KEEN foresight is a trait that all you successful business men possess. That's why it is that you today know what most people will not realize for several months.

In your business you feel the effect of restricted material and transportation. You know that the same conditions are affecting the clothesmaker, plus the fact that the Government is using a large part of his raw material.

In all probability you will need new clothes soon. Maybe you ought to have them right now but have not got around to it.

You will save money if you buy Society Brand Clothes today. It may be years before really good, dependable and stylish clothes like these can be had at present prices. Obviously the best clothes will be gone first. Don't hoard clothes, but get your Society Brand suit or overcoat while you may.
