nowhere to go but out,
Nowhere to come but back.

Nothing to eat but cakes,
Nothing to quench but thirst,
Nothing to have left what we've got;
Thus through life we are cursed.

Nothing to strike but a gait;
Everything moves the same;
Nothing at all but common sense
Can ever withstand these woes.
—Chicago Mail.

1893—Mr. John Smith, the millionaire coal man, left yesterday on a tour around the world on his $5,000,000 steam yacht Dusky Diamond.—Detroit Tribune.

Couldn't Show It.

"Have you ceased to care for me, Adele? I came earlier this afternoon, and you do not even look glad to see me."

"Indeed I am glad to see you! But this is my hour for resting my features from all expression."—Vogue.

A Sad Face.

Mr. Billkins—What a sad face that woman has!

Mrs. Billkins—Yes, poor thing! She has either loved and lost or loved and got him.—New York Weekly.

Mr. N. C.—Hmmm, but this drawer sticks tight! Yet open she must, so—

—"HERE GOES!"

"Pardon the shower of ink, my dear sir. Here's the document."—Fliegende Blatter.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alteratives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of stomach, liver or kidneys.—It will cure sick headache, indigestion, constipation, and drive malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c per bottle. Sold by John Wright.

Cheap Rates to the Inauguration.

For the inauguration of Cleveland and Stevenson at Washington on March 4th, excursion tickets, reading via Baltimore and Ohio railroad, "The Picturesque Route," will be placed on sale at the ticket offices of principal railroads of the west, as well as at the ticket offices of the Baltimore and Ohio company. The fare from Chicago will be $17.50 for the round trip. These tickets will be sold from February 28th to March 3rd inclusive, and will be valid for return journey until March 8th inclusive.

The Baltimore and Ohio is the shortest route to Washington from nearly all points west. Its trains are vestibuled from end to end, and carry Pullman sleeping cars.

No railroad in America is better equipped than the B. & O. to transport with dispatch, safety, and comfort the large crowd which will visit Washington to witness the inauguration ceremonies. Its long experience in transporting crowds to former inaugurations, G. A. R. Encampments, Knights Templar Conclaves, and similar gatherings, on an extensive scale, will prove most valuable in arranging for the coming inauguration.

For more detailed information as to rates, time of trains, etc., apply to L. S. Allen, Asst. Gen'l Passenger Agent, The Rookery, Chicago, or O. P. McCarthy, Asst. Gen'l Passenger Agent, Cincinnati, O.

SHOES

Ought to fit feet; feet shouldn't be twisted to fit shoes; that's blacksmithing. There are plenty of shoe-theories, but only one true model—the natural human foot. Now if all shoes were alike, it wouldn't matter where you bought your shoes. But they are not all alike, so you must put yourself into the hands of the dealer as to quality, fit and value. Size price and looks you can tell. That is all you can tell. Time must tell the rest. So your confidence is not in the shoes but in the dealer. We want your confidence. It will not be betrayed.
