Thursday--The Fourth Busy Day of This Big Event And Without One Sign Yet of Failing Interest From Any Department

From nine in the morning until the last ring of the bell at six o'clock, the rush continues without a hint of abatement. The hot afternoons, far from keeping shoppers at home, merely serve to increase the call for light-weight summer things. Wash dresses, sport clothes, light wash waists, camping and motoring togs--these departments have had more than their share. Better come tomorrow.
