Governor Fears Removal to Hearing Would Cause Riot; Counsel Withdraws Request for Subpoena.

TO GET EVIDENCE SOME OTHER WAY

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Trinidad, Colo., Feb. 17.—Edward P. Costigan, attorney for the United Mine Workers of America, this afternoon temporarily withdrew his request for a subpoena requiring the appearance of Mother Mary Jones as a witness before the house subcommittee investigating the Colorado coal mine strike.

Warren Tieska, a young Pole, told of being brought to Colorado from Pittsburgh. He declared that he was not told that there was a strike in the coal fields. When luncheon recess was taken shortly after 1 o'clock it was announced that the committee could not go to Ludlow this afternoon but probably would make the trip tomorrow morning.

AMMONS FEARS RELEASE WOULD START A RIOT

Denver, Feb. 17.—Governor E. M. Ammons today indicated his fear of serious trouble in the southern Colorado strike region if Mother Jones should be taken through the streets of Trinidad from her prison in the San Rafael mine where she is held incommunicado by the state troops, to the hall where the sessions of the congressional investigating committee are held. I responded to a telegram from Chairman M. D. Foster of the committee, asking that the military authorities be directed to take Mother Jones before the committee, Governor Ammons replied by telegram and letter. In his letter he said that he would "obey" the wishes of the committee, but would much prefer she be examined by the committee in Denver or in the hospital to "avoid danger and trouble."

National Organizer at Wyoming Meet Vehemently Denies Charge of Seeking Socialistic Democracy.

EX-PRESIDENT IS A DEMAGOGUE, CHARGE

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Casper, Wyo., Feb. 16.—"The campaign of misrepresentation by the Republican leaders merrily continues," declared William E. Cadmus, national organizer, addressing the conference of Wyoming Progressives here. "They are taking full advantage of the fact that they have the press and the Progressives have not. Instead of changing their principles to meet the popular demand of the times, Republican leaders prefer to deceive themselves into thinking they can deceive the people by false news concerning fusion, by misrepresentation of Progressive principles, by impugning the sincerity of Progressive leaders."
