Dance at Terrace. —:—:—

The gay season at the Carolina Terrace was inaugurated Saturday evening in a most animated manner by the first dance which was the beginning of a series of these affairs for the young people, and will continue every Wednesday and Saturday evening throughout the season. The opening was a brilliant event for Hendersonville, and was attended by about two hundred, who witnessed the dance, many of whom participated. The dance hall was tastily decorated in white, yellow and green, the colors of the Terrace. The guests of the hotel, residents of the city, and visitors at other hotels in Hendersonville were among the dancers, and for two hours "joy was unconfined."

The chaperones, guests of Carolina Terrace, were Mrs. Howell Cobb, Mrs. W. D. McCarty, Mrs. Adolphus C. Shell, and Mrs. George W. Martin, of San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. W. H. Mixson of Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. James A. Robinson, of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. U. Samuel and Mrs. L. Marx, of New Orleans; Mrs. Gabriele M. Malul, of Habana, Cuba; Mrs. C. H. Grosskeys, of Piedmont S. C.; and Mrs. T. H. The entertainment given in Laurel Park Casino Monday night by the Laurel Park Camp Glee Club was an enjoyable affair. The Casino was filled with an appreciative audience. Vocal and instrumental solos and a number of songs by the male quartette accompanied by the camp orchestra composed the program. After the entertainment dancing was indulged in until a late hour. —:—:—

Several persons were injured more or less seriously Monday night when the seats in the tent of the Williams Stock Company, a theatrical company here this week, collapsed under their heavy human burden and precipitated the occupants to the ground below. The accident occurred near the end of the last act and a panic was narrowly averted. Wilburn Phillips a young boy sustained a broken hip and numerous others were bruised. It is said the Phillips boy was caught under the planks and came near being crushed to death. Several ladies fainted and the accident caused much excitement. It was stated that the wet condition of the grounds was responsible for the seats giving away, and the fact that more were not seriously injured is considered remarkable. —:—:—

"THE MASKED RIDER" BRIMFUL OF THRILLS.

"The Masked Rider," a sensational 5-part Metro-Quality production, with Harold Lockwood and May Allison in the stellar roles, will be the next feature attraction at the Queen theatre on Tuesday, August 22. This wonderplay is brimful of thrills, especially in the big scenes staged in the Chimney Rock section of North Carolina. There are many exciting moments in this part of the story, which deals with the moonshiners of that section. The outlaws are brought to justice through the daring exploits of "The Masked Rider" played by Mr. Lockwood, who poses as a mountain parson until he gathers his evidence against them. Before they are corraled the fighting parson is obliged to display his prowess in one of the most remarkable encounters ever shown upon the screen. The central characters in this fight are Mr. Lockwood and Lester Cuneo, who plays the villain in the role of "Squid Archer." The leader of the moonshiners, Miss Allison is seen in the delightful role of a beautiful mountain girl, whom the fighting parson wins in the end. Mr. Lockwood and Miss Allison are surrounded by an exceptionally strong cast headed by Mr. Cuneo and includes Howard Truesdell, Harry Berkhart, John MacDonald, H. W. Willis, Harry Linkey and Carissa Selwynn. "The Masked Rider" was produced for the Metro program under the direction of Fred J. Balshofer.
