

Local and Personal

Geo. Wise got the $65.00 saddle at the M. B. Goldenberg Co's.

E. Morales, a saloon man of Logan, was here several days.

The District Court for this place will convene the 4th Monday in April.

County Commissioner T. A. Wayne spent the day here Wednesday.

Wm. Browning has moved out to his homestead to prepare to put in a crop.

County Commissioner Hendren was in town Tuesday attending to business matters.

O. M. Connelly, manager of the Three Ts Ranch, was in from Puerto Wednesday.

Oscar Smith is moving to his claim near town for the purpose of putting in a crop.

W. H. Moore is hauling lumber out to his homestead this week to build a new residence.

Ed Ellis' horse fell on him Tuesday, and he came out of the melée with a shoulder dislocated.

James Bell, a ranchman and deputy sheriff from Endee, was in town for supplies Wednesday.

Donald Stewart sold his fine buggy mare last week to B. Clayton, the consideration being $100.

Dr. W. C. Klutz went to Alamogordo Thursday to assist the hospital force for two or three weeks.

Mark B. Fowler says his business has been good all winter, but is better this month than heretofore.

E. Gallegos, a prominent citizen of Union County, was down Wednesday buying supplies from M. B. Fowler.

District Attorney M. C. Mechem went south Thursday to Santa Rosa and El Paso on professional business.

Wall paper for sale at Campbell's.

Casimero Romero, a stockman of Endee, was in town for ranch supplies Thursday.

I am selling Victor Coal. Just received two cars.

M. B. Fowler, Supt. of Schools, Milner Rudolph, spent Thursday in town.

Whoever has "Castle Crancrow" please return. S. C. Campbell.

Morgan & Grubbs are building an eleven room house on their claim east of town. A sort of palatial residence, that.

C. P. Jones, of Santa Rosa, who bought real estate here some time ago, was in town a day or two looking after his interests.

E. R. Ricks and wife were in town Tuesday from Puerto. He lost several horses lately, stolen from his ranch near Puerto.

L. W. Barrett, who came here recently from Kansas, has located a homestead near Puerto. He was in town Tuesday for supplies.

R. B. Hallock, a Santa Rosa transfer man, was here several days looking over the country. He may decide to locate here.

Donald Stewart, manager for the Gross, Kelly people for Tucumcari and Logan, went to the latter place Tuesday to look after company business.

W. A. McCargar, father of our fellow townsman, Geo. McCarger, returned home to Indianapolis, Ind., Tuesday after visiting his son for three weeks.

Will White, son of N. White, who lives near town, has traded his property in Stewart, Okla., for Tucumcari property and will move here right away. He traded with Geo. Miller.

THE M. B. GOLDENBERG CO.

THE ONE PRICE MERCHANTS

All goods marked in plain figures.

All winter goods must be closed out at once, regardless of cost.

New arrivals daily in Gingham, Lawns and Ladies' Dress Goods.

Most complete line of merchandise in this part of the Territory.

The M. B. Goldenberg Co.

THE ONE PRICE MERCHANTS

W. T. NICHOLSON

General Blacksmithing and Wood Work.

HORSE SHOEING A SPECIALTY.

Main Street - - - - - Tucumcari, N. M.

The Glenmore

Cor. 9th St. and Delaware Ave.
Alamogordo, New Mexico

Rooms by the day, week or month--Electric Lights. Bath, hot and cold.....

Phone 52

M. A. GRIFFIN, - Prop.

Mrs. S. C. Campbell and Mrs. James Daughtry spent Wednesday in the country, guests of Mr. Daughtry's parents.

Frank Farwell, Channing, Tex., is attending to Jackson-Galbraith-Foxworth Co's lumber business during the absence of T. H. Sanders in Alamogordo and El Paso for a few days.

N. White is putting out an orchard. He will set about fifty trees to begin with and later he intends to increase it to several hundred. His farm is about six miles southwest of town.

Very cold weather has prevailed this week in the northern Mississippi Valley country. We have had about an inch of ice here in northeast New Mexico, but the days have been warm with plenty of sunshine.

W. J. Hittson went out to the cemetery Thursday to put tombstones on his baby's grave.

A. A. and B. K. James, formerly of this place, were in Thursday from the Stake Plains on business.

At the Quarterly Conference held here by Rev. J. T. French, W. H. Oyler was licensed as Exhorter.

M. B. Lloyd and C. R. Kelsay, young men of the new neighborhood 12 miles south of town, were here for supplies Thursday.

S. C. Pandolfo has purchased the Blankenship homestead, the consideration being $800. The place is just south of town on the Quay road, and is easily worth $2,000. We doubt if Pandolfo would sell it for that.