AFFAIRS IN THE COUNCIL

Mayor Walker Insists That Charges Must Be Made in Writing.

A Lively Discussion on the Subject of Complaints Against Policemen and City Officials—Other Matters Considered.

Everybody got warm and for a few moments there was a lively set-to in which all hands indulged after the reading of the statement of Officer John White at the meeting of the city council last night in regard to the complaint made by Alderman Shovlin against Officer Pickle at the last meeting. It will be remembered that the charges then made by Alderman Shovlin were not entertained and he was instructed to present any charges that he might wish to make in writing. The matter was brought up by Alderman Shovlin again last night by his requesting that the statement of Officer White be read. The document was to the effect that on the night of the trouble in Petritz's saloon on Park avenue, Mr. White was called there and was unable to take his man away. While in a dilemma as to what he should do, Mr. Pickle dropped into the saloon, and both men took hold of the man. Meanwhile, the door was locked and they could not take him out. Mr. White asserted that he wished to burst open the door, but Mr. Pickle thought this was not right. Mr. Pickle then left the place to interview Judge Fitzgerald. Mr. White was gone about one hour and meanwhile the prisoner escaped with the assistance of his friends.

After the statement was read by the clerk Alderman Shovlin arose and said: "Now, Mr. Chairman, you will see that this statement agrees with my..." What Mr. Shovlin was going to remark was abruptly brought to an end by Mayor Walker, who arose and said: "That is enough, Mr. Shovlin, if you have got anything to charge against Mr. Pickle you will have to present your charges in writing and have witnesses cited to substantiate them. I don't want to sit here all night and listen to this same old story."

"The charges are there," replied Alderman Shovlin, pointing to the clerk's desk, "and I think it is your duty to hear me." Mayor Walker responded: "I don't want to be told my duty by you, Mr. Shovlin; you are out of order. All charges will have to be presented in writing. If there is any investigation to be made I am in favor of it and will insist that the entire city force, not only the policemen but the other city officials, be included in any investigation. I hear charges preferred against them every day, but they must be examined in the proper manner."

Alderman Martin said he had also heard charges made against all the city officials, even including the city fathers, and he made a motion that a committee be appointed to investigate the charges and that each person accused be brought before the committee for examination together with his witnesses and the person who makes the charge.

Alderman Shovlin said: "Mr. Chairman; that is what I was going to say but whenever I get on my feet on this question you declare me out of order." Alderman King here chipped in and said the way he understood it Mr. Shovlin had presented charges against Mr. Pickle, but only presented an explanation from another party apparently to endorse the charges without presenting the charges in writing as is required. He made a motion that Alderman Shovlin present his charges in writing.

Alderman Shovlin then said he had no charges to make; that he would not make any, as he thought it useless when all were against him. Alderman King thought Mr. Shovlin was taking a most peculiar stand, as he had made certain oral charges at the previous meeting and now took it all back.

Alderman Shovlin said that he was not at the scene of the trouble, and as he did not see it he could not make any charge in writing. All that he knew about it was what he had heard. Alderman Martin said that it was only necessary to hear the charges. Any kicks were legitimate if he produced witnesses to back them up. The mayor stated that everything was out of order unless witnesses were cited and brought before the council and charges be made in writing. Alderman King was of the opinion that an investigating committee should be appointed. Alderman Hughes said he would not be on such a committee and thought it was something the council alone should investigate. Mayor Walker stated that an ordinance provided that any charges of this kind should be examined before a majority of the council.

The report of the garbage committee was presented to the effect that Mr. Daly had been interviewed in regard to the matter and it was thought necessary that a fence be built. A motion to that effect was carried. There were eight bids, which were then read. The lowest was $482 from W. C. Lenington. It was claimed that he had reconsidered the price and said he could not do it for that. The contract was given to A. H. Leck who bid $549. The conditions under which the fence is to be constructed are that the contract shall call for a six foot fence, posts six inches square, six feet above the ground planted two feet in the soil; 2 by 4 railing, one double gate in front and posts placed eight feet apart. The other bids were: Smith & Gilmour, $629; Thomas G. Edwards, $539; W. H. Leck, $549; Blix & Wegner, $1,015 1/2; Charles Hamilton, $709; W. C. Lenington $482; Oker & Gilmour, $580; J. D. Grundy, $550.

There was a long discussion on the levying of taxes. It was finally decided that 12 mills should be levied on each dollar worth of property, four for fire and water, five administering purposes, one sewer bonds and two road tax. The chair appointed Aldermen Hughes, MacCallum, Martin and King as a board of equalization to meet the county board next week.

Alderman Shovlin next arose and said he thought it would be in order to bring up the sewerage question. He made a motion that the two gentlemen who had done extra work on the sewer, on account of delayed material be allowed $500 for their claim. The motion was seconded and carried thus settling a $1,200 claim which has been an eyesore for several months. A motion that the clerk draw a warrant for the sum and pay it out of the sewer fund was carried.

Ordinance 67, an ordinance appropriating $3,000 of the sewer fund for the road was read. Rules were suspended and it was placed on its final passage and carried. Ordinance 68 was acted upon in a like manner. This is an ordinance making it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of from $1 to $20 for any person excavating a cellar for a building to place rocks on the street, or to dump any material of obstructive character on the highway. The ordinance also fines any persons removing rocks in wagons who allow them to fall on the street and does not remove them the same day. A petition was next read from the Standard Fire Brick company asking that Fourth street between Spruce street and the western limits of the city be declared vacant and that the company be allowed to use it. It owns the two blocks on each side and is desirous of putting up a large plant for manufacturing brick and cannot very well do so unless they have the middle block as a split plant could not conveniently be put up. The sense of the council was that the street was not of any use, and the petition met with favor. However, a committee was appointed, consisting of Aldermen Murray, King, Shovlin and MacCallum, to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting. The officers of the new company are: J. B. Losee, president; D. D. Walker, vice president; S. A. Estes, treasurer; H. T. Mahan, secretary; C. C. Thurston, manager. The capital stock is $50,000.

Several bills were read and referred in the usual manner. A petition from Joseph EH to place a large gilt boot in front of his store was granted.

GREATLY MIXED.

History of a Little Trouble About Some Money Paid Into Court.

By the Standard's Special Wire. BUTTE, Aug. 25.—This morning an alternate writ of mandamus was issued by Judge McHatton to Justice of the Peace Eddy. The mandate grows out of a case which started on September 12 of last year, when W. H. Matthews and C. F. Curtis, of the firm of Matthews & Curtis, brought suit against Sarah Barlace for a debt of $299. She had left town, and an attachment was served from Judge Hopkins' court, after which the sum of $100 was garnished in the hands of Al Abbott in Walkerville, he owing her that sum on account of a house purchased from her. On September 29 an alias execution was issued, and the due process gone through with for obtaining the money. On December 12 judgment was signed in favor of the plaintiff by Judge Eddy, successor of Judge Hoffman.

On August 11 last an execution was issued by Judge Eddy and placed in the hands of the sheriff to levy on the $100 in the hands of Mr. Abbott, he being ready to pay the money. Deputy Richards, with Abbott and the execution, went to the office of W. C. Shippen, the agent of Mrs. Barlace, and to him Abbott paid $155 of the money which had been garnished. It is claimed by the plaintiffs that when the money was on the table and before Mr. Shippen had received it, Deputy Richards served the execution and garnishee notice. On August 13, Mr. Shippen made a return to the sheriff of $27.00, as the amount in his hands due Sarah Barlace and stated in the return that $100 had been paid F. T. McBride as an attorney fee and he had retained $25 fees.

On August 20, Attorney O'Donnell for the plaintiffs filed an affidavit with Judge Eddy and obtained an order commanding W. C. Shippen to appear before him that day to be examined in regard to any money in his hands belonging to Sarah Barlace. Mr. Shippen appeared with his attorney, Mr. McBride, and several postponements ensued. Mr. Shippen declined to answer the questions and Mr. O'Donnell asked that Mr. Shippen be arrested for contempt of court. The court, however, refused to do this.

This morning Attorney O'Donnell filed a petition for an order of alternate writ of mandamus and this was issued by Judge McHatton. It calls on Judge Eddy within three days of the receipt of the writ to issue an order compelling W. C. Shippen to appear before him and testify as required by law, or alternately to appear before him at the court house on September 6, at 10 a. m. and give reasons why he should not do this. The writ was served on Judge Eddy this afternoon.

READY FOR THE CONTEST.

Schumacher Leaves for Butte in Splendid Trim.

Peter Schumacher, the great wrestler, leaves to-day for Butte where he will remain until his match on Wednesday evening with the Jap in the opera house. As yet no announcement has been made of an excursion or special railway rates to Butte from Anaconda on that occasion. Many people from this city are anxious to see the contest, and it would doubtless pay the Montana Union to make arrangements for the transportation of people on that occasion. Schumacher is in the pink of condition. To a STANDARD reporter he said last night: "I am going to win this match if it is within my power to do so. I must win it. I lost the last match and the money made by the winner. This contest is for $250 a side and gate receipts. If I lose that too I will be in bad shape. But I don't propose to lose it. The Jap has none the better of me with his favorite strange hold barred, and I am not going to go down until he puts me there—which he can't do in this match."

Schumacher will be backed liberally by sports from this city Wednesday evening. It will be the best wrestling contest ever witnessed in the state of Montana. The last match between these two men was exciting and worth witnessing, but the match on Wednesday will be still more exciting and interesting. The Jap has no advantage in this contest except in weight, and that is offset by the Anaconda boy's agility and undoubted superiority as a general on the canvas. It will be good betting if the Jap's friends can be got to give odds of any kind.

ROWAND WON'T TELL

Why He Attempted to Commit Suicide—His Condition.

Special Correspondence of the Standard. BUTTE, Aug. 25.—A STANDARD reporter saw Dr. Murray to-night in regard to the condition of young Rowand. The doctor said he had been out to the Halfway house to-day and examined the young man who attempted suicide yesterday. The doctor said he found Rowand's condition unchanged. His chances of living are good, yet he is not out of danger.

Strange to say he has not yet thrown any light upon the reason why he attempted to take his life. He promised yesterday to tell his mother to-day, but all that he will tell her now is that he has had trouble. Of what nature his trouble was he will not intimate. He says he will talk more when his mother is calmer. At present she is wild with worry and excitement.

AS TO MR. BALDWIN.

He Retires From the Management of the Montana Union Full of Honor.

Special Correspondence of the Standard. BUTTE, Aug. 25.—With the close of to-day W. H. Baldwin, jr., ceases to be general manager of the Montana Union railway and his successor, W. H. Burns, will assume the office. During the time that Mr. Baldwin has had charge of the road he made a record for himself that many men older in years and experience might well feel proud of, as the duties and labors connected with the position are made doubly onerous and hard in view of the peculiar existence of the company in whose employ he has been. To be general manager of any railroad requires sound judgment, thorough knowledge of railroading in all of its branches, and executive ability, backed by clear-headedness and decision.

But to be general manager of a company such as the Montana Union requires even more—a degree of impartiality and reliance in personal judgment not necessary in the management of ordinary roads. Composed as the company is of two other and separate railroad companies whose interests and business are continually clashing, and between whom exists the bitterest business rivalry and hostility, it can be readily seen that to manage the business of such a corporation is not an easy task. While faithful to the one, yet the strictest neutrality must be maintained toward both of the others, and everything must be avoided that has even a semblance of partiality to either company composing the line over whose business rivalry and hostility, it can be readily seen that to manage the business of such a corporation is not an easy task.

Nearly all this is due to the energy and executive ability of Mr. Baldwin, who as a railroad man has few superiors. In his appointment to the position of assistant vice president of the Union Pacific, an office analogous to that of general manager of other roads, he consists of the strongest possible recognition of his ability and sound judgment.

To-morrow Mr. Baldwin will devote to settling up his private affairs, and Wednesday evening he will leave for Omaha to assume his new position. While congratulating him upon his good fortune, his many friends in Butte yet regret the necessity of his removal and wish him continued success and prosperity, and in him see a second Tom Potter.

Mr. Burns, who succeeds Mr. Baldwin, is also a thorough and practical railroad man, who has worked his way from the bottom of the ladder and in whose judgment and good sense his superiors have always placed the utmost confidence. Pleasant and agreeable, and quick to act, he will no doubt soon be as popular as the gentleman whom he succeeds, and his management of the road will undoubtedly be successful.
