LINING 'EM OUT

The season hasn't opened for the Giants yet. The Athletics have also had their start postponed.

The short-out Philites are doing fairly well. For an outfit alleged to have been wrecked by the Federals and unable to get any kind of training, they are giving the best imitation of a flying start noticed at this range.

The New York Giants were only one of the major league clubs that found it easy winning spring games. McGraw seemed to have his team in championship form. A chill appears to have seized them on the north.

There are three former St. Louis Nationals on the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast league this year. They are Quintana and Zachar, outfielders, and Alexander, catcher.

Manager Robinson of the Brooklyn Nationals is trying out a young catcher named Wheat. He is a brother of the outfielder by that name.

Rain shot the schedule to pieces yesterday. It is as much a part of the big league as bats and balls. It is always with them.

Joe Judge, a Long Island City boy, who has played semi-professional ball around New York for some time, has shown as well in his workouts with the Boston Red Sox that he stands a good chance of becoming the regular first baseman. He has surprised all of the old players with the way he has taken hold. He is very fast, a good natural hitter and only lacks experience. If he is not kept on the staff of a good job with a first-class minor league team.

Out of Chronic Constipation. "For twenty years I suffered with chronic constipation," says C. W. Robertson, of Cordova, S. C. "In May, 1908, it had assumed a more serious form, resulting in indigestion, piles and neurasthenia. Life seemed a burden to me. Two famous physicians and one specialist, with all their drastic drugs failed to help me. A friend advised me to give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial, which I did, and am pleased to say two bottles of them cured me." For sale by all druggists.

SEVENTY FIVE WILL ENTER SCHOOL TRACK MEET SATURDAY

Success of Second Annual New Mexico Inter-Scholastic Athletic Event Now Fully Assured.

COACH HUTCHINSON PLEASSED WITH OUTLOOK. High Schools from All Sections of the State Sending Teams and Permanent Establishment of Meet Is Sure.

The spring New Mexico intercollegiate track meeting is no longer an experiment. Its success and its permanent establishment in Albuquerque under the auspices of the State university are assured by the serious already made for the second annual meeting next Saturday.

"We will have more than seventy-five entries in the various events," said Coach Hutchinson of the university this morning, who is in active charge of the meeting, "and I am more than pleased with the response. It insures not only the success of this year's meeting, but that the meeting will be a permanent event."

"Santa Fe, Las Vegas, Tucuman, Artes and Elgin have entered their high school teams and these along with the Albuquerque high school team will lift the total number of entries over seventy-five. There is a probability that Denning will send his team, although I have not heard finally from that school. Several others may come in before the entries close Friday night."

"We have not determined yet where we will hold the meet. However, field has been flooded so often this spring that it is in bad condition and may not be dry enough for the meeting. In that event we will hold it in Truxton park. The cups and trophies have arrived and we are ready for the event, which will be about the most interesting in school athletics in the history of the state."

Commander Hughes then went aboard the Spanish and British warships anchored off this port and informed their commanders of his action.

Washington, April 20.—(Bulletin) The navy department gave out this statement: "American merchant vessels have been ordered out of Vera Cruz harbor, in accordance with the president's instructions to consular officers to warn Americans to leave Mexico for their own safety."

Vera Cruz Remains Quiet. Vera Cruz, April 20.—This city continues very quiet in spite of the situation. Communication by land with American vessels lying off the port were rendered difficult today by a stiff norther.

France Looks On Calmly. Paris, April 20.—The attitude of the French government in connection with President Wilson's policy toward Mexico is one of calm observation, in the view expressed at the foreign office here today. A disposition exists here to remain detached from events in Mexico unless incidents should arise directly concerning France.

WOMEN ORDERED TO TAKE REFUGE ON SHIPS. Vera Cruz, April 20.—All American and other foreign women have been ordered to take refuge on ships. Preference on board the Mexico of the Ward line and the Imperanza, which have been chartered by the United States navy.

JOINT ARMY AND NAVY BOARD GETS TOGETHER. Washington, April 20.—The joint army and navy board, headed by Admiral Dewey, today held its first session in many months. It discussed plans for co-operation of the army and navy in case it becomes necessary to adopt measures in Mexico.

TORPEDO BOAT FLEETLA ORDERED ON DUTY. Pensacola, Fla., April 20.—Orders were received early today directing the fleet of twenty torpedo boat destroyers here to put to sea this afternoon, meeting Rear Admiral Badger's fleet in the gulf and accompanying it to Tampico. Officers said the destroyers, with two tenders were ready to depart.

ATLANTIC FLEET WILL DIVIDE ON ARRIVAL. Washington, April 20.—Secretary Daniels said late today that Admiral Badger's fleet would be divided when it reached Mexican waters, part of it going to Tampico and the rest to Vera Cruz.

WARD LINER CHARTERED FOR USE OF REFUGEES. Washington, April 20.—The navy department today chartered the Ward liner Mexico, now in Mexican gulf waters, for a refugee ship at Tampico. The war department took option on several ships to be used as transports.

DETAILS OF PROGRAM ARE PREPARED WITH CARE. Washington, April 20.—The Mexican crisis today awaited President Wilson's presentation of the situation to congress. No further word had come from Huerta and officials said nothing but a complete compliance with all the American demands could prevent President Wilson from appearing before a joint session of the house and senate, probably about 2 p. m., and asking for authority to use the army and navy to uphold the honor and dignity of the nation.

President returned to Washington from White Sulphur Springs at 7:45 o'clock and went at once to the White House for a conference with Secretary Bryan. This preceded a special cabinet meeting called for 10:30 o'clock. President Wilson had outlined his

President returned to Washington from White Sulphur Springs at 7:45 o'clock and went at once to the White House for a conference with Secretary Bryan. This preceded a special cabinet meeting called for 10:30 o'clock. President Wilson had outlined his message last night while traveling, and after going over a first draft with the secretary of state submitted it to the cabinet.

House and senate leaders were early at the White House to learn the details of the president's plans so that they might prepare the necessary resolutions putting congress squarely behind the president and giving him full authority to act. While the president's plans were not officially disclosed, it was conceded in official circles that he would ask congress to authorize what are known in international law as "measures short of war," while not being a declaration of war on the part of the United States might so be construed by Huerta.

According to best informed officials these would consist of: 1. Seizure of the ports of Tampico and Vera Cruz. 2. Seizure of the Mexican gunboats in those waters. 3. Seizure of the railroad from Vera Cruz to the Mexican capital, to a point including a trestle twenty miles west of Vera Cruz, to prevent the route to the Mexican capital being blocked.

Probably a request for a special appropriation to carry out these measures.

This latter point, however, was not definite early today. Secretary Garrison announced that Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, would command the American forces, should it finally become necessary to use them.

In the naval establishment everything was in preparation for action. Few orders remained to be given. Secretary Daniels was early at his desk, scanning over-night reports of the movements of the big fleet steaming to both coasts of Mexico.

Rear Admiral Badger's ships will be at Tampico early Wednesday, according to latest calculations.

While President Wilson's ultimatum to the dictator expired at 6 o'clock last night, there was no doubt here that should Huerta recede completely before congress authorized President Wilson to act his compromise would be accepted. This in effect extends the ultimatum until 3 o'clock this afternoon. No further negotiations, parleys and counter proposals will be considered. However, the Washington government regards the diplomatic situation as closed.

Secretary Bryan left his early conference with the president saying the situation was unchanged; that no new dispatches had been received and that nothing but a complete backdown by Huerta could stop the Washington government's plan of action.

The attitude of Carranza and Villa, leaders of the constitutionalists, the secretary said he considered very favorable, and did not expect any complicating developments from the phase of the situation.

Secretary Garrison said no orders had been issued for any movement of troops. General Wood's four-year detail as chief of staff of the army will expire next Wednesday. He probably will leave immediately for Texas City, where the second army division has been mobilized for the last fourteen months. According to official sources Americans in Mexico already are beginning to leave. Officials understood that hundreds of Americans left Mexico City yesterday for Vera Cruz.

The state department, through Mr. O'Shaughnessy and by direct messages from Mr. Bryan to American consuls throughout Mexico, has warned all Americans to leave.

Such protection as the United States has undertaken to extend to foreigners will not be afforded, according to the present purpose. The diplomatic body in Washington has learned that the United States will continue to look after foreigners in northern Mexico in the constitutional state where foreign representatives in the federal territory those governments will continue to look after their own subjects.

Chairman Flood of the house foreign affairs committee, and Representative Cooper, the ranking republican, with Acting Chairman Shively and Senator Lodge, the ranking republican, conferred with the president right after 2 o'clock on the resolution congress will be asked to pass.

SECOND ARMY DIVISION READY FOR BUSINESS. Houston, Tex., April 20.—The second division of the United States army, here on a practice march, today began a hurried movement back to Texas City and Galveston on orders received from Washington at 3 o'clock this morning.

The fifth brigade of the division was rushed aboard troop trains that the remainder of the army unit, which brought nearly 10,000 men here, was ordered to make the sixty miles back to the coast on foot. Plans were laid for the fifth brigade to go aboard transports although it was said no orders had been received. The plan was to have the fifth brigade nearly 5,000 men ready for sailing to Vera Cruz by Tuesday morning in case a troop movement should be ordered.

The second division, which has been garrisoned in Texas City and Galveston for a year, had marched to Houston to remain until the middle of the week. The soldiers were to have paraded in the local celebration April 21 of the battle of San Jacinto, when Texas won independence from Mexico. Their march here from the coast last week indicated the men are hardy, no case of serious illness appearing in the big command.

The fifth brigade, which returned to Galveston by train under the plans already worked out for troop movement by sea, would be the first to go aboard transports unless the orders for embarkation should specify some change in the program. By daylight the fifth was boarding the trains. The check movement developed the fact that the trains made up ahead for the hooking on the coast.
