PLAN TO COMPEL SENATE TO HALT DEBATE ON FOOD BILL THIS WEEK

Senator Chamberlain Will Offer Motion Today Invoking Cloture Rule; Sixteen Members Sign Motion.

PREDICT FAILURE UNTIL PROHIBITION FIGHT ENDS

Many Say That Two-thirds Vote Necessary to Enforce Cloture Rule Can Not Be Obtained Until Then.

Washington, July 2.—Controversy in the senate over the food control and its prohibition feature reached such an acute stage today that formal steps were taken by administration leaders to limit debate and force a final vote this week by invoking, for the first time, the senate's new cloture rule.

Within half an hour many more than the necessary sixteen senators' signatures to a cloture motion were secured. Senator Chamberlain, in charge of the bill, announced to the senate later that he would offer the motion tomorrow and ask for a vote upon it Thursday.

Both Sides Predict Victory.

Many senators say that until the prohibition issue is settled the necessary two-thirds vote for cloture cannot be secured. Others point out, however, that the vote on shutting off debate at least "will show up" on record those in favor of expediting the bill as desired by the president.

FEAR A CHINESE CIVIL WAR THAT WOULD DESTROY REPUBLICANISM

Chang Hsun's Stroke Discourages Washington Officials Who Believed China's Troubles Were Ended.

HIS SUCCESS DOUBTFUL, BELIEF OF DIPLOMATS

Bitterness Against Manchus, It Is Said at Chinese Legation, Is Stumbling Block for General.

Washington, July 2.—Gen. Chang Hsun's sudden coup d'etat to destroy republican government in China and restore the Manchu dynasty has produced a discouraging shock among officials here who believed China's internal troubles were at an end.

Open civil war is feared between Chang Hsun's followers and the Manchu supporters on one hand and the northern republicans and the united south on the other.

Chinese legation and state department officials alike expressed great surprise at the development. At the legation it was suggested that while Chang might have secured support among the military governors for a purely military movement, the widespread bitterness against the Manchus will make final success very doubtful.

RUSSIAN THRUST TAKES PRISONER 10,000 MEN AND CAPTURES TOWN

Revolutionary Army Seizes Village of Konichy and Pushes Beyond Place, Fortified Positions Fall.

ARTILLERY REAWAKENS; PLAYS IMPORTANT PART

Rain of Steel Projectiles Poured Into German Positions for Two Days; No Marked Activity in West.

Prisoners exceeding 10,000 and the capture of the village of Konichy and strongly fortified positions southwest of Brzezany are the first fruits of the new offensive movement of the Russian forces in eastern Galicia; north of Konichy the Russians have attacked and fresh battles are in progress.

The Russian artillery, long inactive from lack of shells, played an important part of the defeat of the Austro-Germans at Konichy. For two days a rain of iron was thrown into the German positions and Berlin says officially that they were turned into a crater field.

Around Brzezany the fighting was most bitter and Berlin claims that sixteen Russian divisions were thrown forward. The Russians carried the fortified Teuton positions at several points in the face of a desperate resistance by Austrian, German and Turkish troops.

FIRE NEGROES' HOUSES AND KILL THEM FLEEING

Fifteen Men Shot as They Run From Burning Homes by East St. Louis Mobs That Started Fires.

BELIEVE MANY BLACKS PERISHED IN FLAMES

Military Rule Is Proclaimed and 300 White Men Are Arrested and Locked Up; National Guards on Duty.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 2.—Fires were burning in five parts of East St. Louis at 1 o'clock this morning and at least twenty dead negro bodies and crowded hospitals testified to the terror that reigned here last night.

The same lack of push has characterized all the German attacks recently along the line stretching from the eastward of Soissons to Verdun. Evidently the enemy, after his recent defeat in the Champagne, feels the need of local successes in order to encourage the men, who, according to prisoners, are greatly depressed. It is comparatively easy for them to concentrate many heavy guns at any given point and thus drive the French out of small sectors.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 2.—At least fifteen negroes were shot and killed by mobs here tonight as they fled from their burning homes which had been set on fire by white mobs. A number are believed to have perished in the burning homes.
