The building will be equipped with new fixtures throughout and the new "Daniels' Restaurant" will be one of the finest short order cafes in Northern Montana.

LUCKE-THACKERY.

A quiet wedding occurred at the Episcopal church at Fort Benton on Christmas day, when the Rev. Chestnutt of that place pronounced the marriage ceremony which united Lou Lucke and Miss Hattie Thackery, both prominent young people of this city.

Mr. Lucke is the genial proprietor of the Eagle Shoe store, and is enjoying more than an ordinary share of prosperity, to which he is justly entitled. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thackery and holds the esteem of all who have known her during her long residence here.

Later the young couple will engage in housekeeping in this city, and the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy future is theirs.

MACHINERY IS HERE.

The additional machinery for the Havre Electric Light plant is on the ground and will be set up and ready for operation within a week.

The machinery consists of a 125-horse power engine and two dynamos, which will double the capacity of the plant and fill a much needed want in the lighting facilities of our city.

ANDERSON-BOYER.

A wedding occurred at the home of J. K. Bramble Christmas eve, which united Bert Anderson and Mrs. Celia Boyer. Rev. W. B. Young was the officiating clergyman. They have taken up their residence on First street, just east of the Gilt Edge hotel.

After the ceremony the hospitable table at the Bramble home was laid, where a few of the intimate friends of the contracting parties had assembled to witness the knot tied, and ample honors were showered upon the newly wed couple to start them on their life's journey rejoicing.

Agent Fletcher of Pacific Junction will resign his position with the Great Northern the first of the year and move with his family to Chicago to reside. Mr. Vanderhoff, formerly operator at this station, will fill the vacancy as agent at the Junction.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Maughan was the rendezvous of a family reunion Christmas day, when twenty-two of the estimable family partook of the festive turkey. Sons, daughters and the proud parents of the family were all there and all enjoyed a harmonious reunion that will long be remembered by the participants. After the sumptuous dinner the time was passed with music, song and reminiscences of by-gone days, which continued until the hour had come for retiring. Here's hoping they will enjoy many more seasons of good cheer.

Notice to Contractors and Others.
