

MORE MEN TO CAMP

87 Men to Go to Camps Beginning April 26th. 51 Colored Men of First Draft to Illinois, 24 Colored and 12 White of Second Draft to Camp Jackson.

The War Department has issued a call for the entrainment of 5,055 men from North Carolina during the five-day period beginning April 26th. This total of over five thousand men is divided into three calls. The first is for 2,001 colored men to be sent to Camp Grant, Illinois, this being the number due by the State to complete the first draft. The second is for 1,597 colored men to be sent to Camp Jackson, applying on the second draft. The third is for 1,057 white men to be sent to Camp Jackson, on second draft.

Under this plan Richmond county will furnish 51 colored men for Camp Grant, Illinois, to complete the first quota, 24 colored men to Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Third Liberty Loan Bond Campaign Now On. North Carolina to Raise $19,000,000. Richmond County to Raise About $250,000.

The campaign for the Third Liberty Loan bonds is on in full swing now, and all over this land people are rallying to the call of our Government by subscribing to the bonds even to the point where the subscribing means a sacrifice—but a temporary sacrifice only, for subscribing to these bonds is simply an investment.

The campaign opened last Saturday, the anniversary of America's entrance into war. The bonds will bear interest of 4 1/2 per cent. Committees have been appointed to solicit subscriptions in each precinct in the county, and a list of the citizens composing this committee can be seen on page 7. The campaign will continue for two more weeks, and it is earnestly hoped that our people will respond to the call by promptly over-subscribing Richmond county's apportionment.

In the Second Liberty Loan issue the county was assessed $212,000, but went over the top with the grand total of $395,000. Taking this amount were 314 subscribers.

If it does not suit you to pay the full amount for a Liberty Loan bond you can pay five per cent on application, twenty per cent May 28th, thirty-five per cent July 18th, and forty per cent Aug. 15th. Or if you want a bond and haven't the ready money to pay for same, why go to your bank and get them to buy you a bond and then you start a weekly or monthly saving deposit with them for it. The bonds are in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and on up. You want to be numbered among those who have lent their money to the Government, so see a member of the committee or consult your bank without delay—and let's let Richmond county cross the line a winner by a good margin!

New Department.

The Post-Dispatch is with this issue inaugurating a new department, to be known as the Red Cross Department, the items therein to be contributed and supervised by Miss Georgia Biggs and Mrs R. B. Waddell. If you have any suggestions to make, or items to contribute, for department, kindly phone or write such to either of these two ladies. The Post-Dispatch will gladly devote space to furthering the work of this excellent organization; the items under this head this week can be found on page 3.

SUPERIOR COURT

April Term for Trial of Criminal Cases Opened Monday.

The April term of Richmond superior court for trial of criminal cases only, opened last Monday, with Judge W. J. Adams presiding and Solicitor Walter E. Brock prosecuting. This was Judge Harding's term, but he and Judge Adams "swapped."

The following were drawn as the grand jury, with H. C. Petty, of Hamlet, as foreman:

H. C. Petty, M. B. Nicholson, W. N. Everett, Jr., G. W. Coggins, A. B. Nicholson, Geo. S. Steele, Monroe Warburton, S. W. Odum, G. F. Myers, A. M. Palmer, A. B. Welch, A. C. Phifer, Van Thomas, W. D. Smith, M. W. Nicholson, Charlie Covington, E. A. Lackey, Archie L. McNeill.

The following are the cases disposed of:

State vs Walter Little; carrying concealed weapon; fined $50 and costs.

State vs Rich Williams, charged with three counts; retailing, resisting officer and carrying concealed weapon. Pays costs and prayer for judgment continued for 3 years, in the retailing case; fined $25 and costs in second case; and pays costs in third case. His getting off this light was due to his being drafted.

State vs Joe and Raney Adams; charged with larceny of cotton from T. C. Covington, of Route 4. Jury found them not guilty.

State vs Maude and Raymond Davis; charged with larceny of a washpot; jury found not guilty as to Maude, and so judge directs a not guilty verdict as to Raymond.

State vs Lewis McNeill, waives bill and pleads guilty; fined $50 and costs.

State vs Vance Hale; by consent of State bill of indictment changed to forcible trespass and he pleads guilty. He is a young white boy, probably 12 years old. Efforts will be made by the Court to have him admitted into the Stonewall Jackson Training School near Concord.

The foregoing cases were disposed of Monday, the Court mill having ground rapidly, as the large number of cases shows.

Tuesday Court reconvened at 9:30 o'clock.

State vs Tom Smith; after submission of evidence defendant decided not to resist a verdict, and so Court directs verdict of guilty.

State vs L. W. Page. This case was hotly contested. The Carolina Brick Co., of Florence, claims to have sold him 100,000 brick as agent, while he claimed they were sold him on open account. The charge was embezzlement. The jury found him not guilty.

State vs Grover McQuaig; pleads guilty to trespass. Prayer for judgment continued for 2 years; he pays cost and is put under $100 bond to appear at Jan. and July terms for 3 years to show good behavior and that he has not in-

State vs Chas. R. Stephenson; charged check flashing. He is from North Wilkesboro, and gave a bad check to the First National Bank of Hamlet. Through counsel he pleads that he has not mental discretion to enter a formal plea. The issue then submitted to the jury was: "is defendant insane and unable to plead to bill of indictment?" Answer: "Yes." The Judge then directed that Stephenson be committed to the Hospital for the dangerous insane and confined therein under the hospital rules and regulations and there to remain until such time as his mind may be restored and to await the further action of the Court in this cause.

State vs Mark Sweat, larceny of corn; pleads guilty; prayer for judgment continued for 12 months; pays costs and is required to appear and show good behavior from time to time.

State vs Annie Wall. The defendant having been found guilty at Sept. 1917, term of receiving stolen goods and sentenced to jail for 12 months, with leave of Commissioners to hire out, and having been so hired and having left the parties to whom hired and having failed to comply with judgment of the Court, she is now remanded to custody (jail) and the Commissioners to be notified of this matter.

State vs Walter Little; c. c. w. Sent to roads for 60 days.

The criminal docket being finished, Court adjourned at noon for the term.

Rat Tail Contest.

Mrs. John Sandy Covington requests the Post-Dispatch to announce the inauguration of a "rat tail contest." This contest will begin next Monday, the 15th, and will close Monday, the 29th.

The principal of each school in the county is requested to select one boy from their school as Captain. Every pupil is eligible to compete for the prizes, Thrift Stamps, and the pupil in each school getting the most rat tails will receive a prize of Stamps. The pupils in each school must report to their Captain at the end of the contest (Monday, 29th) and let him count the tails. Then the Captain is requested to officially write or notify Mrs. Covington who the winner in his school is. Mrs. Covington will then have the names of the winners published and will forward the prize Stamps. Also, the school reporting the most rat tails will be awarded a Grand Prize.

Now let all the schools of Richmond county get into this contest in earnest. Thousands of rats should be killed by this means, and more food saved, as rats do enormous damage to food supplies. By killing these rats, you will not only have a chance at the Prize Stamps, but you will be aiding your government in the effort to conserve food.
