Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Wommack, of Parkton, were here Friday and Saturday. Rev. Wommack performed the marriage ceremony of Miss Edith Whitehead and Gilbert Neal in the Methodist Episcopal Church Saturday afternoon.

The dance in Meyer Building Friday night sponsored by the Woman's Club for the benefit of the community house, was a perfect success. The music was good, there was a big crowd, and "a good time was had by all".

And those that did not see the "Cabaret Revue", the home talent minstrel given in the school auditorium Friday night, also for the benefit of the community house, missed a real treat. It was a great success from every viewpoint. It is being asked to be repeated, so watch for a date.

Mrs. J. B. Britt entertained members of the Thursday afternoon Bridge Club and several additional guests Friday at one o'clock at her home on "Sherrod Heights." Early spring flowers decorated the two living rooms where a two course luncheon, lemon tarts following a chicken salad plate, was served at small tables. A gift of linen was presented to Miss Edith Whitehead, a special luncheon guest, who was married the next day. Others who were present just at the luncheon hour were Mrs. J. M. Christian, of Williamsburg, Va., Mrs. I. D. Wood, Mrs. Hubert Whitaker, Mrs. R. L. Wood, Mrs. W. N. Sherrod, Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, Mrs. Lawrence Whitaker and Mrs. A. W. Andleton. Those that remained for the bridge game in the afternoon were Miss Sallie Dickens, Mrs. Sam Arrington Dunn, Mrs. Jeff Whitehead, Mrs. Joe Pope, Mrs. A. C. Nichols, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Shervette, Jr., Mrs. D. Mac Johnson, Mrs. Tommy Morris, Mrs. R. Hunter Pope, Mrs. Lee Whitehead, Mrs. J. R. Matthews and Mrs. Eugene Wood. Mrs. R. Hunter Pope made high score in the progressions and was awarded a box of dusting powder. Mrs. A. C. Nichols, Jr. won the cut prize, two decks of cards.

The junior Contract Club held an enjoyable meeting when Mrs. Emmette Marshall was hostess to them Thursday evening.

Miss Kiki Andleton was hostess to members of her bridge club Wednesday. Making up the tables were Miss Eunice Cuthrell, Miss Frances Hofler, Miss Julia Branch, Miss Rebecca Kimball, Miss Eloise Hardison, Miss Mary Eleanor Bobbitt, Mrs. John D. Walton, Mrs. R. L. Whitehead, Mrs. Elmer Cuthrell, Miss Dot Bell, Miss Vernell Kimball and Mrs. Durward Anderson.

Vestris Heroine Thanks Her Rescuers

MRS. TERUKA INOUE, widowed survivor of the Vestris disaster a decade ago, with four of the officers who staffed the U.S.S. Wyoming when the battleship picked up Mrs. Inouye and other survivors after the foundering of the British steamer 250 miles off the Virginia coast. Mrs. Inouye, who almost gave her own life in a futile attempt to save her husband,

Major Yeshio Inouye, Japanese military attache, is pictured with the naval men following a luncheon she gave them at New York's Hotel Gotham to express her thanks. It was Mrs. Inouye's first visit to the United States since the tragedy. The officers are, from l. to r.: Capt. N. B. Farwell, Lieut. E. D. Sullivan, Lieut. Matthew Radom and Lieut. Albert Benjamin.

Electric Cooking is CLEAN

AN ELECTRIC RANGE SAVES YOU HOURS OF WORK

When you use an electric range, you cook with heat as clean as your electric light. Pots and pans can gleam like new. Walls and woodwork may be kept bright and shining . . . kitchen curtains can be kept cleaner. The range itself is as easy to care for as a china plate . . . Ovens have no sharp corners to collect spilled foods . . . controlled heat assures perfect results. Thousands know their kitchen labor has been lightened since they use an electric range.
