

Columbia Heights

By Christy

A peach of a rumor is making the rounds these days. We're to have a new store in the not too far distant future. I asked and the rumor was verified. More later.

We've a new place to get our malts now right at home. Carolyn's Ice Cream parlor. Welcome to the Heights.

Donald Remy, just discharged from the Army Air Force has come to stay with his mother, Mrs. Roy Thomas. Mrs. Thomas is a very happy person as they've just got their water piped in.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Crandall and children, Scooby, have been guests of the Homer Carters this past week. The women are sisters. The Crandalls became very fond of our valley and its friendly people.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Webber.

E. P. West, upon completion of his own home, will build others for sale in Columbia Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Harbour, Las Vegas, Nevada are contemplating buying an acreage in Monte Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Anaconda, visited with her sister, Mrs. Mulligan, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavson, Vancouver, B. C. were guests this past week of the Bryants. Mrs. Bryant and Mrs. Gustavson were girlhood chums.

Joan Worrall and Mrs. Tony Kelly left by car for a two weeks vacation in California.

Mrs. Paul Janetski made a business trip to Spokane last week.

Jack Jones, Bayview, Idaho spent a few days in the Heights looking for a business site.

Bill Dodge, Priest, Idaho, was a visitor of his cousin, Mrs. Gus Johnson this week.

The Wheatleys have been busy this week entertaining guests. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Storkson, Glasgow, were two day visitors and Mr. and Mrs. William Maas and the children were Sunday guests.

Billy Jo Andrew is weekending with Joan Brew.

Gene Staadish and Frank Wheelock sold their lot in Monte Vista and purchased a home south of Columbia Falls.

Don Bader and family, Seattle, are visiting his brother, Gene, at Monte Vista. Also took a fishing trip to Bowman lake so now there is a Montana fishing story to be told back home.

Mrs. T. E. (Dorothy) West and daughter, Cheryl Lee, Leavenworth, Wash., are building pumice houses in Columbia Heights for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert LaDrew have started their home in the Steele addition.

Bill Priest and buddy, Dick, Alabama, are tent housing on the R. V. Thomas property. College guys gettin' more dough to get more larnin' this fall.

Gene Jacobson, Missoula, came up to work at the dam. No place to stay, so kept house in the port of entry station as guests of Chad Smith and Gordon Christianson. Nice guys.

The Walt Thayers and the Joe

Cadas went huckleberry picking at the Stillwater. Quite a crowd was there all stealing Elmer's food. Who's Elmer? He's the great big grizzly.

A family reunion was held Sunday at the Jim Gardners, Monte Vista. A picnic dinner was held under the pines. A good time was had by the following guests, C. H. Gardner and son, Woody; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Senners, Mr. and Mrs. E. Peterson and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson, all of Kalispell; Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruff, Somers; Mrs. Alvin Sennar, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Nutter, Bad Rock; and Mrs. Jim Clarke, Monte Vista. Mrs. Jim Gardner says when this family gets together fun is rampant.
