Wilson-Marshall Club Organized.

Monday night, the 9th, was a stormy, unpleasant night, but a number of Kenna and Valley View democrats met at the City Hall according to announcement and organized a Wilson-Marshall Club, with D. C. Savage, President; W. J. Stobb, Vice-President; A. G. Pirtle, Secretary. The meeting was an enthusiastic one in which several real political speeches were delivered.

There was some time given to the discussion of the mode and plans by which the club can best assist in the present campaign for Wilson for president and the election of the entire democratic state and county ticket, after which they adjourned to meet next Monday night at 7:30, Oct. 16th. All democrats are invited to come and unite with the Club.

The record of Wilson and Democracy for the last four years is a powerful plea for the verdict of mankind, and for a favorable verdict from the American people at the polls in November.

Mexican Problem An Inheritance.

uting editor, had an editorial calling attention to "the anti-American demonstrations which have lately taken place in Mexico," in which "great student demonstrations were made, mobs broke windows in buildings occupied by Americans, attacked street cars containing Americans."

On March 25, 1911, the Outlook said that "events in Mexico are very confusing" and on April 22, it declared that Mexico presented a serious state of affairs."

It was on April 29, 1911, that Senator Stone, a Democrat, insisted that President Taft be authorized to employ whatever force might be necessary to restore order in Mexico. Senator Root, now one of President Wilson's most bitter critics, said that a threat of force would be "to reverse the policy of the United States and take a step backward in the path of civilization." Senator Lodge, Republican, and another bitter critic of the Wilson administration, said that President Taft would not ask for force until our diplomatic methods had failed.

It was on April 29, 1911, during the Taft administration, that the New York American (Hearst's) said "through a lag-gard and chicken-hearted president, American threats of intervention have become the laughing stock of the insurgents and regulars alike."

It was in February, 1913, during the Taft administration that the New York American (Hearst's) referring to the Mexican situation, said "One hundred or more of American citizens have been slain" and it asked "Does anyone think that Germany would have endured this outrage for a day? Does any man believe that English warships would not already be bombarding Vera Cruz for a similar outrage upon English citizens?"

The Mexican situation under the Taft administration was so serious that in its issue of Sept. 21, 1912, the Baton Rouge, La., Times said: "The American flag is only a rag in Mexico." El Paso, Texas, and other border papers expressed similar sentiments.

All of which goes to show that the Mexican problem is an American problem rather than a Democratic problem and that it was as much a problem under Hughes as under Wilson or Taft.
