SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1894. This paper is Democratic in principles and is independent in its views on all local questions.

The Business Situation and Its Political Aspect.

In spite of the approach of the election, business holds up fairly well, as the weekly reports of the commercial agencies, printed below, demonstrate.

The Republican organs keep on howling about the depreciation of values, the impoverishment of the country in the last two years.

The Republican paper always leads to ruin because it encourages mad speculation and frantic expenditure, based on no reasonable possibilities.

The State Treasury's flourishing Condition.

The Republican papers have in the last day or two given great prominence to accounts of the fine condition of the State finances.

All the money that the State receives and which goes to build up this great surplus is the result of the system established by the Democratic party under its great leader, Leon Abbott, some ten years ago.

within the last six months. All the glory is undividedly Democratic glory, and it is quite generous of the "State Gazette" and other Republican organs to advertise it so extensively so short a time before election.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

From Bradstreet's "State of Trade." General trade continues on conservative lines, there is little far-reaching improvement in business circles.

Another favorable report is that Bradstreet's concerning October bank clearings, which reflect the enlarged field in a total of $1,000,000,000 for the month since June, 1893.

Notwithstanding the better demand for lower grades English and New York markets, among which seven cities shipped 10,000 cases this week, against 11,000 in the corresponding week last year.

Whether the reduction in price of cattle is due primarily to the German prohibition of importations from the small states remains to be seen.

Exports of wheat, and flour as wheat, both coasts of the United States, amount this week to 3,200,000 bushels.

The last week of October, with an exciting election season, cannot indicate much of the business to be done in the next few months.

The Entertainment Committee of Chapter 1894, Epworth League, has arranged an entertainment for the 10th of this month.

The annual bazaar of St. Mark's Church will be held from November 21 to 23, at the Grand Hotel, to make it as amusing as usual.
