WANTED—A waiter at the Snug restaurant. Apply immediately.
Flower pots can be had at Pat Young's Center street grocery dirt cheap.
For the purest liquors in the city and the most palatable mixed drinks, go to the Arcade saloon, Railroad avenue.
Go at once to Sloan & Wen's and buy some of that nice May Kansas butter, by the pair at 16c or larger lots at 15c per pound.
The finest ice cream in the city is to be had at the parlors of Mesdames Bromagen & Wilson, next door to the Farmers hotel.
Leave orders for ice at Leon & Co.'s west side, and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office on east side.
MONTEZUMA ICE CO.
Families can be supplied with porter, ale, beer, wines and fine champagne at McDonald's, in the Givens block, on Rridge street. Also fine brandies and 75 whiskies.
Three little maids from school are we, filled to the brim with girlish glee; The cause of our joy is plainly seen, Our mothers own a "White Machine."
The ladies relief society will meet at Mrs. Malboen's Tuesday, June 1, 1936. A full attendance is urged as arrangements for the lecture by Colonel Scott will be made.
Families desiring pies, cakes and homemade bread can have their orders filled by leaving them the evening before at the ice cream parlors of Mesdames Bromagen & Wilson.
The ladies of the relief society have obtained the consent of Colonel Scott to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the society next Thursday evening, June 3d, at the Baptist church.
Cherries, gooseberries, currants, bananas, oranges, all fresh and in abundance, are received daily at Hoffa's, on Rridge street. A full line of fruits kept constantly on hand. Patronize this reliable and long established house.
F. L. Strauss, the Plaza dry goods merchant, is just introducing a new and beautiful stock of lions' baizes, satens, percales, embroidered dresses, laces and white goods, which he offers at very low prices.
W. H. Wyman is agent for the Victor, the Wheeler & Wilson, the Chicago Singer, the long arm genuine Singer, and the White, the king of all sewing machines. He also keeps constantly in stock attachments for all the sewing machines made.
An entertainment will be given by the children of the Kindergarten school under the supervision of Miss Clara Gerlanger, on Monday evening, May 31st., at the Las Vegas academy. Admission 25 cents. The fan drill will be a special feature of the entertainment.
Notice of Round-Up.
Owing to the poor condition of cattle through lack of water and grass, the round-up of the Bell range is put off until such time as cattle shall be in condition to be worked, when notice will be given.

Fountain for the Plaza—Base Ball—Church Announcements—And Other Matters of Minor Moment Suitable for Sunday Reading.

As Monday is a legal holiday the banks will be closed.
The post office will observe Sunday hours on Monday. Mail can be gotten only from 9 to 10 a. m.
ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL—Services at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. with ten minute sermons by Dr. Cross.
The Blue Lodge of A. F. & A. M. will meet on Monday night; work in the E. A. degree; three candidates.
The thanks of THE GAZETTE composing room are returned to Grayson & Co., for kind remembrances.

Our banks are not receiving Canada silver coin at its face value, but are charging a discount of 50 per cent.
The alarm of fire last night was caused by a slight blaze in the roof of Postmaster Labadie's house in northwest Las Vegas.
The two boys who were up before Justice Ulbricht for breaking in the door of Philpitt Ledger's house were cleared of all criminal intent.

The suits for the railroad men have arrived from the east. Some of them were on the streets last night in all their glory of new blue and brass.
This afternoon there will be a match game of ball between THE GAZETTE and a picked nine of city lads. The game will be played at the usual place on the east side.
A. M. E. CHURCH—Services will be held today at the skating rink at 3 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. Rev. Jas. H. Hubbard, presiding elder, will officiate. All are cordially invited.

The busiest scene witnessed by a GAZETTE reporter for many a day, could have been seen last evening at the Golden Rule. The Lewis boys will welcome the day of rest.
Robert Hobson, of Carrollton, Ill., a nephew of Wm. Sowerby, who died this week at the Springs, is in the city making arrangements for the transportation of the body to his former home.
Mr. Slattery, manager of the Bell ranch, gives notice that owing to the poor condition of cattle on that range, he does not wish any outfits to work over that range until further notice is given.

On Monday night a Kindergarten exhibition will be given at the academy by Miss Gerlanger's infantile school. This is something new in Las Vegas, and a hearty encouragement is asked of the public.
J. J. Fitzgerald has gone out to the ranch of the Pecos Park Cattle Co., in which he is interested. This company last week received an addition to their cattle of 300 head, and as rapidly as opportunity offers will make further additions.
First M. E. CHURCH—There will be services at M. E. church today as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Memorial sermon at 11 a. m., and lecture entitled: "The Locusts," in the symbols of Revelations, at 7:30 p. m.
G. W. Hartman, Sac Miguel, was on Friday night presented by his wife with a fine ten-pound boy. The young gentleman begins his career as a citizen of Las Vegas and the GAZETTE wishes him a long, prosperous and useful life.
H. W. Wyman has just received a large invoice of the White sewing machines. It is the most handsome piece of furniture in the way of a machine this reporter ever saw, and will fill the ladies with covetousness. Let all see them before purchasing elsewhere.

The Spanish Dramatic company will give another entertainment on Friday night at Felix Papa's hall. The leading play, a drama, three acts, is called, "The Gambler's Family." The scene is laid in Guadalajara, and the author is a native of Mexico. This will be followed by three comic pieces.
The new water pipes have been laid in the southern part of the city, and Monday the work of laying the mains will be begun in the northern part. This will be good news to many families, who heretofore have been compelled to obtain their supplies of water by the barrel-full from the water cart.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH—Services of the Congregational church in the hall, Wyman's block, at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Subject in the morning, appropriate to Decoration Day, "The Good Fight." In the evening, "John B. Gough." Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. All are very cordially invited. Rev. C. B. Sumner will preside.
We wonder if it was Senator S. W. Dorsey before he left for Europe, or Colonel J. W. Dwyer, after a recent issue of "The Stockman," who gave the new suit of clothes to Colonel, Justice of the Peace and Editor of "The Stockman" Sturges, that he wore last evening as he passed through our city. We merely wonder, that is all.

The Plaza hotel has been turned over into the possession of the board of directors. Mr. Kihlberg has been placed in charge. The laundry room and the rear entrances to the hotel itself, have all been closed. For the present rooms will be let, but the main purpose will be to thoroughly overhaul, cleanse and repair the premises, and put it in order to be conducted as a first class hotel.
Interesting reading will be found on the first page of this issue. A letter has been intercepted from a Las Vegas young lady to a confidential friend, in which some society matters are presented from that standpoint for which Burns sighed when he sang, "O wad some power the gifts gie us, to see ourselves as others see us." THE GAZETTE will endeavor to intercept yet other productions of the same gifted pen.

There is a project on foot to purchase a fountain for the Plaza park. That it would be an attraction to this already most attractive place in our city, all must admit. The sound of water flowing over a pebbly bed, is one of the most soothing and refreshing which nature knows. A fountain and grotto in the park would make it a place of poetic dreaming, to which the tired tradesman, the weary woman, the loitering lover—every one, in a word—would gladly resort for rest and mental refreshment. Let us have it by all means; and, as it must be purchased by private contribution, it is to be hoped that those most deeply interested will be liberal in their donations.

PERSONAL
Items Concerning People and Their Doings.
Miss Mary Jold leaves for Europe this morning.
Charles B. Gross came down from Fort Union last night.
A little child of A. J. Mendenhall's was taken suddenly ill last evening.
W. J. McCaldin and wife, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are stopping at the Springs.
A. H. Whetstone and Pat Boone leave tomorrow for Roswell, having disposed of their wool at satisfactory figures.
Mrs. M. N. Wood, who for the past six months has been visiting at Barre, Vermont, was welcomed home last evening by her family.
Mr. Robert Swett and his son R. L., left this morning for their Chicago home. They have been at the Springs for the past month.
A. G. Stitt, representing Wilson Bros., Chicago, was paying his respects yesterday to the Lewis boys, the sole agents of his house in Las Vegas.
Judge W. D. Lee, went south last night to assist in the patching up of the differences between the republican factions in this territory. As a patcher up of differences the judge's recent experience should make him a success.
C. E. Torrey, brother-in-law of J. S. Fishon, is in the city. Mr. Torrey has large cattle interests in the Cherokee strip, Indian Territory, and is here for the purpose of visiting his relatives, and will probably prospect for a ranch.
Raymond Jenkins, manager of the Waddingham Cattle association, returned from the company's ranch today. He found the range in poor condition from the long continued absence of moisture, and cattle also in bad condition.
J. F. Gage and Matt Devine left today for a trip to the ranch of the latter. Mr. Gage is a wealthy citizen of Clinton, Iowa, and it is hoped may be induced to invest here, after an investigation of the numerous advantages this section of New Mexico offers to investors.

J. E. Saint, manager of the Acoma Land and Cattle company, Valencia county, is in the city. The object of his visit is to purchase horses for use on his range. Mr. Saint reports that his section furnishes no exception to the excessively dry condition which at present prevails throughout New Mexico.
J. G. Wilson, D. D., a celebrated divine of Brooklyn, New York, came in last night with a party of friends and went out to the Springs to enjoy a Sunday's rest. It is evident that the doctor's oft repeated prayers to the Supreme Being to prosper the righteous have been answered, as he now travels in a special car luxuriantly furnished.

Justice of the Peace and editor of the Stockman Sturges, of Springer, passed through our city last evening, enroute for Santa Fe, where Wardeu Thos. P. Gable, of the "Pen," has invited him. Col. Sturges was looking quite well and we are pleased to see that he has laid by the whites hat which he purchased of Jack Howell, who bid it in at the recent auction sale of the Frank R. Sherwin estate, to satisfy attachments suits in favor of the First National bank of Santa Fe and the Springer Mercantile & Banking Co., of Springer. In justice to Mr. Sturges we would add, that we understand that he has a perfect privilege to leave the "Pen" as soon as he desires, as there is nothing compulsory about his visit.
