Sense and Non-Sense About the Plays and Players

And the end seat hog is still with us.

Dustin Farnum and William Farnum are brothers.

Yep—Mary Pickford is married, and has been for some time.

Butte is to have a new motion picture house costing $65,000.

Madison Square Garden has the longest "throw" of any picture house in the world, 300 feet.

Francis X. Bushman has left the Essanay Company and will play leads for the Metro Company.

Also the fair young thing that sits behind you and insists on telling her friend what is coming next.

And now there is a new dance "The Charlie Chaplin Walk". Imagine a floor full of people walking like Charlie.

An unexperienced girl has one chance in 96437582 to secure a position with a moving picture company.

Vitagraph, Lubin, Selig and Essanay companies have recently formed a combination to make and release feature pictures.

Blanche Sweet, who recently appeared in the "Warrens of Virginia" will be seen again soon in "The Captive" a Lasky production.

Alice Joyce and her husband Tom Moore have both resigned from the Kalem Company and at present are enjoying a well earned rest.

A company has been formed recently to control a string of motion picture houses in which the price of admission will range from 50 cents to $2.00.

Local show goers will soon have the opportunity of seeing the $50,000 production Neptune's Daughter featuring Annetta Kellerman "The Perfect Woman."

"The Birth of a Nation" the Griffith Film Classic has run for 7 months at the Liberty Theatre in New York and is still showing to crowded houses every night.

The latest Chaplin comedy release "The Bank" is said to contain a real plot, and a big surprise finish. It's a safe bet that Charlie is there at the finish alright.

Dustin Farnum, that popular actor who made such a hit in "The Virginian" will be seen again soon in "Captain Courtesy", a five reel Bosworth production.

Thos. H. Ince, who produced "The Italian" featuring George Beban has just finished an eight reel photo-drama entitled "The Alien" also featuring that well known star.

They say that "there is a sucker born every minute," there must be from the number of so-called motion picture producing companies that are being formed now-a-days.

Honest, did you ever know a girl any where between 16 and 60 that didn't really think that she could make Mary Pickford and Marguerite Clark look like thirty cents if she was only given the chance.

It is getting harder and harder for the "innocent bystander." Not only does he get a brick in the neck when he tries to stop a street fight, but learns a minute later that he whole thing is a scene in a moving picture drama.

There are only two roads we may travel, I say, You must go one of them, there's no other way.

The millions of people, where'er they may roam, Are enroute to the Movies or on their way home.

"May Blossoms" one of the greatest dramatic successes written by David Belasco, which broke all records of endurance at the time of its original stage presentation, has been converted to the screen by the Famous Player Company and will soon be shown on the Paramount Program.

Imagine a poor milk man, used to getting up at three o'clock in the morning to deliver bottles of milk at the doors of more fortunate persons, all of a sudden finding that he is a Duke with Twenty Million Dollars. This is the character Victor Moore plays in "Snoos" the latest Lasky release which will be seen here soon.

"The Spanish Jade" the five reel photo play recently completed by the Fiction Pictures and released through the Paramount Company has some unusual beautiful settings. The subject of the picture makes necessary buildings of a Spanish type of Architecture. While the picture was taken in that part of California where an occasional building of the old Spanish missions still stand, the greater part of the buildings, the beautiful arch out side of the inn and some of the out side land marks were all constructed exclusively for this production. This was accomplished at a great expense, and is in keeping with the excellent character and quality of the production from first to last.

"The Commanding Officer" under "False Colors" sold "The Goose Girl" to "The Man from Mexico" for "His Last Dollar" so that "David Harum", "The Circus Man" could ride "In the Bishop's Carriage" with "The Dancing Girl" along the "Straight Road" to repay "The Call of the North" "After Five" and found "Captain Courtesy" "A Gentleman of Leisure" with all "The Morals of Marcus" had eloped with "Mistress Nell" to the "Valley of the Moon" to look for the "Ring and the Man" but it is "No Laughing Matter" to have "The Caprices of Kitty" shatter a "Bachelor's Romance" but he afterwards met "The Woman" "A Country Mouse" with "The Million" "Behind the Scenes" who was "One of our Girls" and after they had called on "The Parson" they traveled along the "Love Route" and lived happily ever after.

Ginger Snaps
