

ANNUAL NUMBER.
10,000 COPIES.

The Tribune.

ANNUAL NUMBER.
10,000 COPIES.

Case 2
Drawer 16

GREAT FALLS, MONTANA, JANUARY, 1890.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF MONTANA,
HELENA.

GREAT FALLS, MONTANA.

The Manufacturing and Commercial Metropolis
OF NORTHERN MONTANA,

Where LABOR and CAPITAL are Combining with Phenomenal Resources to Build up the MOST IMPORTANT CITY between Minneapolis and Portland.

THE "FUTURE GREAT" IS RAPIDLY BECOMING THE "PRESENT GREAT."

THE GREAT FALLS SILVER-LEAD SMELTER

Now employs three hundred men. Its companion industry, the still greater,

THE BOSTON AND MONTANA COPPER SMELTER AND REFINING WORKS OF GREAT FALLS

Are now building. Simultaneous with the construction of the mammoth plant, is the improvement of the Water-Power at Black Eagle Falls upon such a scale as to furnish power for hundreds of industries and

EMPLOYMENT FOR THOUSANDS OF MEN.

In the construction of the Dam and Copper Works alone, at least seven hundred men will be employed during the coming Spring and Summer.

THE SAND COULEE COAL MINES ARE TURNING OUT FROM 1,500 TO 2,000 TONS OF COAL PER DAY, Thereby providing work for another four hundred men.

THE RAILROAD TO THE BELT MOUNTAINS

Is nearly completed. Lying tributary to Great Falls are some of

THE RICHEST MINING CAMPS IN MONTANA.

GREAT FALLS heads the list as the Greatest Wool Market in Montana.

GREAT FALLS is in the heart of, and is accessible from all parts of, the Richest Agricultural and Stock Raising district in Montana.

GREAT FALLS, but four years of age, has a population of at least 3,000 inhabitants.

GREAT FALLS is favored with Excellent Schools, nearly all Church denominations and a Public Library.

GREAT FALLS is already a railroad center, and new roads to it are among the certainties of 1890.

GREAT FALLS has Electric Lights, an excellent system of Water-Works, a Great Hotel, two Banks, Substantial Buildings, solid Mercantile Houses, a Saw-Mill, a Planing Mill, and a Flouring Mill, which is kept busy grinding Northern Montana Wheat.

GREAT FALLS, with its Manufacturing, Mining, Stock Growing, Agricultural and Commercial advantages, offers an unrivaled field to the Home-seeker and the Investor.

FOR ANY INFORMATION REGARDING GREAT FALLS AND VICINITY, ADDRESS

CHAS. M. WEBSTER,

Secretary Great Falls Water-Power and Townsite Company,

CENTRAL AVENUE.

GREAT FALLS, MONTANA.

Additional
regards the locafavorable for the ent dam, as the one ill be, in the fullest