

Around Apgar

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Nelson, St. Jean Sullivan, were weekend guests of the farewell party at park headquarters given for Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Vincent.

We are all sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross and family leave Apgar after selling their cabin to Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn. Best wishes of Apgar go with the Ross family to wherever they intend to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Floren and family have returned home after a three weeks trip through North Dakota and Minnesota.

Dwight Grist and Wally Floren are both proud owners of new 7½ horsepower outboard motors.

The Ralph Smiths, Kalispell, visited the Ray Price family Sunday.

Al Bellman's father and brother, Fredhead lake, visited Bellmans Friday night.

Mrs. F. Willets, Mrs. A. S. Anderson and Shirley called on Mrs. Fred Larson, a newcomer to Apgar, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hawkins are welcome back to Apgar. They are now living at the Blair cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Briggs and daughter, Bawhel, N. Dak. visited last week with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. Willets.

Mrs. Cal Tidrick received word from Mrs. L. Harrington that she has arrived in Dillon and is ready to start school.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore and family, Martin City, were Apgar callers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Peck, Missoula, spent a few days at the Lisa Powell home.

Rita Williams is now employed at Brewster's cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sparks, Summit, visited their daughter, Mable Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown, Kanesville, and Mr. and Mrs. Teigen, Wisconsin, were visitors at the Dell Kavanaugh cabin last week. They also visited the Ray Wiles home.

Clarence Farte and Al Dusen, Kalispell, are trying their luck fishing on Lake McDonald.

Chet Ross is now employed for Frank Benda, Belton.

Ray Ogden, Kalispell, visited at the Cal Tidricks Sunday.

places which have sprung up since they left a short time ago. They plan to return to Silver Star soon.

Virginia Marianna is employed at the River Bend ranch near Belton. Dr. Betty and Roy Wessel are the owners of this new ranch setup.

Mrs. Tommy Morton and her daughter, Kay, Kalispell spent the afternoon with Georgia Peterson Tuesday.

Mrs. K. D. Paper and children, Spokane, are visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Dick Ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Markovitz and family, Gettysburg, So. Dak., are visiting at the Frank Markovitz home.

The Coram cubs beat the Martin City cubs 15 to 14 on the Coran diamond last Thursday. The Martin City cubs are coming back for revenge this Thursday.

Everyone interested in school problems met on Thursday evening.

Open House at Lake Hotel

Lake McDonald and Flathead county residents are especially invited to the Lake McDonald hotel open house Sunday from 3 to 7 p. m. Mrs. Beatrice Frase, manager, would like the local folks to meet the hotel staff, look the place, and especially the new kitchen, over. The cooks are baking an extra batch of cookies.

To Hear Fire Safety Talk

Ranger Robert Morris will talk to Lake McDonald hotel employees Monday on fire precautions. Also brought into the discussion will be "why the park." At the meeting the various department heads at the hotel will be introduced by Mrs. Beatrice Frase, manager.

Returning for her 11th season at Lake McDonald hotel is Miss Lillian Johnson, Minneapolis school teacher, who will be hostess at the hotel dining room.

Back at the Lake McDonald hotel transportation desk is Wilbur Pownall.

Visiting Mrs. Alfred Neuman, Coram, over the weekend was her son Gerald Boomer and grandson, Stanley, Williston. Stanley will stay the summer, while Gerald returned to his railroad job Sunday.

Forest Dispatchers to Hold School at Coram Station

Flathead national forest dispatchers will hold a one-day school at Coram ranger station, Tuesday. In charge will be E. J. Jost, Flathead national forest assistant supervisor; Harry Gruner, administrative assistant, and Carter Helseth, central office dispatcher.

Completed this coming Friday will be the last of three fire fighting and lookout training schools for temporary employes, also held at the Coram ranger station.

Visitors in the West Glacier area Saturday and Sunday included Patti Anne Luer, Anaconda, Miss Montana of 1948; Vinx Arnegard, Williston; Vic Dikeos, Missoula, and Ted Greeley. All are Montana state university students.

Belton Briefs

By Jane McDonnell

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thuring and Bob spent the weekend at Lake McGregor where they attended amateur operators radio field day at which they tested the use of emergency radio equipment.

The daily vacation Bible school will start next Monday and last to June 25 from about 9 to 1 or 2 o'clock at the Belton school house. The leaders are Rev. F. B. Hillis and Mrs. Grace Alhouse, Kalispell. The children are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Glenn and daughter, Joan, were weekend guests at the Clarence Murrill home. They were on the way back to Stillwater, Minn., to make their home there once more. Mr. Glenn was paymaster with the A. Guthrie company two years ago when they were at Belton and has since been in business at Clayton, Wash. near Spokane.

The Martin City boy scouts and their scoutmaster, Rev. James Schofield, came up Monday evening for a practice game with the Belton scouts. A baseball game is scheduled now for next Monday evening. It should be good.

Ted Dofelmire is visiting in Kalispell for a few days.

Earl Burrell and family went on a short trip to Many Glaciers Wednesday.

Jane McDonnell is employed at the Belton Merc. now.

Mrs. Walter Gibb, Mrs. Jess Whitney and Catherine Cavinaugh, were dinner guests Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weidling, Coram.

Arriving Thursday to visit the H. O. Mahoneys will be Mrs. Mahoney's brother, Lloyd Dewey and daughter, Great Falls. "Oscar" has returned and resumed his duties as dishwasher at the West Glacier cafe.

About 50 people attended mass at the Belton park rec. hall last Sunday.

Public auction was held Tuesday morning to sell the estate of Angello Calivas. Mrs. Ida Goos was high bidder on the gold watch.

Fred Hodgson's mother, Salt Lake City, visited with the family for a few days this week. His brother, Bill, was here, too, on his way to the post he has held in the summer as temporary ranger on the east side of the park.

Fred Cooper has been installing oil heating in the home of Mrs. Cooper's mother, Mrs. Ida Goos, Apgar.

Harriet Stinson is home from college for the summer and is running the Belton curio shop.

Donkey Baseball

Jack Moores original DONKEY SOFTBALL TEAM Versus COLUMBIA FALLS Monday June, 28 At 6:30 P. M. Columbia Falls Ball Park Admission: Adults, 76c, Children 30c (tax included)

Donkey Baseball
Jack Moores original DONKEY SOFTBALL TEAM Versus COLUMBIA FALLS Monday June, 28 At 6:30 P. M. Columbia Falls Ball Park Admission: Adults, 76c, Children 30c (tax included)

Doc's Bar
Snow Slip Ranch
HORSEBACK FISHING PARTIES
See us for fishing in seldom visited trout streams
PARTIES OR PACK TRIPS ARRANGED
Near Essex Highway No. 2

The Breeze is built into these

Walk Over KOOLIES
• Those perforations aren't just a smart-looking pattern. They're air vents... to sweep your feet with fresh air at every step! Step into a pair today!
Fergusson Shoe Co.
231 Main Phone 368 Kalispell
Mail Orders Promptly Filled

Coram Items

Dennis Gordon has returned to Coram to take over his father's duties in the Gordon Construction company while his father, Ed Gordon is getting along nicely.

Robert Fehlberg is home for the summer months. He is a student at Montana State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bruce are attending normal school in Cheney, Wash.

Louis Rudeen, Cheney, Wash., is guest of the Gordons.

Mrs. A. A. Martin is home after teaching a term of school in Portland. She gives some interesting reports on the flood conditions in that vicinity. She says the Vancouver area was roped off soon after it was inundated and she didn't get to see the destruction done there.

Mrs. Hettie Bedord and daughter, Delores, Missoula, were guests at the Jack Gordon home. They are Hettie's mother and sister.

Mrs. Ann Cottingham is back in Coram after spending several months practical nursing in Portland. She plans on selling some of her property here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holtz and family, Dupuyer, made Mother McNamara happy by spending several days here with her.

Anna Mae Salois and Charles Porterfield enjoyed a short vacation with relatives of Anna Mae's near Dupuyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cottingham and boys, Silver Star, Mont., are looking over the old familiar places and a lot of the not familiar

WAGGENER & CAMPBELL
Funeral Directors
525 MAIN ST. PHONE 36
KALISPELL, MONT.
"Thoughtful Funeral Service"

There's a New Ford in your future

You are cordially invited to come in and see the NEW 1949 FORD THE CAR OF THE YEAR! GAREY MOTOR COMPANY KALISPELL

Open for Business
Tuesday
Home & Contractors Supply Co.
HIGHWAY NO. 2 (WAGSMITH)
Hungry Horse
Complete Line of Furniture and Electrical Appliances
We can furnish your home at "Best-buy Prices"

Protect Your Car and Prevent Rust Squeaks and "Rattles"
Flathead Motor Sales Co. KALISPELL
YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER
LET US UNDERCOAT YOUR CAR TODAY WITH A PROTECTIVE COATING AGAINST RUST CORROSION AND LESSENS ROAD NOISE