MRS. MYRA O. DE FREES ANNOUNCES FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Mrs. De Frees needs no introduction to the citizens of Harding County, having filled the office for the past year very successfully and with credit not only to herself but the whole of Harding County, notwithstanding she took charge of her duties in the New County in its infancy. She has been on the job at all times and has discharged her duties with justice and fairness to all, regardless of nationality, politics and religion. She has placed the County high up the ladder educationally by her untiring efforts, until it is one of the leading Counties Educationally in the state. She is imbued with an abundance of push, vim and pep, characteristics which are indispensable in an educator, and leader.

She is an economist, and has worked for the interest of the County in her many transactions where money has been involved, but not to the disparagement of the interest of education, of which is our chief concern. Her experience in the merchantile business has given her a clear insight as to the purchasing power of the dollar. She has demonstrated this to the County by the wisdom she has displayed in handling the County Funds.

She has the community spirit, the desire and needs of the people at heart. She deserves a chance to carry out the plans she has so nobly introduced for the building up of a strong educational center in Harding County.

Mrs. De Frees is one of the best educated persons in the County and her past work assures success for the Harding County Schools for another two years if she be re-elected to the office, and I believe the County can do no better than return her to this important position.

Mrs De Frees received her education in the State Normal University at Bloomington, Illinois. She came to this state shortly after the death of her husband eight years ago and began her work in the public schools of this State. She has specialized in primary and special school methods and the great success of her work as teacher is ample proof of her ability to over see the work in our public schools.

She has two children, a daughter Hazel and a son Rollie. Mrs De Frees is worthy of the office and I as a friend solicit the support and co-operation of the citizens of Harding County for her.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TEXAS-NEW MEXICO HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION MOVING ALONG NICELY

The different committees report that everything is moving along nicely as rapidly as could be expected for the entertainment of the Texas-New Mexico Highway meeting which convenes here September 25 and 26th. Several minor matters have to be threshed out, especially for the arrangement of the program and the securing of more finances, so a mass meeting has been called for Saturday night to settle this part of the program.

It is expected to have the program copy to the press Monday and they will be printed the first of the week and distributed to the various towns along the route of the Highway by the latter part of the week.

Word has been received from various towns indicate that a record breaking attendance will be found at the meeting. Secretary Warrender and President T. E. Mchell have already transmitted the business part of the program to the press and it is now in the hands of the printer. The Publicity Director Mr Boswell of Plainview, Texas is already on the job and is giving the convention all the publicity possible in the press of New Mexico and western Texas.

The Texas-New Mexico Highway is bound to become one of the leading Highways of New Mexico and Texas. The route has been surveyed the greater portion of the way from Plainview to Taos and passes thru the most scenic part of the state of New Mexico, including the great Eagle Nest Dam, the beautiful Cimarron, noted for wonderful fishing, the Taos playground and numerous other resorts that will soon be known thruout the whole United States. Part of the Highway has already been rock-surfaced and within two or three years the whole route will be treated likewise.

A complete list of the speakers who will be present will be announced in a few days but we are assured of some of the best and most notable men of the state to address the convention. Don't forget that a big banquet on Monday night and that big barbacue on Tuesday. Oh yes, M. Dora will probably come down for the two days and bring with them their wonderful ball team and try to give Roy another thrashing or take one themselves; yes there will be horse races and other amusements, not a quiet minute during either day, and then at night comes the big dances. Commence now to making your arrangements to be present at this wonderful meeting, Roy is looking for you and we expect to see you.

Miss Irene Nowlin left Monday to assume her duties as teacher of the Independence district school.

W. Fred Ogden left last week on a touring trip and will visit many interesting towns in eastern New Mexico and southern Colorado, before reaching his destination in Denver. Fred had converted his car into a real camp car and was well-equipped to camp out, and he will no doubt have an enjoyable trip. He reports that he attended the Pope revival at Clayton the latter part of the week.

Miss Lola Newman of Solano, took charge of our school last Tuesday and we are wishing her much success in our midst.

The Liberty Union S. S. is progressing very nicely; W. Fred Ogden's resignation and leaving us, caused a vacancy in our school that we regretted, but have been fortunate in electing Mr. Hugh Mitchell as Superintendent and we believe that he will be a very efficient leader. Last Sunday we had an attendance of 56, and there is much interest in the class work.

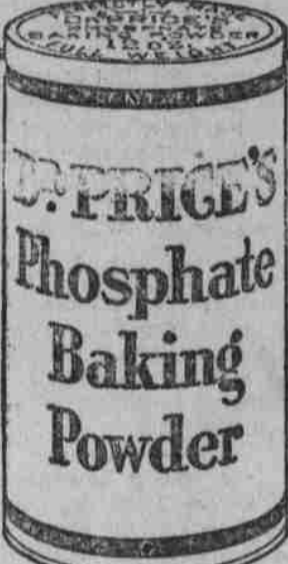

Everyone is cordially invited to become a member of our Sunday school which meets at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

The Young People's Meeting of this community, which was organized the week following Rev. Price's revival is going along nicely. Mr. D. P. Moore was our first leader and a fine meeting is reported. Mr. Casper Jackson lead us last Sunday evening, with "Faith" as our subject and carried the services on very credit.

ably. Mr. Joe Woodward will be the leader next Sunday evening with "Prayer" for the evening's subject.
