WILSON HAS DROPPED HIS FALSE MASK, BITTERLY CRY NEWSPAPERS OF CITY OF MEXICO

Embargo Lifted at Behest of Commercial Interests Who Wish to Profit by Traffic in Munitions of War Is Charge of Huerta Dailies Which Heap Columns of Malediction on Head of American President; High Pretext of Neutrality Flimsy Subterfuge Declares "El Pais"; Mexican Capital Gives No Other Sign of Hostility Toward Americans and No Disorders Are Expected.

REPRESENTATIVES OF FACTORIES RUSH OVER TO SOLICIT BUSINESS FROM LEADERS OF REBEL ARMY

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Mexico City, Feb. 4.—The raising of the embargo on arms by the United States brought down columns of newspaper malediction on the head of President Wilson today. The city, however, gave no evidence of hostility toward American residents. The patrols on the streets were doubled during the night as a precaution but there was no sign of apprehension on the part of the Mexican authorities that disorders would occur.

"President Wilson has dropped the false mask of the peevish and declared himself the friend and protector of the rebels," is the seven-column headline placed by El Pais over its account of President Wilson's action in raising the embargo on arms and munitions of war. The newspaper declares that President Wilson's motive while alleged to be based on high pretexts of neutrality, originates really in commercial interests. It continues:

"It is the first step of the Yankee toward our frontier. Afterwards will come intervention. The phantom grows more distinct beyond the Rio Grande."

El Pais then calls on the Mexican people to have faith in the good Mexicans and in the government of General Huerta, and declares:

"The triumph which will crown his efforts will be not only a triumph over the revolution but another and more important one, because America as far south as Tierra del Fuego will ring with the hymn of victory and right over Yankee rapacity. The only thing that President Wilson will accomplish will be to place in bold relief the figure of Victoriano Huerta, who, thanks to Yankee intrigues, symbolizes today on this continent the soul of the honest Latin race."

El Imparcial, under the headline, "President Wilson declares himself barefacedly and opprobriously the accomplice of bandits," says:

"We can hardly credit the news that the Yankee government permits the passage of arms to the villains of Villa who rob, burn and assassinate. It is unbelievable that a cultured people under the influence of a headstrong functionary should become the accomplices of such a horde of outlaws."

D., a clergyman of international repute, he probably will resign as president of the San Francisco church federation according to an announcement today by Dr. Aked himself. No action is due until the next meeting of the executive committee of the federation, February 17. "But the probability is," Dr. Aked said today, "that I shall accede to the suggestion for my resignation."

Dr. Aked said he did not adhere to and would not support the doctrine of the miraculous conception and birth of Christ.

GUN-TOTERS IN STRIKE ZONE MUST GO, SAYS

Secretary of Labor in Annual Report Protests Against the Employment of Armed Detectives and Guards. PRIVATE WARFARE MUST BE STOPPED

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Washington, Feb. 4.—Protest against the use of firearms and the employment of armed guards and private detectives in labor disputes and strikes was made by Secretary W. B. Wilson, of the department of labor, in his first annual report submitted today to President Wilson. He recommends that congress enact legislation "within its constitutional limitations to regulate the business in the interest of public peace and order."

On relations of capital and labor, Secretary Wilson takes advanced ground. "The relation of employer and wage earner," says he, "is no longer personal or individual, because both employers and operatives act in groups."

In that connection, it is suggested that congress clearly define the functions of the department of labor in the mediation of labor disputes and vote an appropriation adequate to meet the requirements of mediation work. In that way, it was suggested, the welfare of wage-earners could be fostered while the prosperity of employers and the peace and good order of society at large were conserved.

SHORT AND SHARP IS REVOLT IN PERU

English President of South American Republic Taken Prisoner by Military Revolutionists in Lima. PRUNING KNIFE CUT TO THE QUICK

Merciless Reduction of Official Salaries in Economy Campaign Cause of Violent Uprising. [By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Lima, Peru, Feb. 4.—The president of the republic of Peru, Guillermo Billinghurst, was taken prisoner today by military revolutionists.

Dr. Augusto Durand, a former revolutionary leader, took possession of the palace. The attack on the palace began at 4:30 in the morning. Inhabitants of Lima ran into the streets, alarmed by the firing. Soldiers were ordered to fire volleys into the air in order to prevent the formation of crowds in the streets and they kept the panic-stricken people moving from place to place.

A civilian bystander was killed by a bullet. President Billinghurst was later taken by the rebels as a prisoner to Callao, from which port he will be sent into exile in a foreign country.

Peru's sudden revolutionary trouble is due principally to President Billinghurst's earnest efforts to place finances of his country on a sound basis. His scheme for doing this involved the strictest economies throughout the public service and naturally proved unpopular, particularly among officeholders, who saw their salaries and estimates pruned with a merciless hand.

The baby, a girl, aged three months, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Martin of Alhambra, and the granddaughter of Mr. McAdoo, who saw her for the first time upon his arrival last night.
