

TODAY'S NEWS TODAY—You get it in the HERALD. Fifty cents a month or 15 cents a week delivered at your door; fifty cents by mail.

TRIBUNE-CITIZEN, Vol. 28, No. 68.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1914.

EVENING HERALD, Vol. 2, No. 279.

HAITI IN FUROR

Battleship South Carolina Rushing Under Full Head of Steam to Strenuous Island Republic to Help Extend Protection to Americans and Other Foreigners from Revolution-Crazed Blacks.

ARMED SAILORS ARE KEEPING THE LID ON

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—Under full head of steam, the big battleship South Carolina today is rushing across the Windward passage for Port au Prince, Haiti, to join her blue-jackets and marines with the forces of the armored cruiser Montana for protection of Americans and other foreigners.

ARMED AMERICAN SAILORS ON GUARD

Port au Prince, Haiti, Jan. 28.—Armed detachments of American sailors from the armored cruiser Montana were today on guard at the American legation, the cable station and the French hospital. German blue-jackets and marines were placed on protection duty at the other foreign legations and at the German steers in the city. Large landing parties were sent ashore from the American and German war vessels yesterday when President Michel Oreste fled for refuge to the German cruiser Vineta after fighting broke out in the streets of the capital.

MILLIONAIRE AND ROYAL GUESTS GET STUCK

Vanderbilt Yacht "Warrior" Stranded Off South American Cape and Passengers Take Fruit Steamer.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
New York, Jan. 28.—Frederick W. Vanderbilt and party, among them the Duke and Duchess of Manchester, will come direct to New York on board the United States steamer Albatross, leaving the Vanderbilt yacht "Warrior" stranded off the northwest coast of Colombia.

Word to this effect was received here today by the United Fruit company from Captain W. H. Devan, commander of the Albatross, on whose boat the Vanderbilts sought refuge after the yacht grounded. In a wireless message sent via New Orleans, Captain Devan said:

"F. W. Vanderbilt and party none the worse for mishap. Say Warrior caught on coral reef; believe she can be saved. Party decided to continue New York on Albatross."

UNABLE TO PICK UP VESSEL WITH WIRELESS

New Orleans, Jan. 28.—All during the night and early today the wireless here was silent as to the fate of Frederick W. Vanderbilt's yacht "Warrior," which went aground on the coast of Colombia today.

Operators of two companies here heard vessels in the Gulf of Mexico calling the "Warrior" almost continuously, but heard no answer. This was not considered significant, however, as the "Warrior's" apparatus has not sufficient power to communicate with stations that usually operate with New Orleans stations.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.

DEATH FINALLY RELEASES AGED EX-SENATOR CULLOM

Passing of Picturesque Statesman Ends Fifty Years of Continuous Public Service; Started as Plough-Boy.

DIES WITH GREATEST WISH UNFULFILLED

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—Former Senator Shelby M. Cullom of Illinois died here today after an illness of more than a week, during which he hovered between life and death. His last words were a wish that he might have lived to see the completion of the national memorial to Abraham Lincoln, which was his personal dream.

ARGUMENTS BEGUN IN THE CASE OF MAJORS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Alamogordo, N. M., Jan. 28.—Arguments were started this morning in the trial of H. H. Majors, charged with the murder of his daughter, Eudora, by poisoning. Taking of testimony in the case was concluded at the night session Tuesday, some of the closing testimony being the most sensational given during the trial.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

Times and events in his own country were no less stirring, and his part in them was a marked one. Kentucky was a slave state at his birth, the controversy which was to hatch into a great civil war was in the process of incubation; in fact the Culloms moved to Illinois to be in a free state and Chicago was then a small village. The elder Cullom was then a friend of Lincoln's, recommending the struggling backwoods lawyer to prospective clients. Young Cullom's first recollection of the future war president was under such circumstances. Scrapping together the rudiments of an education gained by toiling over rough primeval roads, he became successively a student at Mount Morris academy, a country school teacher and a lawyer, being admitted to the bar at Springfield in 1855.

PRIVATE CRITICISED HIS SUPERIORS; FREE BY ORDER OF W. W.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—F. Pardon was written in pencil on a memorandum President Wilson today gave freedom to Private Clarence L. George of the army signal corps, who had served four months of a year's sentence at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for writing letters about his superiors to Secretary Tamm. The letters George wrote never reached the secretary but went back to his commanding officers who court-martialed him for breach of discipline. Secretary Tamm today gave freedom to the president to pardon the man on the ground that failure of the letters to reach him was in a way responsible for his imprisonment.

STORY THAT JAPAN FURNISHES ARMS TO HUERTA DENIED

Merely New Version of Exploded Tale Declares Statement from the White House Today.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—Secretary of State Woodrow Wilson today stated that the story that Japan was supplying arms to the Huerta government and that President Wilson had disapproved that phase of the Mexican situation with members of the senate foreign relations committee Monday night, were characterized as "an old story revamped."

ARGUMENTS BEGUN IN THE CASE OF MAJORS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Alamogordo, N. M., Jan. 28.—Arguments were started this morning in the trial of H. H. Majors, charged with the murder of his daughter, Eudora, by poisoning. Taking of testimony in the case was concluded at the night session Tuesday, some of the closing testimony being the most sensational given during the trial.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

FURTHER CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST EMORY W. SPEER

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Savannah, Ga., Jan. 28.—Attorney General Thomas S. Peider of Georgia today told the congressional committee investigating charges of official misconduct against Federal Judge Emory W. Speer that in his opinion bankruptcy charges were warranted in the judge's case. As an alleged specific instance in substantiation of this charge Mr. Peider cited the W. A. Huff bankruptcy case. In this case, he stated, Judge Speer allowed fees aggregating $23,178.

PRIVATE CRITICISED HIS SUPERIORS; FREE BY ORDER OF W. W.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—F. Pardon was written in pencil on a memorandum President Wilson today gave freedom to Private Clarence L. George of the army signal corps, who had served four months of a year's sentence at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for writing letters about his superiors to Secretary Tamm. The letters George wrote never reached the secretary but went back to his commanding officers who court-martialed him for breach of discipline. Secretary Tamm today gave freedom to the president to pardon the man on the ground that failure of the letters to reach him was in a way responsible for his imprisonment.

HOUSE RELIEVES TWO STATES OF JOB OF ENDING STRIKES

Paternal Government Will Invade Commonwealths of Michigan and Colorado and Investigate Conditions.

UNITED MINE WORKERS CHEER DECISION

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—Announcement made by President P. White that the two resolutions providing for federal investigation of the strikes in Colorado and Michigan had passed the lower house of congress by a large majority was greeted with prolonged cheers today by the delegates attending the convention of the United Mine Workers of America. The attempt to limit the executive power of the international president by changing the constitution to make the officers of traveling auditors, organizers and editors of the Mine Workers Journal elective by the miners instead of being appointed by the president, failed when it came to a vote today.

DEPORTATION OF STRIKE LEADERS STARTS ROW

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Pretoria, Union of South Africa, Jan. 28.—Court proceedings against the ministers of justice, defense and the interior because of their action in deporting South African strike leaders began promptly today. The supreme court judge, Sir John W. W. Weir, granted an application for leave to apply to attack the alien ministers for contempt of court. The judge declared that if he had yesterday possessed the information he now had, he would have granted an injunction restraining the government from deporting the men.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

800 MARINES NOW STATIONED AT VERA CRUZ

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—United States marines at Vera Cruz, Mexico, number about 800 with the arrival of the detachment from the Panama Canal Zone. Major Goodley, 1500, is commanding with his staff and one company, have been assigned by Rear Admiral Fletcher to the battleship Minnesota, three companies to the transport Knappa and the cruiser Chester, and two companies to the transport Albatross.

GENERAL VILLA IN HUERTA ON BUSINESS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Mexico, Jan. 28.—General Francisco Villa arrived from Chihuahua today. He will confer for several days with representatives of military and smelter interests regarding the assumption of business in the rebel territory. He then will return to Chihuahua, which he calls the provincial capital of the republic, to direct an attack on Torreon.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.

SONORA FLOODED WITH BOGUS LEGAL TENDER

Boogymen Ate Up 25—Chicago Business Conditions in Sonora, Mexico, Reported Today to Have Followed Disastrously that a Large Part of $2,500,000 of assigned constitutional currency had in transit from the printers in New York recently had been placed in circulation. The discovery was made after the arrest of W. J. Booth, secretary of a store, and two clerks who were charged with having returned to accept the new legal notes. This proved that the stores were boogymen.

REBELS HAVE MADE AN IMPORTANT CAPTURE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Brownsville, Tex., Jan. 28.—The capture by Mexican rebels of the city of Cuernavaca, Mexico, in the state of Morelos, together with the government of the state, was reported to rebel headquarters in Michoacan, Mexico, today. General Rullon (Gallardo), who commanded the rebels and the battle occurred last Monday and that the federal reinforcements from Saltillo were broken. The city has a population of 25,000 and is the center of a rich mining district. The capture gives the rebels undisputed control of a stretch of 100 miles additional territory in north Mexico.

DEPORTATION OF STRIKE LEADERS STARTS ROW

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Pretoria, Union of South Africa, Jan. 28.—Court proceedings against the ministers of justice, defense and the interior because of their action in deporting South African strike leaders began promptly today. The supreme court judge, Sir John W. W. Weir, granted an application for leave to apply to attack the alien ministers for contempt of court. The judge declared that if he had yesterday possessed the information he now had, he would have granted an injunction restraining the government from deporting the men.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

800 MARINES NOW STATIONED AT VERA CRUZ

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—United States marines at Vera Cruz, Mexico, number about 800 with the arrival of the detachment from the Panama Canal Zone. Major Goodley, 1500, is commanding with his staff and one company, have been assigned by Rear Admiral Fletcher to the battleship Minnesota, three companies to the transport Knappa and the cruiser Chester, and two companies to the transport Albatross.

GENERAL VILLA IN HUERTA ON BUSINESS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Mexico, Jan. 28.—General Francisco Villa arrived from Chihuahua today. He will confer for several days with representatives of military and smelter interests regarding the assumption of business in the rebel territory. He then will return to Chihuahua, which he calls the provincial capital of the republic, to direct an attack on Torreon.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.

HOUSE RELIEVES TWO STATES OF JOB OF ENDING STRIKES

Paternal Government Will Invade Commonwealths of Michigan and Colorado and Investigate Conditions.

UNITED MINE WORKERS CHEER DECISION

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—Announcement made by President P. White that the two resolutions providing for federal investigation of the strikes in Colorado and Michigan had passed the lower house of congress by a large majority was greeted with prolonged cheers today by the delegates attending the convention of the United Mine Workers of America. The attempt to limit the executive power of the international president by changing the constitution to make the officers of traveling auditors, organizers and editors of the Mine Workers Journal elective by the miners instead of being appointed by the president, failed when it came to a vote today.

DEPORTATION OF STRIKE LEADERS STARTS ROW

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Pretoria, Union of South Africa, Jan. 28.—Court proceedings against the ministers of justice, defense and the interior because of their action in deporting South African strike leaders began promptly today. The supreme court judge, Sir John W. W. Weir, granted an application for leave to apply to attack the alien ministers for contempt of court. The judge declared that if he had yesterday possessed the information he now had, he would have granted an injunction restraining the government from deporting the men.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

800 MARINES NOW STATIONED AT VERA CRUZ

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—United States marines at Vera Cruz, Mexico, number about 800 with the arrival of the detachment from the Panama Canal Zone. Major Goodley, 1500, is commanding with his staff and one company, have been assigned by Rear Admiral Fletcher to the battleship Minnesota, three companies to the transport Knappa and the cruiser Chester, and two companies to the transport Albatross.

GENERAL VILLA IN HUERTA ON BUSINESS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Mexico, Jan. 28.—General Francisco Villa arrived from Chihuahua today. He will confer for several days with representatives of military and smelter interests regarding the assumption of business in the rebel territory. He then will return to Chihuahua, which he calls the provincial capital of the republic, to direct an attack on Torreon.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.

HOPE IT WILL GET COLD; TOO EARLY FOR FRUIT.

Two Inch Iron Pipe Filled With Dynamite Goes Off Harmlessly Near Tent Occupied by Colonel of Colorado Militia and Staff in Walsenburg Strike District; Outrage Being Probed.

ARGUMENTS POSTPONED IN HABEAS CORPUS CASE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Walsenburg, Colo., Jan. 28.—More arrests in connection with the explosion of a bomb last night near military headquarters are expected today. Following an effort on the part of the militia to learn the identity of those responsible for the outrage, a cell of five and a few percussion caps were found in the basement of a saloon and Peter O'Donoghue, an Italian, was placed under military arrest. The nature of the evidence against O'Donoghue is not disclosed.

PROBING COWARDLY MURDER OF NON-UNION BITTERS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Houghton, Mich., Jan. 28.—After two days' recess the special grand jury investigating copper mine strike disorders, resumed its deliberations today. It is understood that further inquiry is being made into the Pattee case in which three non-union miners, British subjects, were murdered in their beds in the night.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

800 MARINES NOW STATIONED AT VERA CRUZ

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—United States marines at Vera Cruz, Mexico, number about 800 with the arrival of the detachment from the Panama Canal Zone. Major Goodley, 1500, is commanding with his staff and one company, have been assigned by Rear Admiral Fletcher to the battleship Minnesota, three companies to the transport Knappa and the cruiser Chester, and two companies to the transport Albatross.

GENERAL VILLA IN HUERTA ON BUSINESS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Mexico, Jan. 28.—General Francisco Villa arrived from Chihuahua today. He will confer for several days with representatives of military and smelter interests regarding the assumption of business in the rebel territory. He then will return to Chihuahua, which he calls the provincial capital of the republic, to direct an attack on Torreon.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.

TRYING TO BEAT PROSPECTORS TO IT

House Committee Hurriedly Prepares Bill Giving Government Right to Buy and Reduce All Radium Ores.

JIMMY CLABBY HELD ON CHARGE OF BEATING UP A POLICEMAN

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Chicago, Ill., Jan. 28.—Jimmy Clabby, a nondescript looking, 35-year-old man, today pleaded guilty to a charge of beating up a police officer. He was held in the city jail on a charge of beating up a police officer. He was held in the city jail on a charge of beating up a police officer.

GAYNOR'S DAUGHTER BECOMES A BRIDE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
New York, Jan. 28.—Miss Marion Gaynor, the 16-year-old daughter of the late Mayor William J. Gaynor, will marry New York tonight as the bride of Ralph Hayward (about the son of a railroad man of Santa Barbara, Cal.). The announcement to this effect was made at the Gaynor home in Brooklyn this afternoon. The ceremony at 3 o'clock p. m. was in Trinity church, with the Rev. W. T. Manning officiating. Only members of the immediate family attended.

As a ploughboy driving his father's team over the fresh prairie of Illinois he had known and talked with survivors of the Revolution and of the rugged foundations of a life begun in pioneer hardships of a family of twelve children had built a career that took him to the Illinois legislature as a member; speaker of the assembly, two terms in the governor's chief service in the national house of representatives, and thirty consecutive years in the United States senate.

His nearest living contemporary probably is "Uncle Joe" Cannon, whose senior he was some seven years by birth and some three years in national service.

Andrew Jackson was president of the United States when Mr. Cullom was born in 1829, in the Elk Spring valley of Kentucky, near the Cumberland, where the Culloms of Maryland and the Coffeys of North Carolina, drifting westward with the tides of immigration that set in at the close of the Revolution, founded their early home.

"During the year 1829," Mr. Cullom recently wrote to illustrate the epoch which he began life, "the crown of Great Britain descended from King George the Fourth to King William the Fourth, that reign passed away and I have lived to see the long reign of Victoria come and go; the reign of King Edward come and go and the accession of King George the Fifth. Charles the Fifth ruled in France, Francis the First in Austria, Frederick William the Third in Prussia, Nicholas the First in Russia, while Leo the Twelfth governed the vast state, the kingdom of Italy not yet having come into existence. The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland had not yet a population of 24,000,000 all told. No man who had not served his country in some capacity in the Revolutionary war had been elevated to the presidency of the United States, and this was the case until 1841."

800 MARINES NOW STATIONED AT VERA CRUZ

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Washington, Jan. 28.—United States marines at Vera Cruz, Mexico, number about 800 with the arrival of the detachment from the Panama Canal Zone. Major Goodley, 1500, is commanding with his staff and one company, have been assigned by Rear Admiral Fletcher to the battleship Minnesota, three companies to the transport Knappa and the cruiser Chester, and two companies to the transport Albatross.

GENERAL VILLA IN HUERTA ON BUSINESS

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Mexico, Jan. 28.—General Francisco Villa arrived from Chihuahua today. He will confer for several days with representatives of military and smelter interests regarding the assumption of business in the rebel territory. He then will return to Chihuahua, which he calls the provincial capital of the republic, to direct an attack on Torreon.

To Anticipate Income Tax Law.
Washington, Jan. 28.—Two bills to eliminate the "collection at the source" feature of the income tax were introduced today in the house.