Mr. John L. Phelps, who lives near Beston in this county, was very fortunate in securing a horse in this city Friday morning which had been stolen from his stables during the night. He did not know his horse had been stolen until he went out to feed his stock this morning. After making a thorough search of his premises he came on to this city, where he found his horse in the yard of a livery stable. It is supposed that the horse was stolen solely for the purpose of a ride to town and was then turned loose at the livery stable.

off some distance and lost sight of his grandparents, who in the meantime missed the boy. A search was begun immediately for the boy. The police were notified and they with several others began looking the streets over. Mr. W. K. Parker had learned of the lost boy and noticing a little fellow crossing Walnut street alone and unconcerned he approached the little fellow and asked him his name. "Emmett," was the prompt reply, and without delay Mr. Parker restored the youngster to his grandmother, who was overjoyed at finding her lost boy.

The brick work of the new city hall has been completed for some days and the contractors are waiting for material to finish the wood work inside and out. In a few weeks the entire building will be ready for occupancy. Yet the old "Great Eastern" stands as a companion for the handsome new building. Is there no power on earth that can have the old, ugly, unsightly, dilapidated structure removed? Have the Board of Aldermen exhausted every means within their reach to compel the removal of the old shack? Why does it still stand when it is no earthly use to any one? It is a menace to surrounding property and why can not the Board of Aldermen pass an ordinance condemning it as a nuisance? There is surely some way to get rid of something that every man, woman and child in Goldshoro is tired of looking at. Public sentiment demands that the old shack must go—and go it must.

OVATION TO AYCOCK

He Was Greeted by a Large Audience in the Messenger Opera House Monday Night.

An audience of 1,000 people heard Governor Chas. B. Aycock make the closing speech of the campaign in the Messenger Opera House Monday night. In the audience were a number of ladies who seemed as much interested and paid as close attention as did the men.

From the moment he appeared upon the stage until the close of his speech every eye in the vast audience was riveted upon him and every ear was strained to catch every syllable that he uttered. He was at home among his own people and it seemed to give him pleasure to thrill their hearts with joy as he delivered his message with burning eloquence. Almost every sentence in his eloquent effort was greeted with vociferous applause.

The Governor was in a happy mood, and as he predicted the success of the Democratic party in the State today in apt and fitting words his audience grew wild with enthusiasm.

Goldshoro people have always heard him gladly and none who could gain admission to the Opera House last night missed the opportunity.

With his new experience as chief executive of the State and opportunities for public speaking he has grown more eloquent, but not more forceful. To say that he is a favorite with his home people would hardly express the esteem in which he is held by every man, woman and child in Goldshoro. They all love him, as was manifested by the many affectionate greetings which he received last night after he had finished his eloquent oration and came down and mingled with the audience.

The Governor was introduced—or presented rather—by Hon. F. A. Daniels, his former law partner, and chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, in language sparkling with gems of delicate appreciation of the man and his life work and couched in choicest words of purest English, such as Mr. Daniels always has at his ready command. And the Governor was equally happy in his acknowledgement and in his expression of his estimate of Mr. Daniels' worth and character, which struck a responsive chord with the great audience, as evidenced by their spontaneous and prolonged applause.

MURDER AT MT. OLIVE.

A YOUNG NEGRO BOY SHOT DOWN IN HIS TRACKS.

Jim Cox Meets Death From Pistol Shot Wounds Which Were Fired By Unknown Parties.

From Friday's Daily Argus.

Superior Court which convenes in this city next Monday will have to pass upon four capital cases, provided the criminal is caught who committed a dastardly murder in Mt. Olive last night about 8 o'clock. At present it is not even known who the party is, but his victim is a young negro boy, Jim Cox, a son of Hardy Cox, who lives on the suburbs of the town.

According to the story told by the unfortunate boy's mother, there was some one passing along the street in a buggy keeping up considerable noise and swearing loud. The boy thought it was a negro whom he knew and he ran out to the road and told the person in the buggy to stop cursing so loud. The moment he said the words the sharp report of a pistol was heard and the boy was heard to squall.

A second and third shot was fired and the party in the buggy drove off down the road toward the woods at a lively gait. When the unfortunate boy's mother reached his side he was dead. One pistol ball had entered the centre of his forehead and had come out on the back of his head and another had entered the skull over his right eye and had also gone through his head.

The shooting took place early in the night and hundreds of people soon flocked to the scene. Sheriff Scott and Coroner Dr. Thos. Hill were notified during the night and left this morning to hold the inquest.

MT. OLIVE HOMICIDE.

Dr. J. W. Kornegay and Ed. Pearsall Released on Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson heard the Mt. Olive murder case on habeas corpus proceedings at chambers in this city Tuesday and released Dr. J. W. Kornegay and the negro Ed. Pearsall, who were in the buggy at the time Jim Cox was shot last Thursday night, and had been arrested on the recommendation of the Coroner's Jury. Judge Robinson heard the evidence of Dr. Kornegay and Ed Pearsall, both of whom testified that George Futrell, who was also in the buggy from which the shots were fired that killed the negro, did the shooting with a pistol, and that he did it before either one of the other two knew that Futrell even had a pistol.

The evidence as sworn to by Dr. Kornegay and Ed Pearsall is to the effect that all three of the men had started possum hunting, and that Futrell was singing loud and hollering. They heard some one say stop that fuss and Futrell wheeled around in the buggy saying: "What have you got to do with it," and uttered an oath, at the same time he fired the pistol.

They did not know that any one was shot and drove on down the road. Dr. Kornegay told Futrell he would have to go back home or stop shooting the pistol and made Futrell unload the pistol and put it back in his pocket. They went on to the home of Mr. Rufus Farmer, where they went possum hunting, and returned home about midnight. They did not know that any one had been killed until the next morning.

Dr. Kornegay and Ed Pearsall were arrested in Mt. Olive Monday and brought to this city that night, where they have been kept under guard until they were released by Judge Robinson after the trial. George Futrell, the man who did the shooting, left Mt. Olive the day after the negro was killed and has not been seen since.

A STRONG, VIGOROUS MAN

Is Liable to Break Down—Pe-ru-na is Sure to Restore.

Hon. Frank Dunn, Alderman Twenty-Fourth District, writes from 232 East Fifty-Eighth Street, New York City: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "There is no remedy for a broken-down system that I know of which will so effectually restore health as Peruna."

"Whenever I am overworked or suffer from the consequences of a cold a few doses of Peruna builds me up again more quickly than anything I ever tried. I find it especially valuable for catarrh. Three bottles cured me three years ago of catarrh of the stomach and I have never had the least symptoms of it since."

Very truly,
FRANK DUNN, Alderman 24th Dist., N. Y. City.

WEDDING BELLS.

A Young Couple Married on a Railway Train.

From Thursday's Daily Argus. The young couple who got married at the State Fair some years ago in Raleigh while standing on a bale of cotton and who were dressed in cotton bagging, were only a little ahead of the coupé from Princeton, in Johnston county, who went to the Fair yesterday and were married on the train while returning home last night.

As soon as the train left Clayton a gentleman dressed in the robes of a clergyman was seen to stand up in the aisle and was soon confronted by Mr. Harry Watson and Miss Rachel Brewer. The coach was crowded with passengers who easily guessed the meaning of the actions of the little party in the aisle and while the ceremony was in progress ladies and gentlemen stood up on the seats in order to get a good view of the happy couple and to witness a marriage on the railroad cars while the train was speeding along at a 40 mile gait.

Two former Goldshoro boys, Messrs. Herbert King and Don. C. Lewis, now residents of Rocky Mount, where they are both in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line, were happily married in that town yesterday, Mr. King to Miss Annie Smith, and Mr. Lewis to Miss Rosa Shearin, and both young couples came to Goldshoro yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis went out to the groom's home, near Dudley, where a reception was given by his parents in their honor last night; and Mr. and Mrs. King remained in this city, the guests of the groom's brother Mr. Horace E. King and wife, at their home on Chestnut street, where a wedding supper was spread in their honor, and delightful refreshments were served to the many friends who called during the evening. They left on the early train for Clinton this morning to visit the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat R. King. The ARGUS wishes both the young couples all happiness, length of days and abundant prosperity.

ATONIC is a medicine that gives tone to some part of the system. There are different kinds of tonics, but the tonic most needed in this country, where catarrh is so prevalent, is a tonic that operates on the mucous membranes.

Peruna is a tonic to the mucous membranes of the whole body. It gives tone to the capillary circulation which constitutes these delicate membranes.

Peruna is a specific in its operation upon the mucous membrane. It is a tonic that strikes at the root of all catarrhal affections. It gives tone to the minute blood vessels and the terminal nerve fibres. Catarrh cannot exist long where Peruna is used intelligently. Peruna seeks out catarrh in all the hidden parts of the body.

Paul Landrum writing from Atlanta, Ga., says:

"In January last I began the use of your Peruna and Manalin for what was termed organic heart trouble. At that time I could scarcely walk to my place of business without stopping to rest and on arrival felt completely exhausted. Had severe pains in my heart and general dizziness. After using the first bottle of Peruna I began to improve and today I feel that I am a sound man and I work fourteen hours a day without any bad feeling."—Paul Landrum.

A. M. Ikerd, an employee of the C. B. & Q. R. R., West Burlington, Ia., writes:

"I had catarrh of the stomach and small intestines for a number of years. I went to a number of doctors and got no relief. Finally one of my doctors sent me to Chicago and I met the same feto. They said they could do nothing for me, that I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was something awful. I could hardly stand it, it was so offensive. I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I got one of your books, and concluded I would try Peruna, and thank God, I found a relief and a cure for that dreadful disease. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle in my house all the time."—A. M. Ikerd.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
