Karston-Pickard Wedding in Savannah.

A wedding of particular interest to their friends in this city is that of Miss Florence Pickard and Mr. Karl Karston, which will take place in Savannah, Ga., on July 23.

This wedding comes as the climax to a romance which was begun when Miss Pickard and Mr. Karston were students at the University of New Mexico.

Mr. Karston, whose home is in Chicago, was the Rhodes scholar from this state in 1911 and this spring graduated from the law school at Oxford. He will arrive in New York Wednesday and will go to Savannah for the wedding.

The wedding is to be at the Baptist church of which the bride's father, Rev. H. Pickard, has been pastor for many years, and there will be several hundred guests. The honeymoon will be spent at the Karston summer home in Chaffeeville, Mich.

Miss Pickard was a student at the University of New Mexico for two years and during that time made many friends in Albuquerque. She is a cousin of Mrs. Sam Vann.

To Direct Concerts in Santa Fe
Mr. Charles J. Andrews of this city has been appointed director of the music for the Archeological Institute, which will be held in Santa Fe during the month of August.

Mrs. Lawrence B. Lacey, formerly Miss Mary McFie, will have had charge of the concerts but she resigns this week and Mr. Andrews left Friday for Santa Fe to confer with the committee and complete plans for the musical part of the program.

There is to be a sacred concert every Sunday evening and there will be special musical numbers before each lecture.

Mr. Andrews has charge of three concerts for the Mountain Chautauque and will have to spend part of the first week in August in Mountain Lake, where the state chorus, which is to give a grand concert the seventh day of the Chautauque.

New Mexico is exceptionally fortunate in having a musical director of such unusual ability as Mr. Andrews possesses, and that this fact is becoming widely recognized is shown by the numerous requests which Mr. Andrews is receiving from all over the state for his services in training choruses. Aside from his ability as a director, Mr. Andrews has a wonderfully fine tenor voice, which is always a delight to those who appreciate the best in music.

In Honor of Mrs. Bronson of El Paso

Mrs. A. S. Bronson of El Paso, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Ackerman, for the past three weeks, has been widely entertained by her friends. This week the parties were daily affairs and were all most enjoyable. Mrs. Bronson left Friday evening for her home in El Paso.

Monday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Hunt entertained two tables of auction in Mrs. Bronson's honor and served a delicious lunch.

Tuesday Mrs. Nancy Bewick was hostess at an auction party. A feature of the afternoon were the elaborate refreshments which were served at five o'clock. The guests were Mrs. A. S. Bronson, Mrs. Frank Ackerman, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Fred Canfield, Mrs. D. H. Carns, Mrs. Walter Connell, Mrs. Frank

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Laekawanna, N. Y. "After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KRAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Laekawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Incorporated) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Union Sunday School Picnic

It is now expected that more than 1,000 people will attend the grand union picnic in which all of the Sunday schools of Albuquerque are to join at the Moore Realty company's drive on Thursday, July 23.

The union Sunday school picnic has become an annual event which is looked forward to with keen interest by the children, whose pleasure is the chief object of the managers of the affair. The Moore company has given the picnic managers exclusive rights to the grove for the day and a competent committee will be in charge of all arrangements for the comfort and safety of the children, so that no mother need fear to permit her young people to attend.

No vendors of refreshments will be allowed on the grounds, the concession having been taken over by the Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church who will have the usual picnic refreshments in large supply. A feature of the day will be an auction sale of a collection of handkerchiefs from the governors of the several states, each one carrying the autograph of the governor contributing it.

A complete program of athletic events with suitable prizes has been arranged, including all of the old stunts from the sack race up and down, and some stunts that are quite new. The grounds will be opened at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 23d. The grounds are at the extreme end of Santa Fe avenue and can be best reached by the South Second street car line. They are pleasantly located on the banks of the silvery Rio Grande and the Sunday schools of the city extend a cordial invitation to the people of Albuquerque to bring their families and take part in the holiday festivities.

Golden Hair and the Bears

Rehearsals are proceeding regularly on the operetta, "Golden Hair and the Three Bears," which is to be presented the latter part of August by a cast of seventy-five little people of the public schools under the able direction of Mrs. E. L. Bradford, whose clever presentations of children's pieces in the past have given so much pleasure in Albuquerque. The proceeds of this entertainment will be applied to a diet on a piano recently purchased by the first ward school.

Honor of Miss Stahl

Mrs. J. L. Gober of 712 South Walter street entertained a number of ladies on Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Stahl of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been in Albuquerque for the past few weeks.

Tea was served and a delightful afternoon was enjoyed.

Endeavorers Entertain

The Endeavorers of the Lutheran church and their friends enjoyed another one of their delightful social evenings Thursday at the Berser home, 919 North Fourth street. Japanese lanterns hung about our doors made a pretty picture, and most of the evening was spent outside playing games. Later the guests enjoyed a pleasing musical program consisting of vocal and instrumental solos. Refreshments were served. Those socials always prove most enjoyable and are welcomed as glad news by those who attend.

CHURCH WILL HOLD SERVICES IN OPEN AIR

Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Has Novel Plan for Comfort of His Congregation.

St. Paul's Lutheran church, Silver and Sixth streets, will begin their evening services out into the open air tomorrow, weather permitting. A platform has been erected along the east side of the church near the sidewalk. A chorus of young people will lead the singing of familiar hymns. The Sunday evening services at this church during the summer are a combination of the Christian Endeavor meeting and the preaching service. The public is invited and to encourage people to come the service is warranted to be not more than sixty minutes long. It begins at 7:30 o'clock.

WELCOME HOME DANCE FOR COMPANY "L"

A number of Spanish-American young ladies of Albuquerque and Old Albuquerque have arranged a "welcome home" dance for the members of company L, New Mexico national guard, now in camp at Deming to be held in the armory Wednesday night. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited to attend. There will be no charge.

PROTECT YOUR COMPLEXION

Every woman who spends the summer at the seashore, in the mountains or at some fashionable watering place should take with her a few bottles of

2 THOUSAND FEET OF FILM TAKEN AT DEMING

A. E. Koehler Gets Lengthy Record of Maneuvers for Exhibition at San Diego. Members of the Board Here.

Two thousand feet of film were taken by the moving picture man of the staff of A. E. Koehler, Jr., publicity director of the New Mexico board of managers of the San Diego fair, at the Deming maneuvers yesterday. These pictures will be part of the exhibit of the state at the fair.

The board of managers met in Deming, where they were entertained by the Chamber of Commerce. At the meeting arrangements were made for taking more pictures in the state. Governor McDonald, Col. R. E. Twitchell, chairman of the board, and Guy A. Reed of Carlsbad and Major J. J. Shuler of Raton, members of the board, were in the city for a short time today on their way home. Mr. Koehler, whose headquarters are here, came back with them.

STRUMQUIST WALTZ BY 13 YEAR OLD ALBUQUERQUE GIRL

"The Strumquist Waltz," a cleverly written and catchy melody, dedicated to the Girl Scouts of America, and written by Miss Marguerite Strumquist, 13 years old, of 562 South Arno street, made its appearance in local music stores today. The waltz shows a maturity in composition which is quite remarkable and the music is clever enough to have received high praise from a number of local musicians who have tried it.

Major Shuler is mayor of Raton. He has been mentioned as a possible Democratic candidate for governor.
