In Which You Will Be More or Less Interested.
News for This Department Must Be Received by Wednesday Night.

Mrs. Martha T. Smith returned last Thursday, September 23, from an extended eastern trip, on which she visited Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Buffalo, N. Y. Her longest stay was in Buffalo, where she was the honor guest at several very pleasant social events. She was much interested in visiting the Phyllis Wheatley home in Cleveland and the Old Folks' Home in Chicago.

The Rev. W. A. Talbot of Lincoln, Neb., will preach at Grove M. E. church both morning and evening, Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Lewis of North Twenty-fourth street, left Saturday morning for Topeka, Kas., where she will make her home with her daughter. En route to Topeka she spent a week visiting friends in Atchison, Kas.

An item of news that will be of interest to Omaha readers is the announcement by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Slaughter, now of Chicago, but formerly of this city, of the marriage on Wednesday, September 22, of their youngest daughter, Josephine, to Dr. Fred D. Clark, of Indianapolis, Ind. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate family only by the Rev. D. H. Harris. The bride and groom will be at home to their many friends the week of October 1, 1915, at 509 East Thirty-fourth place, Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Volney Carter of 2819 Miami street left Saturday night for Oakland, Cal., to spend the winter.

John A. Singleton, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Singleton of 1428 North Twenty-second street, left Saturday night for Washington, D. C., where he will enter Howard university for a course in dentistry. The best wishes of many friends go with him.

From the Carthage (Mo.) Democrat we learn that a parent-teachers' association has been formed in connection with Lincoln school, the object of which is to bring teachers and parents together in sympathetic co-operation. Omahans will be interested to know that Miss Freeda Robbins who is teacher of domestic science in the school, is secretary of the organization. Principal H. V. Wallace is president. It is an excellent idea and will be productive of much good.

Dependable dress making. Prices reasonable. Miss Gladys Counsellor, 2428 Lake street. Webster 604.

Mrs. August Kellar, who has been the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. B. Hill, Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets, left for her home at Little Rock, Ark., Saturday morning, delighted with Omaha.

Mr. Clyde Brannon, formerly of Fremont, Neb., but for the past two years a resident of Omaha and a member of the First Regimental band, left Thursday for Ames, Ia., for a brief visit prior to going to Washington, D. C., where he enters Howard university, to take a course in civil engineering. John A. Singleton joined him at Ames and the two young men were traveling companions to Washington.

The Rev. J. N. C. Coggins, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., delivered an interesting lecture at Grove M. E. church Wednesday night.

The First Regimental band, Dan Desdunes, director, has been engaged for the Ak-Sar-Ben parades.

Mr. William Goodlow of Red Oak, Ia., arrived in the city Monday for a brief visit with his daughter, Mrs. Dorris Thornton, of 2818 Miami street. He left for home Wednesday night.

By almost unanimous vote, the Methodist conference, in its closing session here this week, decided to favor a change in the constitution of the church, permitting the election of bishops for races and tongues. That means that the Nebraska state conference favors appointment of Negro, Chinese, Indian and other bishops to head the church among the colored people, Chinese and in India respectively.

For sale—2 acres and new 6-room house. Aristocratic suburb. Easy payments. Will Johnson, attorney, Fourteenth and Douglas.

The Elite Whist club was entertained by Mrs. Henry W. Black, 2923 North Twenty-fifth street, Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock, after which progressive whist was played. Two hand-painted plates were given, one to Mrs. Williamson, as having the highest score, the other to the hostess, as a mark of appreciation.

The Misses Blanche and Grace Lawson of 2102 North Twenty-ninth street, entertained at a dancing party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Julia Jones of Hampton, Va. Sixty guests were present. Assisting the Misses Lawson were Mesdames Chas. Harris, Will Jones and John Smallwood.

Miss Cage and Mr. William Johnson of South Omaha were married September 18th.

Price Terrell is now sole proprietor of the drug store formerly operating under the firm name of Williamson & Terrell on North Twenty-fourth street. Mr. Terrell has bought out Mr. Williamson's interests. This is a well-equipped drug store in a populous section of our city and should receive liberal support by our people in that section.

Mrs. H. K. Hillon has been on the sick list for a few days.

Frank Walker was buried from Obee's undertaking chapel, 2518 Lake street, last Friday afternoon.

There was a mock wedding Thursday night, September 23rd, at Zion Baptist church under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. circle. Edward Miller and Aline Bentley represented the contracting parties. Le Roy Kelly acted the part of the minister. Others taking part in this performance were the Misses Beulah Butler, Beulah Britton, Lillian Matterson, Matilda Taylor and Mr. Thomas Roulette.

Mr. John Grant Pegg gave a surprise card party Wednesday night in honor of his wife's birthday.

Mrs. Ida Walker, who is a juvenile court officer at St. Joseph, Mo., came to Omaha Wednesday morning with a young girl for the Home of the Good Shepherd. Mrs. Walker remained in Omaha until Thursday afternoon as the guest of Mrs. H. K. Hillon, Twenty-fifth and Maple streets.

Dependable dress making. Prices reasonable. Miss Gladys Counsellor, 2428 Lake street. Webster 604.

Mrs. Lulu Thornton of 629 North Twenty-fourth street, South Side, who underwent an operation a few weeks ago, is recovering.

A birthday party was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Scruggs, South Side, in honor of Master Leroy Broomfield.

Mr. D. Lewis has removed his undertaking parlor to 1809 North Twenty-fourth street, where he will faithfully and efficiently serve those in need of his services. Licensed embalmer. Open day and night. Webster 2069.—Advertisement.

Lola, daughter of Mrs. Mamie Farmer, of North Twenty-sixth street, South Side, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Cage of 2621 Z street, South Side, entertained at dinner on Tuesday in honor of Mr. Smith of St. Louis and Miss Slater of the South Side.

Mrs. Isaac Bailey of 2816 Pratt street gave a card party last Friday afternoon in honor of Mesdames W. H. Lacey and Belle Butler, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Miss Mattie Banks of Nashville, Tenn. The first prize was won by Mrs. J. B. Hill, the second by Miss Algernon Pryor.

It pays to advertise in The Monitor.
