

TROY NEWS

School Again

Tuesday morning according to schedule the elementary pupils and students assembled. As this leaves Troy it is too early for Superintendent Hodges to give the attendance. Grade One failed to meet up to expectations in numbers. However more may join the ranks later. Among high school students there is great scurrying around to get sufficient athletes to make up a football team. Many of the old players have dropped out.

The band leader is busy getting his players and instruments assembled. As this is the first year for some time Troy has attempted to have a real live band, it is expected there will be quite an interest in it.

Takima Club No Longer Federated

Mrs. Harry Higgins with Mrs. Lenard Roth as co-hostess entertained the members of Takima Club at her home on Wednesday. The chief business of the evening was a discussion as to whether the club would remain federated or not. After speakers brought up the affirmative and the negative side a vote was taken, with the result that the club chose not to be federated. The popular idea was that as there was one federated group in a town of this size that was sufficient. The club went on record as stating that its individual members could affiliate themselves with any federated club if they so chose.

Plans for a buffet dinner to be held at the Maness home on September 15 were discussed. To this dinner guests will be invited. The hostesses served apple pie with whipped cream.
