DURHAM DOINGS.

The Day's Record of Current Events in the City and Vicinity.

—There was no case before the mayor for trial this morning.

—Mr Fletcher Faucette, of Hillsboro, who was reported as being so seriously ill is very much better.

—The judicial convention for the fifth district will meet in Greensboro, Tuesday, July 8th, so the committee decided yesterday.

—One hundred and thirty-two deaf and dumb mutes passed up the road yesterday afternoon, going to their homes from the asylum in Raleigh.

—It's hot, but don't complain, it is the very thing for crops. Many farmers during this court informed us that the prospect for a bountiful yield was never better.

—In the case of the State vs. Dinah Johnson, concealing the birth of her child, a juror was withdrawn this morning, and the case was continued till October term of court.

—Dr. L. W. Battle, who had an operation performed on his leg between the knee and the ankle, to relieve an injury caused by a wound received during the war, is still a great sufferer.

—A young man just through smiling over having passed his twenty-first birthday, walked into the court room to see how things were getting along. The sheriff saw him and called him into the jury box.

—Persons desiring certificates of membership in the Teachers' assembly can obtain them upon payment of the fee to W. G. Vickers, county superintendent of public instruction. Certificates entitle the holders to reduced railroad and hotel rates to the meeting of the assembly at Morehead City.

—Three colored men passed creditable examinations before the board of medical examiners last week at Oxford, and were licensed to practice medicine. D. E. Caldwell, son of Wilson Caldwell, well known here and at the University, was one of them. He will locate at Asheville and is worthy of success.

—Died, in Hillsboro, yesterday morning at 3 o'clock, Mr. Robert Faucette, aged 66 years. A good man gone to rest. Mr. Faucette was one of Hillsboro's oldest citizens, having resided there over forty years. He was a good citizen, the best of neighbors, and a conscientious christian, having been a member of the Methodist church over forty years. When his country called him he gave four of the best years of his life to do battle for her as a member of the 56th N. C. regiment. He was buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock with masonic honors.

COMING AND GOING.

Durham People on the Move and Visitors in the City.

Mr. Shepard Bryan, of the University, was in town to-day.

Capt. E. S. Parker, of Graham, is attending court to-day.

Little Emma Bass, of Wilson, is visiting the family of Capt. P. M. Briggs.

Mr. Hugh L. Miller, of Raleigh, paid this office a pleasant call this morning.

Mr. J. A. Long, of Graham, spent the day in town, the guest of Mr. J. W. Brooks.

Mrs. J. F. Slaughter, of Lynchburg, mother of Mr. J. F. Slaughter, Jr., is visiting her son.

Dr. Thomas Hume, of the University, passed down the road to-day on his way to Morehead City.

Mr. C. H. Lewellin, of Oxford, is shaking hands with his numerous friends on our streets to-day.

Miss Mattie Lee, of Goldsboro, who has been visiting Miss Maggie Watkins, returned to her home at noon to-day.

Mrs. H. N. Snow and Master Horace returned from a visit to relatives in Wayne county yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. T. C. Fuller, of Raleigh, who has been visiting her son's family here for a few days, returned to her home on the mid-day train.

Rev. J. T. Harris joined Drs. Reid, and Black and Rev. J. J. Renn here yesterday afternoon on their way to Trinity College commencement.

Mr. J. F. Slaughter, Jr., cashier of the Fidelity bank, who has been confined to his room by sickness for a few days, is very much better, his numerous friends will be glad to learn.

Mr. G. W. Poythress, one of Orange county's most successful planters, and his good wife paid this office a visit to-day. It was Mrs. Poythress' first look at a printing press, and it was a curiosity to her.

Thomas A. Wedge, of Elkhart county, Indiana, has been married five times within the past year. A few days ago he was divorced from his fourth wife and married the fifth Mrs. Wedge on the same day.

AN EVENING TO BE REMEMBERED.

The Most Recherche Reception That Durham Ever Witnessed.

The reception at Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Duke's last evening, from 9 to 12 o'clock, to meet Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duke was a most brilliant affair. The guests were almost numberless, and during the time mentioned a continual throng poured in and through the house. Carriages almost locked wheels as they came and went. The vestibule was filled with a mellowed light that was most enchanting, while the salon was all a glory of illumination. On the very threshold a most hearty welcome was tendered the visitors, and then they were escorted to the reception room where they were most graciously received by Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Duke. Next the guests were presented to Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duke, and the hearty handshakes lacked everything of formality and showed genuineness as the words "I am glad to meet you," were said. Mr. Duke's dignity and cheery smile were very becoming to him, while Mrs. Duke, in her elegant toilet, looked just as pretty and happy as could be.

As each couple filed by to make room for others, a merry conversation filled the rooms, and the beaming faces gave plain evidence that all were enjoying themselves. In due time each guest found his way to the refreshment room, and a thing of beauty it was too. In the centre of a large table was a miniature lake, around the edges of which ferns and water lilies seemed to grow. This was the feature of the room, but the other decorations were of corresponding richness. Here ribbon water ices, cream and other delicacies were served in the cutest souvenirs. All this time grand strains of music filled the whole house, and made all hearts joyful.

A look over the crowd showed scores and scores of middle aged ladies wearing neat evening caps and becoming dresses; those younger yet, wearing lovely bonnets and costly garments of finest texture, and blooming maidens, with uncovered tresses, wearing gowns of rarest beauty. A pleasing picture to look at. The gentlemen were there in great numbers also, and each man wore his best looks and his best clothes.

But all things earthly must have an end, and so this entertainment had its termination.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Duke, Durham greets you, welcomes you and wishes you long life and happiness.

GOING TO HENDERSON.

Main Street Sunday School Excursion, Friday, June 13.

This excursion will afford a rare chance to those wishing to visit the enterprising town of Henderson, at a small cost. A splendid program has been mapped out for the day, and those going may expect a nice time. The lawn tennis clubs of Durham and Henderson will play a match game of tennis on that occasion, and the event promises to be very exciting, as the best talent of each town will be arrayed against each other. A beautiful grove, with an abundance of good water conveniently near, has been tendered the school on that occasion. A good dinner, and enough for all, will be spread on the picnic grounds. The train will leave Hotel Claiborn at 7 o'clock sharp.

Fare for persons not members of the school: Those over 12 years old, $1.50; those under 12 years old, 75 cents. Tickets are on sale at Duke's factory and the drug stores, and can be obtained at the train on Friday morning.

Cured Dyspepsia and Renal Colic.

AMELIA C. H., April 5, 1887.

I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia from my childhood, not being able to eat greasy food of any kind, and recently (about January, 1887), had a most violent attack of renal colic, caused by passing a stone from the kidneys. I suffered so intensely that a half grain of morphia was administered to me at one time without relieving the pain, and chloroform had to be administered. I believe that I was at death's door. My physician, after relieving the pain, prescribed the "Otterburn Lithia Magnesia Water" for me, and I have used it ever since with marked benefit. I have suffered no recurrence of the colic, and can eat pork or anything else with impunity. G. W. ANDERSON.

WAKE FOREST.

REV. THOMAS DIXON DELIVERS AN ADDRESS TO-DAY.

Meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee—The Soldiers' Home to be Opened—Two Grim Relics of the War.

THE GLOBE BUREAU, RALEIGH, N. C., June 11, '90.

The class day exercises at Wake Forest college Monday were interesting. There were some inaccuracies in the list of speakers as published. The address was delivered by President G. W. Ward; the oration by J. E. White, of Apex; C. L. Felt, of Emporium, Pa., being the class poet; J. O. Atkinson, of Raleigh, the historian; J. B. Spilman, of Weldon, the prophet; J. A. Holleman, of Winston, the secretary. The trustees of the college met yesterday morning, and last evening. Associate Justice Merrimon delivered the address before the alumni.

To-day at 11 o'clock Mr. Dixon will deliver his address, while at 8:15 this evening Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum, of Richmond, Va., will preach the sermon before the graduating class. Mr. L. S. Cannon, of Burke county, is the valedictorian of the graduating class; Mr. J. S. Hawkins, of Danville, Va., delivering the salutatory. There will be only seven speakers Thursday.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.

The meeting of the Democratic state executive committee yesterday was an interesting one. Some of its members favored the immediate choice of a chairman, while two thought the selection should be left to the convention. It was soon seen that those who held the first view were in an overwhelming majority. No nomination was made save that of E. C. Smith, though mention was made both of Jarvis and Skinner. Some of the committee favored an early convention, but those who desired a late one carried the day. It is a good plan to have a short and active campaign, particularly in an off year. By and bye there will always be short campaigns and the stumping of the state will cease. It is too great a strain to be put upon any candidate.

SOLDIERS' HOME.

Your correspondent had quite a chat yesterday with Mr. William C. Stronach, who is beyond doubt one of the most public-spirited and generous men in the state. He and Col. A. B. Andrews are seeking for a suitable building for use as a home for ex-Confederates. When they find what they want they will rent it. Their belief is that it is best now to do this. Mr. Carr, the president of the association, has the same view. He says that if a suitable building is not found here he will provide one at Durham. The idea is to begin in an humble way, and not longer let the state rest under the disgraceful imputation of neglect of soldiers. There is $3,500 or $4,000 available. The committee can, if the home is located here, give it personal daily attention. It can be more economically and satisfactorily conducted, with the means now in sight, in this way, than at Ridgeway. Anyway the home will be at Raleigh and the people here will do their part by it. The step is positively decided on now, and there will be no turning back.

TWO WAR RELICS.

In front of the statue of Washington in the capital square are two fifteen inch shells. Thousands of people see them daily, but very few know whence they came. After the first bombardment of Fort Fisher Governor Vance sent for a couple of shells fired by the federal fleet, as souvenirs of the gallant defence. An ordnance sergeant went, with a negro and a mule and cart, after shells. One was picked up and exploded, killing soldier, darkey and mule. However, another attempt was made and two shells were procured and sent here.

LOOKS LIKE A FAT YEAR.

Mr. Charles W. Raney told me yesterday that the Vance county farmers are in better spirits than he ever saw them before. For years past the weather in May has been wet and the water soaked lands were full of grass when June came. This year there is a happy change. The ground is dry and mellow, there is no grass and the crops are clean. The prospect is glorious. Some pessimists fear that a season of sorrow will follow this one of joy, but really it looks like 1890 is going to be a fat year.

NOTES.

A force of laborers is at work removing the stains from the exterior of the capitol, and the discolorations are very hard to obliterate.

Raleigh has a good representation at the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar at Asheville. A banquet at the Battery Park hotel will be one of the features of the assemblage.

W. H. Pace, of this city, will be one of quite a number of people who will leave here for Europe this summer. He will have special medical treatment while abroad, for a throat affection.

The United States circuit court adjourned yesterday, having disposed of the business before it, and Judge Seymour returned to New Berne. He said he would soon file his opinions in the two important suits involving the state's right to tax Pullman sleeping cars and commercial fertilizers. Both of these questions are interesting ones.

Much interest is developing concerning the Fourth of July celebration. It is probable that there will be a $500 display of fireworks. It is proposed to have special trains on all the roads.

Simmons will be the nominee for congress in the second district, and he will make a fine canvass. His election, it is claimed, will be a certainty, and those who say so ought to know what they are talking about.

The press of the state ought to give wide currency to the prosecutors in the federal court of Democrats charged with making false affidavits regarding the last election. It will be a boomerang for the Republicans no doubt.

This morning, at St. Mary's school, one of the graduates is to marry a wealthy young South Carolinian. This is quite an interesting and certainly unusual event at a commencement. Lovers will probably make a note of it.

Rev. Thomas Dixon, who is so popular everywhere, lectured here last evening, and had a flattering large audience. His theme was "Playing the Fool." A wag said that the witty preacher took the same topic in his pulpit in New York on the 1st instant, and that Elliott F. Shepard was his particular illustration.

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

WILL CURE

Cancer in Its Early Stages!

RINGWOOD, N. C., May 2, 1887.

Mrs. Joe Person:

DEAR MADAM:—Most gladly do I give you my name to place before the public, bearing testimony of the miraculous cure effected on me by your most valuable Remedy. Fifteen years ago I was troubled by what seemed to be little scales appearing on the right side of my cheek, under the eye, resembling dry nasal bran, which I could remove when I sneezed, but they would return again in a short time. Soon an enlargement appeared under the same eye, attended with itching and burning sensations, and sharp, darting pains from the affected place to the eye, causing great difficulty in closing the eye, even to sleep. Sometimes it would feel better, but never at any time disappear. Some physicians pronounced it eczema, others chronic erysipelas, and all advised me to let it alone. This I did until two years ago, when a little scab began to form right under the eye, resembling a wart, which I could not remove; in size and appearance it soon grew to be as large as a strawberry, and the scales came off and left the place entirely raw. Having fear of a cancer, I began to use various kinds of salves to heal it up, but never could. I consulted with physicians of great experience; they said it looked suspicious of it, and advised me to have it cut or burnt out at once. I did not wish to do either; and being persuaded it was in my blood, I resolved to try your Remedy, as it had been recommended to me. I did so with the most happy results. I can say I am a well man. I cannot say too much for your Remedy; it is worth its weight in gold. Before I had used one bottle I was hopeful, and at the expiration of five weeks the sore was entirely healed, the scales or roughness of the skin all gone, and left me a new man. I will give any one similarly affected any further information they may desire, and can only say, if the public will give your Remedy a trial, it will speak for itself, and your success will know no bounds. God speed the day that must dawn upon your future prosperity. Yours most truly,

JAMES CARTER ARRINGTONS.

JONES & LYON.

BEAUTIFUL GLASCOWS!

Exquisite in printing, artistic in coloring, but the peculiar charm is in the stuff itself. Touch it; smooth as silk. Not a lump or knot or scraggy place on the delicate surface. But not a hint of weakness! Try to tear a bit, warp or wool way, no odds which. Nothing slimsy there. Just as the polish of culture and good breeding lifts a man or woman above the common, so the perfect make and finish lifts the Glascows above other cottons. Rivals? Yes, about as a "farthing dip" rivals an arc light. The wonder of wonders is that the Glascows are only 35 cents a yard.

EGYPTIAN COTTONS!

One of the choicest and newest fabrics of the season. Shown in all the latest colorings, including illuminated stripes, which are formed by the delicate shadings of small and medium figures.

Another hot weather cotton novelty is

THE BEIGE,

In handsome designs, at 5 cents per yard.

Among the many other warm weather articles that might be mentioned, are:

TURKISH TOWELS,

Both white and brown linen.

HONEY COMB BED SPREADS,

In handsome patterns.

HOT WEATHER FOOTWEAR

FOR EVERYBODY.

Dark shades of mahogany, chocolate and brown for quiet tastes. Bright shades of russet, copper, tan and gray for the gay. Tipped and plain toes, high and low heels.
