Mrs. McCumber Avoided a Serious Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time

Georgetown, Ill.—"After my first baby was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the floor unless I was all humped over, holding to my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise your medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me." — Mrs. MARGARET MCCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.

Mrs. McCumber is one of the unnumbered thousands of housewives who struggle to keep about their daily tasks, while suffering from ailments peculiar to women with backache, sideaches, headaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness,—and if every such woman should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would get well.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. Walker

MAKING FRIENDS.

IF YOU would be happy make others happy. Don't neglect to do a kindness when an opportunity comes to you.

It matters not where you may be, whether on your own threshold or beneath the sky of a foreign land, ever remember that by being friendly you are making some soul happier, lightening a hidden burden, doing your bit to brighten the world, and in doing it becoming healthier and sweeter yourself.

Of all felicities friendship is the most charming.

It eases cares, dispels sorrows and makes for salvation of souls.

It becomes an inspiration to you when the days are dark—a divine joy that all the wealth of the world cannot buy.

There are people everywhere whose hearts are hungry for appreciation and sympathy. Help them through the mazes where naught but briars grow. Strew o'er their rugged way the flowers of friendship and clasp them by the hand.

Pour sunshine into their hearts and see the new light that comes into their dull eyes and the smile that plays about their lips.

Some writer has said that "pure friendship is something which men of an inferior nature can never taste."

Euripides tells us, "It is a good

NEVER BORROW TIME

YOU can replace a borrowed ten dollars, little the worse for the borrowing.

You cannot replace a borrowed hour, for that particular hour will never come to you again.

The amount of money a man can make is limited only by his energy and acquisitive ability, which is otherwise known as his financial genius.

The amount of time he has, has a definite limit. The billionaire has no more of it than the longshoreman—usually not nearly so much.

When you put off today's job till tomorrow you are borrowing time from yourself, which is a very dangerous practice.

Today's job has got to be done sometime. You can do it better in the time in which it was intended to be done than in the time that belongs to tomorrow's job.

The time borrower is always behindhand. His work accumulates until much of it must be left undone.

His affairs become involved for lack of time to attend to them. For that borrowed time is gone. There is no power on earth that can restore it to you.

To take for idleness the time that ought to be devoted to work is borrowing either from tomorrow's work or tonight's recreation. The recreation is as important as the work. You have no right to borrow the time that should be given it.

Apportion your time carefully. If you are the average sort of a person you consume about three times as much of it as you need for a given amount of work.

SOME GOOD THINGS TO EAT.

IF THERE are any old-fashioned members of the family still present they will enjoy

Drop Cakes.

Take one-half cupful of softened butter, add one cupful of sugar, beat well, add one beaten egg, two cupfuls of flour, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of sour cream, two and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half cupful of sour cream; mix well and drop spoonfuls on a baking sheet. Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a moderate oven.

Spiced Tongue.

Take a fresh calf's tongue, drop it

thing to be rich, and a good thing to be strong, but it is a better thing to be beloved of many friends."

It is by friendship that we must strive to battle for truth and righteousness. All departures from friendliness takes to coldness and strife. Consider what the world would be if all the nations of earth were friendly! It was through friendship that the souls of men were redeemed!

Think what it would mean for the peace, contentment, security and prosperity of the people, if they dwelled in amity, unconcerned about war, enjoying quiet homes with their loved ones, with never a doubt about their neighbors and never a thought of the jealousies or the evil ambitions of the countries beyond the sea!

Neither the rich nor the poor, nor the high nor the low can partake of the full blessings of life without friendship. We cannot get the best within the world without giving the best within us.

And this excellent thing, this divine essence that exalts men and women, takes them to the very gates of heaven and stirs the fountain of good within their souls,—is nothing more or less than simple friendship.

SCHOOL DAYS

Use it intensively, and get all the work into it that can be packed there. Use every hour effectively, either in work or play. But never borrow any of it ahead. Never put a mortgage on the hours of tomorrow or of next week.

And, being careful not to borrow any of your own time, be just as careful not to borrow any time that belongs to others, by dropping into offices for idle chats, or interrupting them when they are at work.

Time is the one thing in the world with a fixed limit. That which is borrowed is lost, and none of us have so much that we can lose it without disastrous consequences.

LYRICS OF LIFE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THE VERY WISE.

WE ARE the wise, the very wise Who have no need of God; We understand His seas, His skies,

His sunset and His sod, There is no magic in a rose, Its petals pulled apart, For we explain just how it grows With scientific art. And yet no man I ever knew Could tell me how the first one grew.

We are the wise, the very wise— All things we understand; It is no trick to analyze And give them breed and brand. We know the distances of night From Pleiades to Mars, And we can measure all the light Of all the shining stars. And yet, I wonder, could we place A single star in all of space?

We are the wise, the very wise, No need of God have we. We know man lives, we know man dies—

The rest is mystery. And, since we cannot comprehend, No more may hope to know. We say that death must be the end And nothing more is so. It seems to me, mere manikins, Our knowledge ends where God's begins.

Considerations of Weight.
"Yond' Cassius has a lean and hungry look!" declared Caesar.
"Maybe we'd better take a chance on him at that," interrupted Anthony in a whisper. "You know, nobody loves a fat man."

To enjoy abounding health you must become enthusiastically "outdoor" minded.

Avoid extremes—a man can go crazy even on religion.

Sick-headache? Mrs. Moss gives Good Advice for Young Women

Lynchburg, Va.—"When I was developing into womanhood I was troubled with constipation. Each month I suffered and would go into convulsions (possibly caused by congestion of all the organs). I suffered in that way for six or eight months and then my mother started to give me Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. It seemed like no time at all before I was relieved of all congestion and sick-headaches, which were so bad at times that I just thought I would die. Since that time I have had absolutely no discomfort, convulsions or sick-headaches, and I give the little 'Pellets' all the credit in the world for my present good health."—Mrs. Carrie Moss, 2017 Main St.
