MAYOR ACTS ROLE OF PEACEMAKER

Dahlman Gives Insurgent Faction Control of Property of Home for Aged Colored People.

TAKES STAR FROM "SPECIAL"

Difference of opinion over the expenditure of money in the sinking fund threatens the solidarity of the Negro Woman's Christian association, which opened a home for aged colored people at 3023 Pinkney street last September.

A delegation of fourteen colored women, headed by Mrs. J. H. Smith, called on Mayor J. G. Dahlman and complained against the faction headed by John Grant Pegg, who holds an appointive city position under the mayor.

Decision according to law. Mayor Dahlman decided that the insurgent faction should have control of the property and that the Pegg faction should go into court if they claimed any rights.

The mayor said he gave this decision under the law which makes him "chief executive and conservator of the peace," a function of his office which he seldom exercises, he said.

With Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Alfonso Wilson, chairman of the executive committee; Mrs. Florence Riggs, secretary of the association; and Mrs. Eva Walker, treasurer, all of whom have affiliated with the faction opposing the old regime.

John Grant Pegg is a member of the advisory board of eleven members, three of whom have resigned. He is also chairman of the house committee appointed by the advisory board and given power to look after the property. When this disruption became acute Mr. Pegg on Tuesday called on Acting Mayor Dan Butler and prevailed upon the official to swear John Hurman in as a special officer to care for the home.

When Officer Hurman started his duties members of the insurgent faction telephoned the police station and complained against the presence of this officer at the home, adding that they feared the inmates.

Chairman Pegg alleges the inmates consist of one man and one elderly woman. The mayor ordered Hurman's star taken from him.

William N. Johnson and Mrs. Dr. Goden are the other members of the house committee who are standing by Mr. Pegg. Both factions claim possession of the property.

Disagreement starts trouble. The trouble started over a disagreement as to whether certain money should be taken out of the sinking fund to pay current expenses. The sinking fund amounts to $112. The home was bought for $1400 on payments.

Having the president, secretary, treasurer and chairman of the executive committee of the association on their side, the insurgents expect to reorganize and carry on the work of the home, which they believe will be successful institution in the course of time.

Head Off This Graft

The lawmakers at Lincoln should be made to understand that there is no excuse for reviving the jail feeding graft by the proposed bill giving the sheriff 40 cents a day for feeding each prisoner in his custody.

For five years after the furnishing of food to the prisoners was let by contract at a cost to the taxpayers of 19 cents a day on a two-meal basis, equivalent to not to exceed 27 cents a day on a three-meal basis.

The present sheriff himself put in a bid, in the name of a sister-in-law to feed the prisoners for 19 cents a day, on which he had figured himself a profit, yet now wants to run the cost up on the taxpayers to 40 cents a day.

The Bee invites the other Omaha newspapers to join in heading off this graft.

Kansas Man Claims Estate as Husband of Omaha Woman

Peter O. Peterson of Westmoreland, Kan., 32 years old, formerly a tailor, in an affidavit filed in county court, alleges that he, instead of Robert H. Anderson of Omaha, who has claimed one-half the estate, is the surviving husband of the late Laura Montgomery, owner of a building at 1218 Capitol avenue.

"Mother Montgomery," as she was formerly known, died in January, 1914, leaving in addition to the real estate $638 of personal property and $500 cash found on her person. She was 56 years old.

Anderson, who is now conducting a rooming house at 1218 Capitol avenue, claimed one-half the estate as a surviving husband, being represented by Attorney Joseph Rapp, Jr., according to the records of the county court. Other heirs were a sister of the dead woman, May Lewis of Shreveport, La., and a niece, Mrs. Emma Gunter of Westmoreland, Kan.

Personal property already has been distributed, but the real estate has not been sold.

The woman was buried here August 12, 1911, under the name of Laura M. Peterson.

Italian Suffers Cut Throat in Row With an Associate

Frank Dogoto, track laborer at Papillion, was badly cut about the neck and face, presumably by his companion, Santiago Billegas, another track laborer at Papillion, in a fracas which occurred Tuesday night when the two were returning to Papillion from Omaha, Do- goto is in the hands of Dr. Armstrong of Papillion and is expected to die.

Deputy Sheriff Bert Hamilton of Papillion happened along at the time, but Billegas made his escape toward Chicago. An alarm was sent there and Sheriff C. Hutter had a posse out looking for the Italian. The search was fruitless, however, until 5:30 this morning, when Officer Bert Hyatt of the South Omaha department, walking his beat on L street, saw Billegas strolling down the road from Papillion. He promptly made the arrest, and the Italian is being held at South Omaha.

The men were evidently in the midst of a quarrel when the cutting occurred. Dogoto had $30 on his person when found, while Billegas had $55 when arrested.

Police are scouring the neighborhood of Eighth and Pacific streets in an effort to apprehend a negro who forced his way into the home of Mrs. A. E. Beck and forced her, at the point of a revolver to give up her money which consisted of $136. Not satisfied with this the negro choked the woman and forced her into the cellar where he locked her up while he tried to ransack the house. Mrs. Beck was unable to get out of the cellar by a window to call the police, but the intruder saw her in time to make his escape.

C. F. Harrison of the committee adopted at a recent meeting to determine what policy the league should maintain during the coming election reported and the following principles to strive for were adopted by the body:

The establishment of a new charter. Strict enforcement of all laws.

The establishment of a home where city prisoners may work for the mutual benefit of themselves and the community.

A rigid policy of no interference by the commission as a body with the individual activities of any memner, except as provided for legally.

Anti-nepotism and the cutting off of all dead timber from the city government.

The cutting off of all indirect compensation to the commissioners.

A seventh principle, calling for the agreement on the part of candidates to quit the present city prosecutor and chief detective, was voted down practically unanimously. The league decided not to endorse any set of men.

Finance Writer Says War Ends Next July

LONDON, March 17.—Edgar Crammond, a prominent financial writer, in a paper before the Royal Statistical society yesterday, dealing with the cost of the war, appears to have must end in July through the exhaustion of some of the belligerents.

Mr. Crammond estimates the total cost of the war to the end of July at $2,338,000,000 ($16,900,000,000), and the total economic loss, through damage to property and other direct and indirect losses, at $2,148,000,000 ($16,740,000,000). Billions of Germs

You can fight off 1.4 billions of germs which you swallow. But, how about the uric acid, which your own system creates? Can you conquer that, too? Yes—if your kidneys work right. But if they don't, the backache, dizziness, or discolored urine will soon warn you of uric acid. Kidney weakness leads to dropsy, gravel, or Bright's disease if neglected. You must live more simply, take care of yourself, and use Doan's Kidney Pills to strengthen your kidneys.

An Omaha Case: A. G. Stephens, barber, 1008 S. Tenth St., Omaha, says: "My back got so lame that I was in misery when I moved. I frequently had headaches and dizzy spells and mornings when I got up, I could hardly drag myself around. In spite of all the medicine I used, I found no relief until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. Then I got at Schaeffer's Drug Store. They soon cured me."

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly. If at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulford coconut oil (which is pure and greenish), it is cheaper and better than soap of anything else you can use.

One of two teaspoons will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly, simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulford coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.
