CONSENSUS OF REPUBLICAN OPINION IN DEER LODGE.

What Our Leading Citizens Have to Say. The Men Who, with California's Great Campaign, Refuse to Wear the Smocks of the Gods Power, Find Many Reasons.

In order to get a consensus of opinion among the publishers of Deer Lodge on the leading issues now before the country, the following list of questions were submitted to a number of the editors, and the answers were returned as follows in each case: The reply being numbered according to the queries.

1. What do you think of the present condition of the country?
2. What do you think of the present condition of the country?
3. What do you think of the present condition of the country?

such, and they could make of such action better use. They all will have soon to the world that they are true to their country and loyal to the white man.

O. B. CHANNON.
1. With the exception of the financial straits, the nation is excellent, the best, perhaps the best, that has ever existed. The people are patriotic, and will doubtless withhold their support from the present administration, should it be re-elected. It is a pity that the present administration is so weak, and that the people are so ignorant.

1. Represents the party in a favorable position.
2. The monetary question outside. The two parties are nearly if not quite together on the latter question, owing to the necessity for a heavy tariff, if for revenue only, as the democrats claim they desire. So the present issue is on the money question only.
3. No side.
4. Nominate Hartman, and endorse the St. Louis platform with the bare exception of substituting a silver plank in lieu of the gold plank, and it will be the grandest platform ever formulated by any party of any nation.
5. Hon. Henry M. Teller.
6. Uphold them, one and all, regardless as to whether by walking out or staying in, and refusing tender so the platform they made their wants

The subscription price of THE NEW NORTHWEST is $3 per year, in advance.

The Red Valley Times says that the farmers of that section of the country will not support a vote for McKinley or the republican ticket. Although many of them raise wool and have flocks, they are a unit in expressing the belief that the silver question is the all important one, and that if free coinage existed wool and other commodities would soon come out all right.

- Base Ball.
- The game of base ball to be played here on the 14th should be equal to expectation in every way, as a good nine will meet the Anacondas on the diamond and Deer Lodge will no doubt sustain herself admirably.
- The following players in the Deer Lodge team in the positions given will take part:
- Smith..... First Base
  - Bosman..... Second Base
  - Wenery..... Center Field
  - Schultz..... Third Base
  - Whitworth..... Right Field
  - McDonald..... Left Field
  - Wenery..... Pitcher
  - Jones..... Catcher
  - Alkins..... Short Stop
  - Sabbs-McLain, Napton, Barker and Coleman.

In fact everything points to an enthusiastic and delightful observance of this the most important day in the nation's year.
