Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swobe, evening bridge for Mrs. Pryor Markel of Kansas City; Mrs. Samuel Burns, hostess of the Monday Evening club; opening of the Automobile show; Mrs. William Nesbitt, hostess of the Port Crook Reading club; Mrs. F. G. Stritzinger, hostess of the Army Bridge club; Miss Malvina Newman, O. C. B. W. club.

TUESDAY—Mrs. Robert Blaine, at home at Port Omaha; Omaha Symphony orchestra concert at Brandeis; Wednesday—Society night at Automobile show; Ak-Bar-Ben opera at the Brandeis; Mrs. L. L. Woodford, hostess of the Eureka Whist club; Mrs. Max Smith, hostess of the E. O. T. club.

THURSDAY—Mrs. Elmer Meredith, hostess of the Twentieth Century Reading club; Mrs. Blanche Whitlock, hostess of the Informal Bridge club; meeting of the junior branch of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts; Mrs. L. Norman, hostess of the Golden Glow club; Robert Emmet celebration and banquet at Henshaw hotel.

FRIDAY—Mrs. Curtis Cook, hostess of the Unanimous club. The Automobile show at the Auditorium which opens tomorrow is going to be a popular rendezvous for society during the whole week of its run.

Another car that held the attention of women at the Chicago exhibit was painted "Nell pink," and this car will be on exhibition at the show. Omaha women who attended the Auto show in Chicago were quite lost in admiration over one of the hostesses displayed there.

Both of these cars were built for the eye and orders for them, of course, were few and far between. Potted plants are to adorn the Auditorium and during the principal hours of attendance an orchestra will send out enchanting melodies.

Attractive Visitors. There are many attractive guests in Omaha, and in their honor numerous informal social affairs are being given.

Miss Helen Brown of Seattle, Wash., arrived Saturday to visit Miss Dorothy Hall. Miss Brown was a classmate of Miss Hall at Ingleside at New Milford, Conn., and is returning from an eastern trip. Miss Katherine Pond of Minneapolis was the guest last week of Miss Myra Breckenridge for a day or two.

Miss Florence Updike, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Updike for ten days, returns shortly to Chicago. Mrs. Howard Baldrige entertained at luncheon and bridge Tuesday to meet Miss Baldrige of Hollidaysburg, and Friday Mrs. Baldrige again invited eight of her friends to meet Miss Baldrige at luncheon, followed by bridge.

Mrs. Edwin Morrison of Kansas City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Trukey, until March 1. Complimentary to Mrs. C. W. Nunn of Joplin, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. C. B. Whitney, numerous luncheons and theater parties are being given.

Senator and Mrs. Hitchcock arrived from Washington Friday of last week and were with Mr. and Mrs. Doory until Friday, when they returned to the capital. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moonlight Murphy of Kansas City, who have been the guests of Mrs. Murphy's mother, Mrs. G. C. Thompson, left for their home Friday evening. They will leave for New York March 5, where they will sail for Buenos Ayres, Argentine, to make their future home.

Child Saving Institute Benefit. A large benefit bridge party will be given March 19 at the Prairie Park club house for the Child Saving Institute. A number of women interested in the institute will have charge of the affair and a small admission fee will be charged.

Numerous attractive prizes will be awarded and a large attendance is expected. The rooms of the club house have been donated for that afternoon and the affair is in charge of Mesdames C. B. Helmer, Guy Baker, E. R. Wilson, M. N. Loomis, A. R. Hobart, E. A. French, R. M. Harris, G. L. Bidman and E. H. Ward.

Spring Corset Fashion Is Set by Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets. You Need Wait No Longer.

Accurately designed to set off the Spring Fashions in Dress, the new Warner corset styles will be in all the shops tomorrow. You can buy the corset over which to fit your Spring and Summer gowns.

Long skirts are still in vogue, closely encasing the hips, with full waist and medium bust, to give the straight lines which will be seen again this Spring.

Whether for the long clinging skirt, the fanciful drape, or for the trim fitting tailored gown—the Warner styles will give the proper lines.

They Are Authoritative. We study the dress tendencies in advance and every Warner's Corset is actually adapted to the Season's Fashion in Dress. You can plan your spring wardrobe at once. Have it fitted over a Warner's and every detail will be as it should.

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets are Fashion's Standard, but that is not all. They have become the world's leading corset, thanks to their comfort and easy flexibility, and because every pair is guaranteed Not to Rust, Break or Tear.

Have you seen the Warner Brassieres? They fit. When worn with Warner's Corsets they envelop the figure with smooth, unbroken line from hip to shoulder.

Buy Your Warner's Tomorrow at all the Stores Sold Everywhere $1.00 to $8.00 EVERY PAIR GUARANTEED
