Immediate Friends.

GRIEVES DEATH OF BROTHER

Hugo Brandeis Was Not Well When Brother Emil Went to Watery Grave with Titanic—Funeral is to Be Held Tuesday.

Hugo Brandeis, youngest son of Jonas L. Brandeis, pioneer founder of all the Brandeis mercantile interests in Omaha, succumbed at the Wise Memorial hospital yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock.
His wife, his brother, Arthur Brandeis, Mrs. Arthur Brandeis, a few close friends and the attending physicians were at his bedside when the grim reaper beckoned.

Mr. Brandeis gradually weakened from the shock of an operation for obstruction of the bowels, performed at the hospital by Drs. Bridges and Jones last Wednesday, and after several slight turns for the better had a serious setback about 3 o'clock Sunday morning when he grew restless from want of sleep. His condition gradually grew worse and his relatives and friends were hurriedly summoned to the bedside.

End Comes Suddenly.

The end came at 5:30 p. m., when he lost consciousness, and when the next ten minutes were over the little gathering in the silent chamber, heads bowed and murmuring in prayer, knew that the end had come. Up until the last ten minutes Mr. Brandeis was conscious and appeared to recognize persons in the room.

Since the recent Titanic disaster, which carried Emil Brandeis, his eldest brother, to a watery grave, Hugo Brandeis, who had himself been ailing for some time, showed the strain caused by the great shock. Attending physicians say that he was in a precarious condition prior to the operation, and that the surgeons' knife was the last desperate resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Stern (nee Miss Ruth Brandeis) of New York City were notified and are en route to Omaha.
Mrs. Arthur Brandeis returned home from Colorado Springs Friday in response to a telephone call sent Thursday.
Her son, Ervin Brandeis, had started on a trip to Pike's Peak at the time and arrived the next day.

Fail to Locate Slander.

A cablegram was sent last week to Mrs. Herman Cohn, a sister of the deceased, who is traveling in Switzerland, but she has not been heard from.

Hugo Brandeis was born in Manitowoc, Wis., in 1868 and therefore 44 years old. He was a son of Mrs. and Mr. Jonas L. Brandeis, his father being the founder of the immense mercantile firm of which the Brandeis sons later became members and built up and maintained.

When the Brandeis family came to Omaha, the youngest son, Hugo, was 14 years of age. Like his brothers, Emil and Arthur, Hugo developed a fitness for business life. He is given credit for a good share of the work in expanding the Brandeis stores into one of the largest mercantile institutions in the middle west.

A little more than twelve years ago Hugo Brandeis was married to Miss Lyle Edelman of Los Angeles and since that time they have resided in Omaha and preparing to build a new home in the West Farnam district.

Had Commercial Instinct.

Mr. Brandeis never held any public office, being content to use his energies towards furthering the commercial establishment which grew at an amazing pace under the guidance of the three brothers.

For the last several months he had been under the care of an attending physician and although able to be at his desk with regularity, his vitality was low and the sudden attack of obstruction of the bowels found his physically unable to resist the shock of the attendant operation.

Only tentative arrangements for the funeral have yet been made. The services will take place Tuesday from the late residence of the deceased, 2970 Pacific street and interment will be in the family plot at Pleasant Hill cemetery.

SEEK TO COVER PRIMARIES

T. R. Men in Lancaster Engineer Secret Meetings.

PAUL CLARK AT THE THROTTLE

Progressive Candidate for Congress in First District Had Plan to Hold Sessions Without Giving Previous Notice.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., July 21.—(Special.)— That the honesty and fairness of the Teddyites is unquestioned when it comes to the political game is evidenced by the action of the Lancaster bull moosers in trying to keep the public from knowing when and where the primaries for this county are to be held. The county organization is strongly "progressive," that is, the official part of it, and it is said that a scheme which emanated in the brain of Paul Clark was to keep quiet as to the place of the primaries so that the public would not know anything about it and then tip off the faithful and those with enough bull moose delegates to control the county convention.

Unfortunately for the scheme, "Bill" Clark, a former well-known Burlington political steerer, tipped off a Taft man, supposing him to be a bull mooser, and the same leaked out. Fortunately for the Republicans of the county, the call was finally published this morning, one day only before the primary for the convention, giving the time and place for holding the primaries and there is some publicity given to the call, which may result in knocking out the scheme of the T. R. men.

Paul Clark recognizes the fact that if the Lancaster county republican convention should send a regular republican delegation to the state convention that it will hurt his chances for being elected to congress from this district; therefore, it was necessary to pull off some kind of a deal which would disfranchise the regular republicans and give the Clark felows a chance to pack the primaries.
Whether this can be harmonized with the will moose war cry, "Thou shalt not steal," is a question yet to be settled.

In any event, Monday will be a busy day in Lancaster county politics, and while the "progressives" may win on account of the non-publicity given the primaries until the day before the time for holding them, yet the fact that the opposition to President Taft has found it necessary to resort to secrecy in the call of the primary is evidence that they have little confidence that they could win in an open and above board primary.

Omaha Road Pays.

The Minneapolis & Omaha railroad paid its occupation tax of $300 into the office of the secretary of state Saturday and the Milwaukee & St. Paul followed suit with a like amount.

The democrats of Lancaster county are bringing a great deal of pressure to bear upon ex-Chancellor Andrews of the state university to induce him to become a candidate for the legislature. They seem to think that if they can induce Prof.
Andrews to make the race and stump the county that it will help not only the county, but the state and national ticket.

Seymour Sends Out Word.

Secretary Seymour of the state board of equalization is anxiously waiting the result of the messenger sent out last Thursday to the county assessors who have not yet sent in the assessment reports.
Eighty-four counties have reported so far, leaving eight which have not reported, though the time was due yesterday. These counties are Box Butte, Custer, Dawson, Dodge, Lancaster, Scotts Bluff, Stanton and Thomas.

The assessors valuation differ considerably from those fixed by the United States census of 1910. By that authority Douglas county has the most valuable land in the state, being $131.99 per acre.
The lowest price land is shown to be Hooker county, according to the census, which puts it at $5.73 per acre while the assessor lists it at $2.84.

The counties which showed the highest values are: Burt, $82.64; Clay, $76.54; Hamilton, $71.51; Cumming, $71.50; Douglas, $69.33; Franklin, $75.12; Nemaha, $68.08; Otoe, $70.36; Polk, $76.84; Searcy, $75.27; Seward, $65.25; Washington, $63.03, and York, $66.07.

The counties showing the least valuation are: Banner, $4.32; Blaine, $4.97; Cherry, $3.79; Dawes, $4.55; Dundy, $4.55; Grant, $3.81; Hooker, $2.84; Logan, $4.71; McPherson, $4.06, and Sioux, $2.91.

For city and town lots Douglas stands the highest with $1,794.43, with Lancaster second and Polk third.

As an indication that live stock is not the same kind all over the state or that the assessors look at them from a different angle, horses are valued at $100.00 in Gage county, while Hooker only returns them at $25.15. Mules in Nemaha county are worth $119.15, but Hooker holds them only at $13.75.

Cattle are valued in Douglas county at $29.50 per head, but out in Perkins county they are placed at an even $15.

Cass county like her hog so well that she holds them at an average of only $1.90 per head, while up in Banner county hogs are valued at $3.06.

Call First Muster
of the New Guard

NEW YORK, July 21.—The first muster of wheat is called the "new guard," the provisional county chairman of the national progressive party, will be held at state headquarters in the Metropolitan tower Tuesday. The call went out today.
Colonel Roosevelt, it is announced, will be present and make a brief address.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN IS BEYOND RECOVERY

Physicians Believe Mikado's Heart Too Weak to Bring Him to Health.

Subjects in ANXIETY

Grief Expression for Majesty.

CROWN PRINCE GETTING WELL

Young Heir Apparent Will Visit Royal Sick Room Today if Emperor Survives Night of Terrible Suffering.

TOKYO, July 21.—What little change was noted in the condition of the emperor today emphasized the seriousness of his illness. Following their first consultation this morning the court physicians announced that the patient's pulse was weaker. The bulletin was issued at 12:20 p. m.

This day of suspension closed with a bulletin from the imperial bedside that practically excluded hope for the recovery of Mutsuho, emperor of Japan.

At 9:10 p. m. the four physicians in consultation at the palace announced that his majesty's symptoms were discouraging. The emperor has been unable to sleep and was delirious. His heart action was weak, his pulse eighty-two and his respiration thirty-four.

The emperor's subjects and foreigners who have lived under his rule are united together in their anxiety. All day long members of the cabinet and high officials gathered in the outer rooms of the palace awaiting word from the sick chamber, while a continuous stream of callers registered their names with messengers of sympathy.

Regulations prohibiting unnecessary noises and all forms of enjoyment were enforced, although the Japanese are an undemonstrative people, enduring personal and private troubles with stoicism. In the present situation the greatest depression and anxiety are apparent everywhere.

Crown Prince Recovering.

Information from the sick room of the Crown Prince Yoshihito, who is convalescing from chicken pox, is that he feels apparently so nearly recovered that he may be permitted to visit the emperor's bedside tomorrow. Significant of the general belief that the emperor cannot recover is the fact that most of the callers at the imperial palace paid their respects at the residence of the crown prince.

It is understood that Katsura, the former premier, who left several days ago on a mission to Europe, is awaiting the request of Marquis Saionji, president of the privy council, for his return. This request, it is believed, will be issued the moment hope of the emperor's recovery is abandoned.

Republican Report On Steel Inquiry to Favor Curbing Trust

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The republican members of the Stanley steel trust investigating committee worked today on a report of their views of the results of the steel inquiry, and when it is submitted to the house it will create more of a sensation than that prepared by Chairman Stanley.

This assertion was made by a member of the committee today. He said the republican recommendations would be more far-reaching than those made by the democrats and that the bills to be suggested to the house would be for constructive legislation to amend the trust laws, rather than to censure the officials who failed to curb the growth of the steel trust.

The republicans will find much to praise in the Stanley report, but will differ from its conclusions. The finding of the Stanley faction of the committee will not be accepted by the republicans, but some of the legislation proposed in the Stanley report will be endorsed.

Representative Gardner of Massachusetts will resist the suggestion of Chairman Stanley that the reports and data gathered by the commissioner of corporations be made available to congress. He fears if the law is changed the bureau of corporations will be unable to get information in the future.

Representative Gardner will stand by Representative Stanley on the bill amending the Sherman act by putting the burden on defendants to prove that their combination is "not in unreasonable restraint" of trade.

The republicans will not recommend the dissolution of the steel trust.
They say that the committee long ago decided that no move was to be made to embarrass the government's suit against the steel corporation, and they will adhere to this decision.

HIBERNIAN LADIES ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

CHICAGO, July 21.—The ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians today elected their officers.

WASHBURN RACING HOME TO DIE UNDER HIS OWN ROOF

MINNEAPOLIS, July 21.—Former United States Senator W. D. Washburn is being brought here on a special train in the hope that his home may be reached before death overtakes him. He was taken ill on his return from Europe.
Mr. Washburn is 82 years old. He served one term in the senate, which expired in 1886.

FULL TICKET TO GO IN FIELD

Michigan Progressive Republicans Leave Grand Old Party.

OSBORN WILL HAVE OPPONENT

Senator Dixon Brings Word from Roosevelt that He Wants Entirely New Party and Ends Opposition.

JACKSON, Mich., July 21.—Michigan progressive republicans divorced themselves from the republican party in their state convention yesterday.

By almost a unanimous vote the delegates went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, both state and national, into the field. A few instructed delegates voted against the move in order to record the sentiment of their home counties, but explained to the convention that personally they were for separation from the old party.

Delegates to the national progressive party convention in Chicago, presidential electors, members of the state central committees and a member of the national committee, were chosen today.

Watkins for Governor.

Members of the state central committee recommended State Senator L. Whitney Watkins of Jackson for governor and Theodore M. Joslyn of Adrian for United States senator.

Friends of Governor Osborn protested vigorously, but futilely, against the endorsement by the convention of a candidate for governor. They insisted the people should not be offered any suggestions regarding candidates. When the convention endorsed Senator Watkins circulation of Osborn petitions was begun immediately.

Nathan P. Hull of Diamonda was recommended by the convention for candidate for congressman-at-large, but he declined to make the race.

The recommendation of the committee does not mean nomination by convention, however. By the provisions of the Michigan primary law any man can file a petition for any nomination on the progressive ticket if he has a sufficient number of names. Only six days remain in which the petitions may be filed with the secretary of state. Many petitions were put in circulation at the close of the day's session of the convention.

The coming of Senator Joseph M.
Dixon probably had as much to do with carrying the "full ticket" plan as anything. The factions for a "stub" ticket, or the nomination of presidential electors only, and the "full ticket" crowd were lined up for a bitter fight, when he arrived. But he told them that Colonel Roosevelt wanted a full state ticket and after that it was all over but the shouting. The shouting, however, required much time, for the convention was as enthusiastic as the 1,600 or more delegates and a brass band could make it.

Frank W. Knox, who had been heading the "stub" ticket faction and favoring an endorsement of Governor Osborn as a republican candidate, was the first man to take the floor of the convention and give up the fight.

Senator Dixon, while addressing the convention, declared:

"It is a better chance now that Roosevelt will be elected than it was last March that he would be nominated."

Henry M. Wallace of Detroit was unanimously elected Michigan national committeeman.

T. R. DENIES DISCORD EXISTS

Roosevelt Makes Only Two Rules to Bind Assistants.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Three possibly "rule" is to be the policy in the formation of the national progressive party. After a long conference with leaders from a number of states Colonel Roosevelt said tonight that each state would work out its own problems.

"Is there any truth in reports of serious discord in several states?" he was asked.

The colonel laughed. He denied that there was any foundation for the reports and referred to the spirit in which the movement was begun and the common purpose of the founders of the party, as shown at its birth in Chicago, as evidence that there was no room for any serious differences.

"Those of you who were present at the convention in Chicago," he said, "know

MEMBER OF OMAHA'S GREAT RE-TAIL FIRM DEAD.

NEBRASKA FARMERS GET RICH

Tom Newell Has Something Better Than a Gold Mine.

MAKES MONEY FIRST SEASON

This Is Only One Instance of Many that Told About in Loup and Wood River
Districts.

"The Nebraska farmers are the boys who are making money," said P. G. Lawrence of Clair, who was in the city over Sunday at the Paxton. "On particular instance that I have in mind is that of T. C. Newell, a farmer living northeast of town, in Loup county township, Howard county. This county lies directly north of Hall and while it is mighty good, it is no better than fifty others in the state."

"Tom Newell came to Howard county five years ago and bought land of the Union Pacific, paying about $15 per acre for 100 acres. It was about the time the company was closing out the last of its Nebraska land and this tract was not considered choice. However, there was about 120 acres of level land, and the balance was creek bottom and hilly.

"Newell did not have much money after making his payment, building a shack and buying a team, but he had plenty of energy. He ran in debt for a few cows and the first year his butter and milk, and eggs from 100 hens, kept the family and enabled him to lay aside a little cash. That year he broke out 100 acres. Next season he cropped this and from the returns made enough to pay off all his debts and build an addition to his home.

Makes a Big Killing.

"This year, Newell is making his big killing. Last fall he put in 100 acres of winter wheat and his net returns from the crop is going to be not far from $2,500. Every year since Newell has had the land, it has made him a living and enabled him to lay by something.

"Newell has finished cutting his wheat and has threshed some. The samples indicate an average yield of 40 bushels per acre, which in the aggregate would mean $4,000 and if sold at 90 cents per bushel, a fair price out at Cairo would mean $3,600 gross for the crop. To plant, mature and gather the crop has cost not to exceed $1,200, which leaves a net return of $2,400 from 100 acres, which is not so bad.

"Now this looks big, but it is nothing more than dozens of other farmers up and down the Loup and Wood rivers have done this season."

Red Cloud Woman Hurt in Runaway

RED CLOUD, Neb., July 21.—(Special.)— While Mrs. Ruth Pegg was driving through town Saturday, her horse became frightened at something and ran away.
On Webster street the horse collided with a telephone pole, upset the buggy and threw Mrs. Pegg violently to the ground, breaking her leg and bruising her severely. She will recover.

WILL PARADE LABOR DAY

Committees Are Appointed to Arrange for the Celebration.

SUBURBS WILL JOIN LOCALS

Meeting to Be Held Next Sunday to Arrange for Grounds for a Picnic and Other Incidents.

The Labor day committee of the Central Labor union together with representatives from the different unions of the city took the first step towards planning the annual Labor day exercises at a meeting held at the Labor temple, 1310 Douglas street, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.
Committees were appointed and permanent officers to have charge of the celebration elected.

Labor day comes on September 3 this year and as usual a parade will be held in the morning, followed by a picnic and program of speaking and sport features at one of the nearby parks in the afternoon. Definite arrangements for the parade and afternoon program will be made at a meeting of the committees in charge next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.
Labor organizations of South Omaha, Council Bluffs, Florence, and Benson will be invited to attend and take part in the local exercises.

Officers in charge of the exercises will be as follows: J. J. Kerrigan, president; W. E. Bryans, secretary; Bjork Swan, vice president; and W. J. Marks, treasurer.

Committee chairman elected yesterday were:
Grounds and concessions, J. W. Light.
Laws and orders, Frank McNulty.
Speakers, Henry F. Sarman.
Printing, John Pollan.
Sports, W. L. Turner.

Women's Clubs Beat Clergymen at Polls

DULUTH, Minn., July 21.—The proposition to make the public school buildings in Duluth social centers and to allow dancing in them was carried at a hotly contested election here today. The women's clubs of the city were arrayed in favor of the proposition, against the combined efforts of the clergymen, the women winning out by a large majority.
The campaign waged by the women was so vigorous that the leaders were warned on the day before the election that they were violating the provisions of the corrupt practices law, passed at the recent special session of the Minnesota legislature.

Gresham Has Plans for Its Anniversary

GRESHAM, Neb., July 21.—(Special.)— At a special meeting of the Commercial club last evening it was decided to hold a celebration on Wednesday, August 28, in honor of the Twenty-fifth anniversary of this town.

It is planned to have a free ball game in the forenoon and a State league game in the afternoon, at least two prominent speakers and short talks by members of the Old Guard, who helped to organize the town, free vaudeville, a good band and singers, races and contests and a balloon ascension. Herman Diers is in charge of arrangements.

BRIDE SERIOUSLY BURNED BY EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE

SIoux FALLS, S. D., July 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. Charles Drew, a bride of only a few weeks, while attempting to kindle a fire with kerosene at her home in Howard was seriously burned. There were dead coals in the range and the flames ran up into the can of kerosene, which exploded with a noise heard all over town. With her clothing ablaze Mrs. Drew ran into the street. Oe Hoel chanced to be near at hand and after strenuous efforts of himself and others who had rushed to the assistance of the woman succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until the unfortunate young woman had been terribly burned on the side and shoulder and both arms and hands. In saving her life, Hoel and others who assisted her also were badly burned.

STANTON, Neb., July 21.—(Special.)— The republican delegate convention of this county met here to day and selected the following as their representative delegates to the state convention at Lan-coln: W. W. Young, Charles McLeod, Louis Smithberger, Ed. Daniel, and Sol D. Denney. All go as safe men.

The following resolutions were adopted with but one dissenting vote in the sixty-nine votes which made up the convention:

"Whereas, plain speaking and common honesty demand that we fairly state our position as Republicans on the questions that are presented to us as members of a great and historic party; and that we give due recognition to the conditions that confront us; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the republicans of Stanton county, in convention duly assembled, express our pride in and approval of the grand and mighty accomplishments achieved in our national life by and through republican men and republican measures. We especially commend the general course of legislation and measures promoted by our party representatives during the administration of McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft.

"In the face of the record of a half century of our party's history, we feel that there can be but one rightful conclusion and that is: that the necessity for a third party does not exist, and that the best interest of our common country demand the perpetuation of the republican party, and that its policies and administrations be sustained.

"Therefore we, of this convention made up of republicans, some of whom at the late presidential primary were followers of William Howard Taft, some of whom there supported Theodore Roosevelt, and some of whom endorsed the favored son of Wisconsin, Robert La Follette, uniting upon common ground for the promotion of what we deem best for the common good, hereby join in the solemn declaration that our country's welfare, demands the acceptance of the results of the national republican convention at Chicago, and the hearty and loyal support of its candidate, William Howard Taft; and be it further

"Resolved, That good faith and public honesty demand, that the custom established by more than eighty years of our political history be observed and adhered to; that we hereby express as the moral conviction of this convention our solemn belief and conclusion, that no presidential elector heretofore nominated as a republican, or whose name may hereafter appear on the ticket as such, can in any manner be justified in casting his vote as such elector for any candidate other than William Howard Taft, who we recognize as the regular nominee of the loyal called national republican convention.

"And we further expressly instruct the delegates chosen at this convention to attend the state platform convention to be as far as possible carry out and promote the sentiments expressed in these resolutions."

VALENTINE, Neb., July 21.—(Special.)

—The republican county convention yesterday afternoon elected delegates to the state convention and instructed them to support the present administration. W.
S. Barker was elected chairman and Woodruff Ball, secretary. The "bull moosers" were in evidence at the convention, but there were very much in the minority. A motion was made by them that the delegates be instructed three and a half for Taft and three and a half instructed. This motion, however, did not get very far.

Resolutions were carried which endorsed President Taft and also endorsed all candidates on the republican ticket who are in sympathy with and who support the national republican ticket and platform. The following delegates were
