James Walls pleaded guilty to being drunk and contributed a fine and costs of $17.40 to the city's exchequer. Thomas Robinson also pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $5 and costs. Killed by a Cowboy. A Red Lodge dispatch states that news reached that place Tuesday morning of the killing of H. C. Lovell in the Big Horn in Wyoming, who was one of the largest cattlemen in the section. It is difficult to obtain accurate information as to the circumstances, but it is said that he was killed by a man whose first name was Ira, and it is supposed to be Ira Avant, a cowboy who came here from Nebraska about a year ago, and who has a ranch in the Gray Bull country. It is said that Avant had formerly worked for Lovell, who had ordered him to leave the country, and that in a personal encounter Avant had killed him with a shot gun loaded with buck shot. He gave himself up to the authorities and was taken to Lander, Wyoming. Mr. Lovell's home was at Billings and he was well known by all cattlemen throughout Montana and Wyoming. It saves the Children. Mr. C. H. Shawen, Wellsville, Kan., says: "It is with pleasure that I speak of the good Chamberlin's colic, cholera and diarrhea remedy has done my family during the last fourteen years. In the most obstinate cases of summer complaint and diarrhea among my children, it acted as a charm, making it never necessary to call in a physician. I can truthfully say that in my judgment, based on years of experience, there is not a medicine in the market that is its equal. For sale by J. E. Ferte—Druggist. Flying Hiattoga.
