The Navajo agent should caution his charges against stealing horses. The Navajo has behaved well for a long time.

The Denver Times in an article with the pleasant title, "Business is Improving," says, "Everybody knows the general business is picking up all over the country and that Colorado is sharing in the benefits of returning prosperity."

The subject of varied crops in this district has been written on in papers frequently. It has again been brought before us by several gentlemen while chatting on the necessity of varied farming here and the necessity of not depending upon the one staple production of fruit.

The bar association of New Mexico is now a Republican organization. It is an extremely pronounced Republican organization too; that is, if the tents of the Republican party from the standpoint of New Mexican Republicanism are taken into consideration.

The literary Saturday night was well attended and the exercises quite good. "Resolved, that the full right of suffrage be extended to women," was decided in the affirmative.

continuance, a dominant power, an overbearing, bullying, unprincipled, bribing, autocratic dictatorship, influencing that party in this territory, degrading it from a national party to the lowest level of the lowest gang, forcing it into iniquity, staining it with blood, its escutcheon the "bloody hand," its record the law of the brayo, a perverted legislature and a corrupted judiciary.

Last Saturday evening we attended the meeting of the literary club held in the Presbyterian church. The parts taken showed considerable talent, and a most instructive and amusing entertainment was provided for a large number of guests.

La Plata. Special Correspondence. LA PLATA, Nov. 12.—News from these parts is about as scarce as hen's teeth this week. We understand that they have so much fruit at Farmington that they can't get enough teams in that neighborhood to haul it off.
