Attorney W. C. Reid, of Roswell, it is believed, will succeed Hon. Geo. W. Pritchard as Attorney General of the Territory. Mr. Reid is a lawyer of considerable ability and a warm friend of Governor Hagerman.

There was a freight wreck in the yards here Thursday at eleven o'clock in which four cars were pretty badly demolished. The cars were empty or about so and there was little loss entailed outside of the cars themselves. The cause was, well, they were just jammed together and piled up in a heap. There was no officers killed or privates in the melee.

Stock Sales.

I have some good stock for sale. Sales will be conducted at my livery barn in Tucumcari on the first and second Mondays of each month, beginning with February 5th. It will pay parties wishing to buy good stock to attend these sales.
