THE LAMBERTVILLE RECORD

CLARK PIERSON, Editor.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1898.

The American Monthly Review of Reviews for August reviews the Santiago campaign by land and sea from start to finish. Winston Churchill, who wrote so acceptably on Admiral Dewey for the June Review, describes in this number the wonderful battle with Cervera's fleet, and his article is illustrated in part from Hemment's remarkable photographs of the Spanish ships taken the day after the fight. John A. Church, formerly of the Army and Navy Journal, contributes a full account of the Santiago land fighting, and his article also is illustrated from new photographs. Park Benjamin writes on the work cut out for the Eastern squadron under Commodore Watson. Altogether, the Review again shows its ability to keep well abreast of all important military and naval movements, and to exhibit a clean pair of heels to all its competitors in magazinedom.

VACATION.

Why Some Men Do Not Take Them.

The Orange Chronicle raises a protest against a bad practice which we believe is not entirely confined to all the Oranges. It says:—"There are scores of people who go away to summer resorts every year, and spend the entire season in expensive recreation, who leave behind them bills the payment of which would greatly curtail their summering by depriving them of the ready cash which they are obliged to produce when away from home. In effect, they force their creditors at home to pay for their vacations, while these same creditors are frequently deprived of their own outings by their inability to spare for their pleasure or recreation the money necessary, and at the same time advance the funds for their debtors' enjoyment. Those who cannot pay their bills and take their vacations too, and choose the latter of the two courses, are not the only class of customers who are a trial to the local dealers, who could settle all their accounts as well as not, but who, never having experienced the sensation of wondering just where needed funds are to come from, see no necessity of paying their bills until they feel just like it, and so postpone the pleasant function until their return from their outing. Whether it is inability or indisposition that deprives the dealer of his money for weeks or months after it is due, the result is the same to him, and he has to stay at home and hustle, and wish he might have the privilege of spending some of his own money in an outing."

Shall We Let Spain Stay in the Philippines?

There must be involved in the conclusion of a treaty with Spain the necessity of the specific question whether or not, having extinguished the Spanish sovereignty in the Philippines, we shall choose to reestablish it. We shall then be obliged to consider carefully the fact that our victorious position at Manila had from the beginning been closely bound up with the cause of the Philippine insurgents. We shall have to remember Admiral Dewey's relations with General Aguinaldo. We shall have forced upon our attention the remarkable facts—which will yet come out in far greater detail than they have hitherto been presented—of General Aguinaldo's campaign in May, June, and July against the Spanish troops in various parts of the Philippine Islands, and particularly in the vicinity of Manila. We shall not find Aguinaldo and his ambitious fellowleaders to be the most tractable and delightful of allies, perhaps, but they have much to their credit. Congress and the American people will be likely to take the ground (which the President and the administration are also pretty certain to assume) that when the grand settlement is made at the conclusion of the war our vigorous allies, the Philippine insurgents under Aguinaldo, have very much more title to our consideration than the Spaniards who have robbed and tyrannized over the Philippine population. There is a good deal too much of the spirit of liberty and of true chivalry in the American people to allow the Philippine Islands to be handed back to the Spaniards after all that has happened since the first day of May, when Dewey and his men rose so early but breakfasted so late.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for August.

Heard Much About Them.

"I was taken with a bad humor which appeared on different parts of my body and on may fce. Prescriptions gave me only temporary relief. I heard so much about the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla that I began taking it and in a short time the eruptions were all healed." MISS SUSIE LIGAR, Wyoming, Delaware.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. Easy to take, easy to operate; reliable, sure. 25c.

A Newark Barber

Has Been Closely Confined to His Shop for Years

The Result Was Dyspepsia Which Hood's Sarsaparilla Cured.

"Owing to close confinement for many years, I suffered a severe siege of dyspepsia. I had a very bitter taste in my mouth in the morning. I took medicine for a long time without benefit. Finally I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it helped me from the start. Its continued use entirely cured me. Since then I have never been sick but once and I again resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla which did me as much good as before. I would not be without it under any circumstances. I have recommended it to my friends and use it in my family whenever my wife or children have any stomach trouble or need a blood purifier." HARRY L. MORRIS, 100 Mulberry Street, Newark, New Jersey. There is a plant, it is said, that is never touched by insects, and that is tansy. If you rub a horse over with a handful of it before taking him on the road, it is claimed that flies will not touch him. Just try it and see.

The editor of the Evans City, Pa., Globe, writes, "One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It cured my children after all other remedies failed." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. S. W. Cochran & Co.

The cartoons reproduced in the August Review of Reviews from Spanish journals serve to indicate the density of popular ignorance in Spain as to the facts of the present war. For instance, one cartoon shows Cevera's fleet as successfully slipping past Sampson at Santiago; another represents Cervera as having Schley bottled up; while in a third Admiral Dewey figures as a rat caught in Spain's Philippine trap.

The Successful Remedy for NASAL CATARRH

must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will by its own action reach the inflamed and diseased surface.

ELY'S CREAM BALM combines the important requisites of quick action and specific-curative powers with perfect safety to the patient. This agreeable remedy has mastered cians and patients freely concede this fact. All druggists cheerfully acknowledge that in this the acme of Pharmaceutical skill has been reached. The most distressing symptoms quickly yield to it. In acute cases the Balm imparts instant relief.

By Absorption.

Catarrhal sufferers should remember that Ely's Cream Balm is the only catarrh remedy which is quickly and thoroughly absorbed by the diseased membrane. It does not dry up the secretions, but changes them to a limpid and odorless condition, and finally to a natural and healthy character.

The Balm can be found at any drug store, or by sending 50 cents to Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York, it will be mailed.

Cream Balm opens and cleanses the nasal assages, allays inflammation, thereby stopping pain in the head, heals and protects the membrane and restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is applied directly into the nostrils.
