TALK THAT HAS BEEN HEARD

Livingston Boys Take Barrels of Conceit Out of Bozeman on the Diamond - Getting Back at 'Em.

Special Correspondence of the Standard. Livingston, July 28.—Ever since the failure of the great railroad strike...

Special Correspondence of the Standard. Livingston, July 28.—Ever since the failure of the great railroad strike...

"To employes of Montana Division: It has been brought to my notice, and the authority is without question, that the wives and children of new employes...

"While I do not purpose in any degree to mislead you, I do not deem it necessary to call your attention to the fact that the heads of families who were formerly employed by the Northern Pacific must see that this thing is stopped...

"You can readily see wherein it is other than gentlemanly or ladylike to insult or abuse others who are in no way responsible for their position of condition, and I trust that this warning will be accepted in the spirit in which it is given."

"I believe in meting out justice to all concerned and the only thing you have to fear in this matter is justice."

"ANGUS BROWN, Master Mechanic."

This notice, it is believed, will prove salutary and produce an outward show at least, of that entente cordiale that should exist.

To-day the Livingston baseball club took the conceit all out of the "hay diggers" from over the range. The home team played a brilliant game and gave the Missourians from Bozeman enough goose eggs to start them fairly well in the poultry business.

The game was played on the new grounds in front of the race track grand stand. A large crowd was in attendance and the shouts that went up from the Livingston rooters rent the air and made the heavens ring.

Three weeks ago the Livingston team went over to Bozeman and was beaten. At that time our boys were made the butt of ridicule by the Bozeman rooters, and so to-day the score was evened up by the Livingston hi-meches, who ruzzed the visitors to a finish.
