THE Yankee nation in the rumpus over the loss of two fishing amegs that the aggressive Canucks have laid violent hands on remains, as usual, serene and smiling and allows all the rest of the country to make wretched utterances, having a suggestion therein that somebody ought to be whipped, etc.

THE republican party in congress has a brilliant (?) record to place before the people on the matter of taxation. The senate has already stood god-father during this session to the educational bill, appropriating $70,000,000, a new pension measure, which will add, according to its author, from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 annually to the pension list, besides over 300 private bills of the same order.

WHENEVER the newspapers of central New Mexico are in a hole for something to write about, they at once bring forth the ancient and decayed topic, "An uprising among the Navajos," and in a weary, forced manner attempt to pour upon their readers the notion that New Mexico is just on the verge of a great Indian war, with the Navajo nation as the principal belligerent.

THE reorganization of the bureau of immigration which Governor Ross has just effected by the announcement of the new members thereof, will be received with satisfaction by the people of the territory. San Miguel county is represented in the board by three first-class men, and the attention is given to the duties of the bureau by its members, which it demands, and can be so great.

THE bureau of immigration has a fine chance to do the territory of world of good. In order to accomplish what the people expect of them, the meeting of the bureau should not be too infrequently held. Ideas of a practical nature come to the front and be pushed to practical effect.

JUST now the public wonders whether when Grover Cleveland softly repeats to himself that beautiful line of Horace, he quotes that original verse or the transmutation employed by Thackeray to describe Lady Emond, Dowry, when "Quasi pulchra Billa pulchrior!" Or this: "O mater pulchra Billa pulchrior!" In other words, does his musing of the mother or the daughter? Only the zephyrs, and perhaps Dan Lambert can know.
