Luteys Spring Canned Fruit Sale

April 18 to 25

Home fruits are low, if not entirely gone, and it will be some time before fresh fruits arrive. The appetite craves fruit dessert now more than any time of the year.

While canned fruits are advancing weekly and 1917 pack must of necessity set a new record for high prices, Luteys can still give you the benefit of a fortunate good buy made during the fall and winter.

These special low prices should make desserts a feature of every meal. Buy sufficient quantities to last well into next fall while these low prices continue through the canned fruit sale, April 18 to 25.

PROPOSES A GREAT SEED DISTRIBUTION

Representative Asks Government to Encourage Production in This Way.

The Post's Washington Bureau. Washington, D. C., April 18.—If congress should pass a bill that has been introduced by Representative William E. Cox of Indiana the greatest distribution of seeds in the history of the world would take place in the United States this spring under government auspices.

Under the Cox bill the sum of $5,000,000 is appropriated and made immediately available "to enable the department of agriculture to purchase and distribute seed supplies for the farmer."

The congressional seed distribution has for many years been a subject of jest and ridicule. The proposed distribution would be 20 times greater than the ordinary annual distribution through members of congress, for which $250,000 is appropriated.

Under the present rules each member of congress is allowed to distribute 28,000 packages to his constituents and under the proposed distribution he would have presumably 560,000 packages to distribute, which would suggest the necessity of each member of congress having a seed warehouse in connection with his office. However, Representative Cox says that the proposed distribution would not be made by members of congress but by the department of agriculture without regard to congressional districts and where the seed would do the most good; also that grains, potatoes and other seeds would be sent out that are not now included in the annual distribution.

The "whereas" of the Cox bill recite:

"Nations having an aggregate population of more than 500,000,000 people have turned away from the peaceful fields of industry and production to the fields of war, devastation and destruction;

"Europe has mobilized and now has on the firing line a mobile army of upwards of 2,000,000 men;

"Whereas our nation is now at war with the imperial government of Germany, in which it is contemplated to raise millions of troops in the United States;

"Armies must be fed and clothed and the civilian population of nations now engaged in war likewise must be fed and clothed;

"The United States is the natural granary of the world, with its inexhaustible soil, its varied climate, its energetic and industrious urban people, backed by knowledge and wisdom, intrepidity, energy and willingness to work and toil to produce food to supply armies and civilian populations;

"Latest data and statistics gathered by the department of agriculture demonstrate to a certainty the shortage of food supply in the United States in meat, vegetables and cereals;

"The agricultural department, through its splendid organization, is abundantly able and prepared to purchase and distribute seed to farmers where needed if available funds be furnished said department for this purpose."

Department of agriculture officials say the great difficulty in the way of the Cox plan would be in securing the seeds.

ESTABLISH RATES ON GREAT LAKES

M. J. Seabrook Here From Seattle Visiting Local Shippers.

The eastbound and westbound rates have been established on the Great Lakes for the coming season and freight navigation will open within ten days, according to M. J. Seabrook, general agent of the Great Lakes Transit corporation, who was in the city today from his headquarters at Seattle.

"The eastbound rates become effective on April 20," Mr. Seabrook said today. "We anticipate a record business this season on account of the congestion of freight cars. No announcement has as yet been made as to the opening passenger business."

"Business in Seattle is better at the present time than at any other time in the history of the city, due to a large extent to the activity in shipbuilding circles. They are turning out practically one boat a week at Seattle."

"This is Mr. Seabrook's first visit to Butte since last October. He is looking up the business with the local shippers. 'I am always glad to get back into Butte,' says Mr. Seabrook, 'to meet my old friends and the shippers with whom I have been doing business for many years.'"

TWO WIVES HEAR JUDGE SEND BIGAMIST TO PEN

Valdosta, Ga. — J. Manning, alias Martin, who was recently indicted here for bigamy, has been sentenced by Judge Hartwell in the superior court to one year in the state penitentiary without the alternative of a fine. By agreement, Manning entered a plea of guilty and asked for mercy.

Before entering the plea Manning's attorneys attacked the indictment, which was based on his marriage to Mrs. Reidelheimer in this city last December. The attorneys held that as Manning's second marriage was illegal, he having a wife at the time, it would not be possible to convict him of bigamy on his last marriage in this city.

The fact that Manning had three wives was not known when the indictment was drawn. Wife No. 2 and Wife No. 3 were in court, and the former testified to her marriage to Manning. It is stated that she lived with him seven years after learning of his first marriage.

Both of the wives were visibly affected, and Wife No. 2 was in tears much of the time. Manning has frequently expressed his love for Wife No. 2 and stated that he would remarry her if he could get out of his trouble. Both of the women are handsome, refined looking and members of good families.

It Is by Comparison That Good Dressers Are Distinguished

BY COMPARISON we distinguish the best from the nearly so. So by comparison we distinguish Jonas clothes from all others. There is that about Jonas clothes that proclaims them superior.
