A LITTLE LAY SERMON ON GIVING THANKS

BY ROBERTUS LOVE.

I fast give thanks! Why not? What has God done for me? What has His love and grace done for me? He has given me life, He has given me health, He has given me the opportunity to enjoy many things. And so I give thanks. Let me tell you what I mean by giving thanks.

THANKSGIVING MASKERS

Many Children and Some Grown-ups Parade in Costumes.

BY WILTON MARKAM.

The children were careful not to overlook any of the many gay and colorful costumes that were displayed in the parade. They were having a jolly time. It was a good one.

UNCLE MOSES' CHOICE

Go to Sam's house I'll feel bad all moh. If I don't go to Lige's den Ah'll

THE DEFICIENT TURKEY

Now, we are superstitious. We think that the turkey is superstitious too. When it comes to Thanksgiving, it is his turn to give thanks. And so we give thanks to the turkey.

WHEN MOTHER COOKS THE THANKSGIVING TURKEY

By A. R. LEWIS.

Uncle Moses was a little nervous in his attitude about the turkey. He didn't know what to do with it. But then he thought of something.

MOTHER COOKS THE TURKEY

The turkey is cooked and served in various ways. Some like it roasted, some like it boiled, and some like it fried. Which do you like?

HUNTING THE WILD TURKEY FOR THANKSGIVING

By CECIL MEINKE.

He's an awful smart young man. And he doesn't mind the noisiness of his environment.

THANKSGIVING BREAD

By A. R. LEWIS.

Uncle Moses was having a good time. He didn't mind the noise at all. But then he thought of something.

WHEN MOTHER COOKS THE THANKSGIVING TURKEY

By A. R. LEWIS.

Uncle Moses was a little nervous in his attitude about the turkey. He didn't know what to do with it. But then he thought of something.