

SOLDIERS TAKE CHARGE AT EL PASO

General Pershing Furnishes Guards to Help Police Suppress Anti-Mexican Demonstrations.

FEW PERSONS SLIGHTLY HURT

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 14.—El Paso was quiet early today following riotous scenes last night when American citizens, among whom were many soldiers, engaged in numerous general fights with Mexicans.

The action by the federal authorities was taken to relieve a situation which, it was feared, would result in reprisals on Mexicans. Despite efforts of the municipal authorities to control the demonstration against Mexicans, apprehension was felt for their safety.

A secret meeting of mining and settlement was held, it was said, to organize an expedition to cross into Mexico and hunt down the slayers of their former friends and companions.

General Pershing was informed of the situation and immediately intervened to restore order.

One hundred and fifty arrests were made during the night. Beyond a few broken heads, it was found none of the Mexicans had sustained serious injuries.

The disorder started early in the evening, when a squad of soldiers swung shoulder to shoulder in double column down El Paso street and declared they were going to "clean the street" of Mexicans.

General Pershing ordered four companies of the Sixteenth infantry to take charge, after it was found that the police were unable to cope with the situation.

Orders were issued that no one would be allowed on the streets without a permit signed by the provost marshal.

No word had been received here early today concerning the fate of Snell and Woods, cattlemen last seen going in the direction of the massacre, in western Chihuahua, at noon Monday.

Hundreds Attend Funerals. Hundreds of mining men from all parts of the southwest and the mining camps of Mexico attended the double funeral of Maurice Anderson and E. L. Robinson, victims of the Santa Ysabel massacre, held late yesterday.

Funeral services for George W. Newman were held in the morning. The remains were shipped to Keene, N. H., former home of Mr. Newman. The body of Charles Wadleigh was shipped during the day to Buffalo, N. Y.

Several Bodies Shipped Away. Funeral arrangements for other victims of the massacre, either to be held in El Paso today or the bodies to be shipped to their homes, included Alexander Hall, Francisco A. H. Couch, Barnhart, Tex.; W. D. Pearce, to Los Angeles, and H. C. Hesse, to Kansas City.

Another Thaw Case

WILSON WON'T SEND AN ARMY ACROSS BORDER

By with other nations or to impose it upon the president. I ask that the resolution be referred to the foreign relations committee, with the hope that it will take prompt action.

The resolution was so referred. Lodge Submits Former Resolution. Senator Lodge submitted the same resolution he offered April 21, 1914, as a substitute for the resolution the senate then adopted, authorizing the president to use armed forces in Mexico to force its demands upon General Huerta and asked that it be reprinted in the record.

That resolution," said Senator Lodge, "expressed the republican attitude regarding the war against Huerta. That war has reached a successful termination, inasmuch as Huerta has just died in jail."

Stone Consults Wilson. Chairman Stone of the senate foreign relations committee conferred on the Mexican situation early today with President Wilson. He said he was gathering information of the administration's attitude with which to meet attacks in the senate.

Senator Stone said after his conference that he did not expect American troops would be sent into Mexico unless there were further developments to force it. He considered that the Villa element, enraged by the recognition of Carranza, were determined to attack Americans to force intervention. He plainly indicated that the administration will look to Carranza to control the situation and punish bandits.

Senator Stone said there was no present intention of calling a meeting of the foreign relations committee to consider the pending resolutions proposing interference in Mexico. White House officials indicated that the resolution of Senator Lewis of Illinois, the democratic whip, authorizing the president to use the armed forces was introduced without their knowledge.

Carranza Should Have Chance. "It would be monstrous for the United States to go to war in Mexico at such a time as this," declared Senator Stone, after his return to the capitol. "I was the original war man in the senate when there was no organized government recognized by this country. But now we have recognized a government and it would be absurd to rush in without giving that government a chance to suppress and punish the bandit bands that have murdered American citizens."

"We know these bandits are seeking blood of Americans for revenge. I think that Americans who venture into such places and Americans who venture forth on bellicose ships into war zones are committing a crime against the government whose protection they seek. Of course, we must try to protect them. We have a technical legal right to go into such dangerous places, but they should not do it, if possible to avoid it, and thus embarrass the United States."

Talk of War Absurd. "I am not convinced that it will not be necessary to go into Mexico, but this is an absurd time to talk of war."

General Carranza's ambassador here today suggested to his government that all Americans in dangerous districts be compelled to come into garrisoned places.

BRITONS TAKE U. S. SOLDIER OFF SHIP

American Private in Full Uniform Temporarily Detained by Neutrality Officer at Jamaica.

FIRST INCIDENT IN CENTURY

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Albert Clark, a private in the Fifth United States infantry, was removed from the steamship Santa Marta at Jamaica by a British neutrality officer, according to passengers who arrived here on the Santa Marta today. After being detained ashore several hours Clark was allowed to return to the ship and proceed here.

Clark, who has served nineteen months in the canal zone, was proceeding to Washington under orders to report to the adjutant general and was in full uniform when he was temporarily removed from the Santa Marta, which flies the American flag. This is said to be the first time a United States soldier has been removed under similar conditions from an American vessel since the war of 1812.

When the Santa Marta stopped at Jamaica, en route from Colon to New York, a British neutrality officer boarded the vessel and closely questioned all passengers as to their nationality. Clark said he was born near Vienna, but had taken out his first American citizenship papers some time ago.

The neutrality officer left the ship without comment on Clark's case, but shortly afterwards, passengers said, three negro soldiers in uniform boarded the Santa Marta and told Clark to accompany them ashore. Subsequently, Clark said, he was taken to what is known as the lower concentration camp on the outskirts of Jamaica and there closely questioned by the commanding officer.

While he was absent American passengers on the Santa Marta decided to appeal to the American consul, but before this could be done Clark returned. Clark said that he would make a full report of the incident to the War department.
