

THE OUTLOOK

In the President's Case, Though Not Bright, is Not Disparaging.

His Condition Saturday, However, Conceded to be Very Alarming.

The Expectoration From the Troubled Lungs Continues to be Purulent.

Notwithstanding which the Physicians Say the Lungs are Better.

His Mind is Clear and No Hallucinations Have Recently Been Observed.

A Recurrence of the Saturday Chills Last Evening Again Deepened Anxiety.

Dr. Boynton Censured for Saying there was Abscess on the Lungs.

Below the telegraph gives a full account of the president's case Saturday, Sunday and last night, which, as will be seen, was a period of not even ordinary fluctuation of pulse, temperature and respiration.

2 A. M. BULLETIN—UNOFFICIAL.

Condition unchanged at this hour, and the president is quietly resting.

9 A. M. BULLETIN—OFFICIAL.

ELBERON, Sept. 18.—At the examination of the president at noon today the temperature was 102, pulse 120, and respiration 24.

SIX P. M. BULLETIN—OFFICIAL.

ELBERON, Sept. 18.—The president, though quite weak, has passed a very quiet day.

THE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

This morning is one which warrants a renewal of hope. The surgeons say it indicates, on the whole a less critical state of the case and shows that the president has done little more than merely hold his own.

STRENGTH OF CONSTITUTION

and maintained that the bulletin was the best in ninety-six hours.

MIND IS PERFECTLY CLEAR

and during the night it showed not a glimmer of delirium.

"The president had an approach to chill before the febrile rise last evening. His extremities were cool but not so much so to attract his attention.

MIDNIGHT BULLETIN—UNOFFICIAL.

Hope and despondency have vied with each other for the past twenty-four hours.

2 A. M. BULLETIN—UNOFFICIAL.

Condition unchanged at this hour, and the president is quietly resting.

9 A. M. BULLETIN—OFFICIAL.

ELBERON, Sept. 18.—At the examination of the president this morning, the temperature was 98, pulse 102, and respiration 18.

SIX P. M. BULLETIN—OFFICIAL.

ELBERON, Sept. 18.—The president, though quite weak, has passed a very quiet day.

THE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION

This morning is one which warrants a renewal of hope. The surgeons say it indicates, on the whole a less critical state of the case and shows that the president has done little more than merely hold his own.

STRENGTH OF CONSTITUTION

and maintained that the bulletin was the best in ninety-six hours.

MIND IS PERFECTLY CLEAR

and during the night it showed not a glimmer of delirium.

discharge from it has a more healthy appearance."

GENERAL GRANT.

At 12:15 o'clock, walked over from his place to Franklyn Cottage, saying he desired to receive some personal assurances as to the actual condition of the president.

THE SURGEONS

say the febrile rise was unusually high. The temperature did not go beyond 100 and the pulse did not go higher than 120—figures much below the average of most of these fevers.

THE CHILL

was not at all pronounced and was hardly noticeable. Its approach was so void of violent symptoms that its real nature could hardly be ascertained before the chill had gone.

HAS TAKEN A TURN.

There is good authority for the statement that Dr. Agnew to-day assured Dr. Panoast, of Philadelphia, that he thought the last night crisis in the president's case was turning, and that the president had found it far better this morning.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—1 p. m.—For the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys: Fair weather, north winds in latter and shifting to north in former.

CONY ISLAND RACES.

CONY ISLAND, Sept. 17.—First race, even selling race for one mile, won by Ada; Spark second, Rehorte third; time, 1:43.

AT THE BARRACKS.

Mason, of Guiteau Notoriety, Submits Manfully to His Incarceration.

He Devotes Most of His Time to Deliberation Upon the Shooting.

And Has Just Completed an Address to All Good People who Hate Assassins.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Sergeant Mason is still confined in a cell at the Barracks here and bears imprisonment well.

GIVER OF ALL GOOD

all the prayers that men and old women could invent, and I hope they have done some good for the president and people who believe in prayers.

DEATH TO ALL ASSASSINS.

I would not care if they shot me on the spot for what I did. I would do it again, and all that haunts me is that I did not hit the wretch I hate.

NOT ASHAMED OF IT

so far. Let others say what they may, but if the United States army of 20,000 men was at that jail, 20,000 would kill Guiteau and the other 5,000 would desert it before they would have anything to do with him.

GUILTEAU IS SLEEPING

the sleep of a good man. What a shame that poor soldier must do what they do not like to do and something they ought not to do.

TURFIDOM.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Twenty thousand people attended the races at the Chicago fair to-day.

ONE A. M. BULLETIN.

Secretaries Hunt, Windom and Kirkwood were summoned to Elberon by Attorney General MacVeagh, to confer over the wording of the bulletin to Minister Lowell.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—1 p. m.—For the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys: Fair weather, north winds in latter and shifting to north in former.

CONY ISLAND RACES.

CONY ISLAND, Sept. 17.—First race, even selling race for one mile, won by Ada; Spark second, Rehorte third; time, 1:43.

AT THE BARRACKS.

Mason, of Guiteau Notoriety, Submits Manfully to His Incarceration.

He Devotes Most of His Time to Deliberation Upon the Shooting.

And Has Just Completed an Address to All Good People who Hate Assassins.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Sergeant Mason is still confined in a cell at the Barracks here and bears imprisonment well.

GIVER OF ALL GOOD

all the prayers that men and old women could invent, and I hope they have done some good for the president and people who believe in prayers.

DEATH TO ALL ASSASSINS.

I would not care if they shot me on the spot for what I did. I would do it again, and all that haunts me is that I did not hit the wretch I hate.

NOT ASHAMED OF IT

so far. Let others say what they may, but if the United States army of 20,000 men was at that jail, 20,000 would kill Guiteau and the other 5,000 would desert it before they would have anything to do with him.

GUILTEAU IS SLEEPING

the sleep of a good man. What a shame that poor soldier must do what they do not like to do and something they ought not to do.

TURFIDOM.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Twenty thousand people attended the races at the Chicago fair to-day.

ONE A. M. BULLETIN.

Secretaries Hunt, Windom and Kirkwood were summoned to Elberon by Attorney General MacVeagh, to confer over the wording of the bulletin to Minister Lowell.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—1 p. m.—For the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys: Fair weather, north winds in latter and shifting to north in former.

CONY ISLAND RACES.

CONY ISLAND, Sept. 17.—First race, even selling race for one mile, won by Ada; Spark second, Rehorte third; time, 1:43.

AT THE BARRACKS.

Mason, of Guiteau Notoriety, Submits Manfully to His Incarceration.

He Devotes Most of His Time to Deliberation Upon the Shooting.

And Has Just Completed an Address to All Good People who Hate Assassins.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 17.—Sergeant Mason is still confined in a cell at the Barracks here and bears imprisonment well.

GIVER OF ALL GOOD

all the prayers that men and old women could invent, and I hope they have done some good for the president and people who believe in prayers.

DEATH TO ALL ASSASSINS.

I would not care if they shot me on the spot for what I did. I would do it again, and all that haunts me is that I did not hit the wretch I hate.

NOT ASHAMED OF IT

so far. Let others say what they may, but if the United States army of 20,000 men was at that jail, 20,000 would kill Guiteau and the other 5,000 would desert it before they would have anything to do with him.

GUILTEAU IS SLEEPING

the sleep of a good man. What a shame that poor soldier must do what they do not like to do and something they ought not to do.

TURFIDOM.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Twenty thousand people attended the races at the Chicago fair to-day.

ONE A. M. BULLETIN.

Secretaries Hunt, Windom and Kirkwood were summoned to Elberon by Attorney General MacVeagh, to confer over the wording of the bulletin to Minister Lowell.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18.—1 p. m.—For the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys: Fair weather, north winds in latter and shifting to north in former.

CONY ISLAND RACES.

CONY ISLAND, Sept. 17.—First race, even selling race for one mile, won by Ada; Spark second, Rehorte third; time, 1:43.

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

Henry Bowman, of Lincoln, Neb., Arrested Under the Charge of Robbery.

Two Children at Dyke Mills, Ala., Brained by their Inhuman Mother.

Guiteau and His New Quarters—The Villain Seems Better Satisfied.

A Mysterious and Startling Case of Wife-Murder in Chicago.

Destitute of Money—By Reason of which H. E. Livingstone, of Albany, N. Y., Suicides.

Arrested on Suspicion.

LINCOLN, Sept. 18.—Henry Bowman, formerly clerk for J. C. McBrider, of The Nebraska Farmer, later clerk in the county clerk's office and in the employ of B. T. Cobb, esq., of this city, was arrested last evening about 9 o'clock, under suspicion of robbing Mr. Cobb's safe of $265.

Guiteau's New Quarters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Guiteau is now confined in the cell made expressly for him in the new corridor, near the rotunda of the jail, which cannot be seen from the outside.

POVERTY IN THE CITY.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Henry E. Livingstone, about 60, supposed to be from Brooklyn, suicided this morning in his room at Stanwicham. He took laudanum. He left a letter addressed to friends in Brooklyn indicating that pecuniary difficulties were the cause.

FOREIGN.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

VIENNA, Sept. 18.—The cholera is raging to a fearful extent in a Russian town near the frontier.

REDUCING HIS ARMY.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A dispatch from Athens says that the Greek government has resolved to reduce its army to 30,000 men.

REINFORCEMENTS.

A Tunis dispatch says reinforcements continue to arrive and the French are making strong efforts for an attack.

A HEAVY STORM.

NAPLES, Sept. 18.—The severest storm ever known passed over here to-day. The villages at the foot of Mt. Vesuvius are completely swamped and several persons drowned.

MARINE ITEMS.

NEW YORK, September 18.—Arrived: Utopia, from London. Arrived: Adnanic and Scitica, from New York.

UNIVERSAL APPROBATION.

By the community at large has been given to HUDOCK BLOOD BROTHERS. No instance is known where dissatisfaction has been manifested by their use, or where aught but benefit followed their administration.

TEAS.

at 25c a pound and upwards at W. R. BENNETT & Co.'s.