WHERE THE LAW IS INADE- QUATE.

A Brutal Crime Charged Against An Old Man.

Last Saturday afternoon, John Warne a man 72 years of age, employed as a watchman for the Butte Water Co. at East Walkerville called upon his neighbors to assist him in putting out a fire which was destroying a cabin in which he lived. Eveline Blewett, a little girl had visited his cabin just before, and her body was burned into an unrecognizable mass before it could be taken from the ruins.

When the fire was out and the body of the girl brought out the feeling against Warne became intense and it was with some difficulty that the marshal succeeded in getting him out of the way of the infuriated crowd. Warne was taken to Butte and lodged in the county jail.

While the fire was burning the child to death it is alleged that Warne made a statement to some of the neighbors of how the affair happened. He is alleged to have said that Friday she visited him and he told her that Saturday would be his pay day, and if she would call after he received his pay he would give her a nickel. She had called as requested and as he did not produce the promised coin she had started to put her hands in his pocket. Near by was a gasoline stove which he used in the preparation of his meals and as a means of keeping himself warm, and in trying to prevent her from searching his pocket the stove was upset. He had then picked up the stove and carried it out of doors, but the burning gasoline had run from it and ignited the interior of the cabin, the child's clothing included. When he attempted to re enter the place the whole interior was a mass of flames.

There are quite a number in Walkerville who doubt this story and strongly intimate that Warne criminally assaulted the child and then set fire to the place in order to conceal his crime. The position of the body of the little one would serve to bear out the assumption. It was lying on Warne's sleeping couch, just as if death had overtaken her in sleep and her skull had been fractured. Another circumstance which strengthens this is belief the fact the child made no outcry, or if she did no one heard it, although there are residences within 30 feet of the cabin.

Fearing that a mob would try to lynch Warne, Sheriff Furay hustled him out of the city in a carriage at five o'clock and took him to Anaconda.

Representative Geary To The Sheepmen.

The following recently appeared in some of the state papers and portends something lively in Deer Lodge county before long. As a "jeff" it is rather unique and there is a certain frankness about Mr. Geary's proclamation which leads one to believe that he will attempt, at least, to do exactly what he says. He proclaims:

"There are sheepmen in our vicinity who brought their stock from God knows where last fall and winter, and we suppose they did very well. Spring is now about upon us and the range is nearly void of snow. The cattlemen have not turned their herds on the range, as the feed is short consequent on the cold weather. Now, these sheepmen, in order to have the start, have their stock on a part of the range that belongs to our people. Very well. Those sheepmen want to dictate to us that they can range their sheep on our lands if we do not fence them.

"We want the sheepmen to understand that we are not compelled to fence our lands until we get ready, and we want them to understand also that if we find a sheep or any number of sheep anywhere between the Big Blackfoot and the north fork of that stream any time after the 15th day of April A. D. 1901, we shall make the brand very scarce.

"The sheepmen from outside the valley have imposed upon us too long, and we have come to the conclusion that we will not endure it any longer. We have no objection to local industry in that line, but they cannot come from the outside. Let the sheepmen take warning; we are not desperate, but we mean business. If the people of this section of old Deer Lodge county could have agreed on this subject 10 years ago we could have adjusted this matter, but they thought there was range enough for all. Now they know different.

"There are only three sections of land between the Big Blackfoot and the North Fork that have not been bought of the government or the Northern Pacific Railroad company. These sheepmen think because it is not fenced in that they have a right to range their sheep thereon. Before the 20th of April they will wish they had moved the sheep if they don't do it before that time.

"We are not desperate until we try—until we are driven to it. We may as well die as to be starved out. Don't be in doubt as to who the author of this is. I'll be captain.

"MIKE GEARY."

Shipwreck and Cannibalism.

London, April 7.—The Singapore correspondent of Daily Express wires a ghastly story of cannibalism at sea, brought to Singapore by two survivors of the Nova Scotian bark Angloa, wrecked after six days' sailing from Manila, Oct. 18 last. The correspondent says:

"Survivors Johnson, a Swede, and Marticornu, a Spaniard, assert that the Angloa struck a reef. Two rafts were built. The smaller, bearing five men, disappeared. The other, with 12 men, drifted for 40 days. The sailors ate bannocks, seaweed and finally their boots.

"On the twenty-fifth day two became insane and killed themselves. On the twenty-sixth a Frenchman killed the mate with an axe, drank his blood and tried to eat his brains, but was prevented by others. Next day the Frenchman was killed while attempting to murder the captain. The survivors, all of whom were now insane ate the Frenchman's body. The cannibalism continued until only Johnson and Marticornu remained. On the forty second day the raft stranded on Sabi or Flat island, in the Natuna group, northwest from Borneo. Johnson and Marticornu were awfully emaciated. Friendly Malays sent them by a junk to Singapore."

They Have Them In Dakota Too.

Dickinson, N. D., April 7.—Walter Y. Barnett is convicted of horse stealing after one of the hardest fought trials in western North Dakota. Barnett shipped stolen horses to Lake City, Ia., and when detected and arrested attempted to shield himself with a bill of sale purporting to have been given by some unknown party, but which the state reasoned was written and signed by himself after his arrest.

No case in court for many years has so interested stockmen as this one. Wholesale thieving has been going on for many months.

Barnett will likely get the maximum sentence of five years. It is known that others have been operating with him.

Today Sheriff John Goodall learned that McPeak, who also was known as Jim McCartney, and is a desperado wanted by the police in Montana and North Dakota, was near Dickinson. He secured a posse and went after him. McPeak resisted arrest and was shot dead.

The Gushers In Texas.

Beaumont, Tex., April 8.—The sixth gusher oil well has been added to the Beaumont field and it is reported to be the finest well yet struck. The well is 1,040 feet deep and shows a pressure of 80 pounds to the square inch which is said to exceed the San Lucas gusher, 100 feet away and which has hitherto maintained the record of being the greatest producer in the world.

The oil pool where it was struck is only 40 feet deep, and is resting on a bed of sulphur. After the oil was struck the pipe was permitted to sink until it struck the bottom, and it rested after 40 feet of oil had been gone through. The drillers bored four feet into what they say is a bed of sulphur. In two other gushers sulphur was struck before the oil was reached.

President Gilbert says that one day next week the valve will be opened to test the flow.

A Testimonial from Old England.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." Sold by Thos. B. Magee.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Thos. B. Magee.
