Spring Ailments.

There is an aching and tired feeling, the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything, and a feeling that the whole body and mind need toning up. The trouble is that during winter there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at J. P. Byron & Son.

Columbus Items.

H. M. Patterson shipped 30 cars of two year old heifers from the Triangle Ranch in Mexico to Colorado. They were trailed up by Charles McDon one of the old timers.

C. A. Turner the popular and good looking agent at Columbus is a hustler he has diverted from the Sierra Madre R. R. three train loads of cattle and says he will have more for the E. P. & S. W. before the season is over. He would make a good F. & P. agent.

Educational Lecture.

Professor D. M. Richards, of the New Mexico College of Agriculture at Las Cruces, delivered an address before the teacher's institute of Luna county, at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening.

Prof. Richards is an able educator and a good talker. His address dealing with the questions of the day as regards popular education was pointed and strong. The ideals to be sought after by educators were discussed in a vivid and interesting manner, and the whole discussion was of special value to persons interested in the public school system as well as special institutions for instruction.

Prof. Richards is a very genial gentleman and made an excellent impression while in town.

Assault by Unknown Men.

Samuel Slaughter was badly clubbed and beaten by two men unknown to him at the Seventy Six Ranch in this County on last Thursday.

Mr. Slaughter, it appears, was at the Seventy Six Ranch on his way to the Round up, and in the employ of Robert Herrington, when the two men rode up to the Ranch and made Mr. Slaughter's horse break loose: Mr.

Slaughter then asked them something about the Round-up: The men then asked Slaughter who he was working for, and when told that he was working for Herrington, the men cursed Slaughter and Herrington, and wanted to know of Slaughter if he had not been warned not to work for Herrington: Slaughter said that he had not; that he had a large family; had lately come to the country, and had to work wherever he could get a job, and moreover that he would work for whoever he pleased to work for: at this the men became infuriated, and one of them drew his six shooter while the other man beat and bruised Mr. Slaughter very severely with a Club.

Mr. Slaughter came to town and had a warrant issued for the men: he does not know the names of the men, but gave a description of them so that they may be apprehended by the Sheriff.

This kind of business is much to be regretted by all good citizens who are interested in the welfare of the County, and the stock business.

After the above was set up, Sheriff Foster returned stating that as the names of the men could not be learned and no accurate description given by which to identify them he was unable to make any arrest.

Police Court News.

The only business of note in the justice court during the past week was brought in from the adjoining precinct, Cooks, the judge of that precinct being absent. On the 6th A. Wallis preferred a charge against Bob Aslop of larceny of a lot of hay, about $300 worth, and nearly all the prominent people from the McDaniel's settlement and Florida brought in as witnesses. Bob waived examination and was held to the grand jury.

Wallis also instituted proceedings to have Aslop placed under a peace bond, and Aslop retaliated by doing the same thing for Wallis, Wallis promptly gave the bond but Aslop demanded a trial, which came off Saturday. The prosecution failed to put in an appearance, and after taking the testimony of the defense, all of which went to show Bob wouldn't even hurt a kitten knowingly, the judge dismissed the case.

While the larceny case was on it was discovered Mr. Wallis had a gun concealed in his clothes, and he was promptly assessed by the judge $50.00 and costs, which was paid without a protest.

The Colonel's Son.

On next Saturday evening, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, whose lodge is located in Silver City, to which some of our best business men belong, propose to present here a very pretty drama, entitled The Colonel's Son. The Silver City papers are loud in their praise of the manner in which this play was presented in Silver, and those who attend Saturday night will probably witness the best show of the season. The "Elks" are noted for their charity without ostentation, and those attending their show will have satisfaction of contributing their mite to a good cause as well as enjoying a delightful evening. Tickets now on sale at Byron's and other places.
