Predicts Light Damage by 'Hoppers' in 1943

Bozeman—(UP)—Grasshopper damage to crops will be much lighter in Montana during 1943 than during the past few years, Dr. Harlow B. Mills, state entomologist, said in his annual report to the governor.

He said a recent egg survey indicated grasshopper infestation will be spotted and the least severe in five years. Control work in 1943 will be concentrated in Big Horn, Yellowstone, Stillwater, Golden Valley and Musselshell counties.

Mills estimated grasshopper damage to crops during the past year amounted to more than $1,500,000. Approximately $817,000 worth of farm products were saved by farmers' control methods in 1942, he said.

20 Years Ago

(Dec. 15-31, 1922)

Plans are underway for the annual community Christmas tree festival to be held at the High School Saturday evening, Dec. 23. In spite of the fact that this has been a lean year, the kiddies will be looked after, as usual. Women from the three churches of Harlem will join together to see that the tree is trimmed and candy bags filled. Men will make the rounds with the "nose bag" to provide the treats. A fine entertainment is being arranged by the grade school.

Owing to severe weather it has been impossible to complete the water works and the people of Harlem will have to worry along with intermittent service for a while longer.

Harvey McMichael, son of Mayor McMichael, broke a bone in his left arm just above the wrist Wednesday afternoon, while playing on the school grounds.

In spite of extremely cold weather Jack Clark is still running his auto-stage between here and Havre. This is proving quite a convenience since trains have been running so uncertainly. He had his first trouble Friday evening when the magneto on his engine went bad at Chinook and he had to lay up there for the night. Passengers are finding the trip comparatively comfortable with side curtains on the car and foot warmers provided.

Attorney J. L. Angstman and family have returned from Helena where they visited relatives the past few weeks. Mr. Angstman took his examinations for the bar, while away, passing them successfully so he is now a full-fledged lawyer and will open offices here.

The worst blizzard in the history of the Great Northern R. R. raged on the western slope of the Rockies Sunday. Four feet of snow and winds bordering on a hurricane isolated mountain towns. Trains were belated by a snowslide near Java, blocking the track for 24 hours.

According to the report compiled by the State Highway Commission, Blaine county has 748 automobiles, of which 431 are Fords. Overlands come next, with 55 in use in the county. Buicks number 29. There are 86 trucks and only one motorcycle in the county.

Judge of the District Court

SEASON'S GREETINGS

E. P. Ekegren, Inc.

Harlem, Montana

Christmas, last year, was not an occasion for singing Peace on Earth, Good Will towards Men for the very hope of all Christendom was momentarily scattered.

This Christmas, in all our hearts we find a New Hope has been born; the Hope and the Vision of a Real Peace on Earth and Good Will toward Men and Women of all Nations.

We believe that this will bring about a better understanding of Peace and something that is practical and lasting.

We sincerely wish that You and Yours will have a very pleasant Christmas, regardless of any circumstances and we hope that this coming year will bring to this world, Peace and Good Will and to You a liberal measure of Happiness.

Thanking you, One and All, for all favors shown us in the past and hoping to be able to serve you in the days to come, we again wish you a Very Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,

E. P. EKEGREN Inc.

The 'lectric train that wasn't there

SOME things are hard to understand when you're six. Long before Christmas, Daddy explained why there couldn't be a new electric train this year. But Jimmy kept on hoping . . . maybe . . . somehow . . . Santa Claus . . .

Jimmy's a good soldier. He'll get along with his old wind-up train that jumps the track. And Daddy will tell him again how the wonderful electric locomotive, with its light and whistle—and all the shining cars—are going into gun parts now.

And maybe Daddy will add that the same electricity which drives tiny trains is also driving the big machines that make bombers and battleships. We hope Daddy does mention it. We're proud of the part that power plays in war production.

Every war plant has had ample electric power when it was needed. Millions of extra kilowatts have been installed—until today America has far more electric power than all our Axis enemies combined!

And seven-eighths of all this flood of power comes from the electric companies under American business management.

Power is production—and production points to Victory. . . . Then real Christmas will come again—and Jimmy will get his electric train.
