

JUST GOSSIP

Mrs. Lee Jacoby was hostess to the Schubert Choir Club at her home, 15 S. Washington Avenue, last Monday evening. Beside the business meeting, there was given a delightful program by the various members. Mrs. Jacoby's home is especially well adapted to musical entertainment—you remember how much everyone enjoyed the recital given there not very long ago. During the business session, plans for the recital which the club gave the next evening at the Central M. E. Church were completed, and before the evening was over, Mrs. Jacoby served refreshments.

This is the program which was given the following night:

- PART I
1. Piano Duet—"Martha"Flotow
Wayne Redfield and John Truex
 2. Contralto Solo—"Deep in Your Eyes"Jacobi
Mrs. Jacoby
 3. Harp Solo—"Caprice"Nicoletti

Bingey, Mrs. Sara Ritter, Mrs. Mahala Mason, Miss Ethel Pedrick, Misses Mabel and Nellie Pauley, Mrs. Pauley, Miss Mary Jacoby, Miss Remalda Conover, Miss Elsie Carr, Elmer Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Warke, Jr., Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. John Truex, Mr. Wayne Redfield.

Last evening at seven o'clock in the Chelsea-Ventnor Church, a quiet wedding was performed by Dr. Edwin Forrest Hann. He united Miss Beatrice Shafer, of Camden, and Mr. Merrill Ernst, of Salem, two of his former parishioners. Only a few of the intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, and these, together with the young couple, motored to the shore yesterday morning. Mrs. Ernst is the daughter of the late Dr. William Shafer, and the sister of Dr. William Shafer, Jr., who is practicing medicine in Camden, N. J.

Miss Marion Hudson Brown has been entertaining Miss Nora Stirling, of the "Connie Goes Home" company, during this past week. On Tuesday evening, another member of the company, Miss Audrey Hart, who took the part of Josephine Pierce, joined the young women at dinner. Miss Brown played last season with the "World We Live In" company, and the season before that with Chauncey Olcott in "Ragged Robin," but she is at present resting at her home, 16 S. Rosborough Avenue.

Miss Anna Williams, the President of the Board of Education, is now living at 119 N. Rosborough Avenue, having leased her cottage on Ventnor Avenue for the summer. Miss Verna Williams, who is spending her vacation with her sister, goes up every day to the University of Pennsylvania, where she is taking an advance course of study. During the winter, Miss Verna is an instructor in the Harrisburg High School.

Mrs. Etta Van Praag, whose home is at Huntington, Long Island, is spending a couple of months with her niece, Mrs. Phoebe Gold, at Mrs. Gold's home, 5409 Ventnor Avenue. When she leaves Ventnor, Mrs. Van Praag will make a tour of the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Borck are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Marshall, who are spending the summer months at 6 N. Baltimore Avenue. Overbrook claims the Marshalls during the winter.

Others of the Overbrook delegation who have come to the shore for the summer are Mr. and Mrs. George J. De Armond. They are living at 111 S. Victoria Avenue, and have as guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Keyser De Armond.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fox and their niece, Dolly Bollen, have moved from their winter home at 23 N. Nashville Avenue to 5707 Winchester. The Foxes are very well known in Ventnor, and Dolly is one of the most popular of our younger set.

Mrs. M. J. Kelly has changed her address for the coming season from 5251 Winchester Avenue to 7973 Atlantic, Margate Park.

On Monday, the twenty-fifth, Mr. James Ferguson and his family opened their Ventnor home at 5404 Winchester Avenue. Their winter residence is in Philadelphia, 4236 Larchwood Avenue.

Philadelphia has temporarily lost another of its residents to Ventnor in William C. Carman, who is now living at 6 S. Hillside Avenue, having closed his
