Little Stories for Bedtime

IT IS DECIDED TO LEAVE THE OLD ORCHARD.

(By Thornton W. Burgess.) (Copyright, 1914, by J. G. Lloyd.)

Have you ever noticed how some people seem born to make trouble for others? Bully the English Sparrow and his wife, Mrs. Bully, are not very big. In fact, they are small. But they can upset an entire neighborhood in less time than it takes to tell about it.

They seem to just delight in it. They seem to just delight in quarrel among their neighbors they quarrel between themselves, so that when they are there is very little peace.

Now, until they moved there from the city the Old Orchard had been one of the quietest, most delightful places

The meeting of the Crystal Study club at Mrs. James Massey's Monday evening, and a very instructive and interesting program was given. Each member responded to the roll call with a quotation from an American author. The paper on American Literature read by Mrs. McQuarrie was very good. Mrs. T. A. Cameron had charge of the Round Table where civic work in other towns was discussed. Several members under Mrs. Cameron's direction gave reports of such work. Mrs. Scott's report on the civic work in Jamestown and that of Miss Nugent on the work done in Cavalier were especially good.

Mrs. Scott was elected to represent the club at the annual meeting of the North Dakota Federation of Women's Clubs at Jamestown October 13-16.

Light refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The Mrs. Cameron will entertain the club at her home October 12. Miss Bergsland will read a paper on "Hygiene and Sanitation" and Mrs. Reinhardt will have charge of the Round Table where "Prevention of Disease and Disinfection" will be discussed. A quartet consisting of the Misses Evingson, Nugent and Bergsland will sing.
