

MISS DOUGHERTY DECEMBER BRIDE

Becomes Wife of Charles L. Castle of Mountainair

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING

Retinue of Bridal Attendants, Perfect Appointments and Elaborate Decorations.

A nuptial event of pronounced beauty and popular social interest was the wedding of Miss Evelyn Bell Dougherty of this city and Charles Leonard Castle of Mountainair, which took place at 8 o'clock last evening at the First Presbyterian church. The marriage ceremony was solemnized in the presence of an audience that completely filled the spacious auditorium. After the troth had been plighted an informal reception was held at the bride's home, and the newly wedded couple departed this afternoon for Mountainair, where they will reside.

The marriage service at the church was supplemented by a delightful musical program which consisted of vocal and instrumental selections. The first number was an organ solo by Miss Matilda Alonzo, who also played the wedding marches. It was followed by a violin solo by Miss Virginia Bean, the talented young violinist who rendered exquisitely Caesar Cui's "Expansion Naive," being accompanied on the organ by her mother, Mrs. V. L. Bean. The supplemental program was concluded with two well rendered and appropriate vocal solos, "Love's Old Sweet Song," by Alan R. McCord, and "Sittin' in the Night," by Mrs. G. D. Kirkpatrick.

When the bridal party had arrived at the church Miss Alonzo struck up the ever popular Mendelssohn's wedding march to which the little procession with measured step slowly marched altarward. Both aisles were used by the bridal cortege. Leading the way up the east aisle were three bridesmaids, Misses Elizabeth DuVal, Gladys Wiley and Virginia Bean, while in the west aisle were the three ushers, Messrs. Harry H. Lusk, K. Vere Boyte and Clarence Pierce.

Following the three ushers in the same aisle came little Miss Norma Fiske as flower girl, and Master Alan McCord, as ring bearer. Next in order was the matron of honor, Mrs. D. W. Lusk, who preceded the bride who entered on the arm of her uncle, Charles A. Haynes. The groom appeared from the vestryroom, accompanied by his best man, Ernest Dougherty, of Fresno, California, a brother of the bride, and the officiating minister, Rev. J. W. Purcell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Bridal Party Presented Pretty Picture

The bridal party made a very pretty picture grouped together with the bride and groom as the central figures while the solemn and impressive Presbyterian marriage ceremony was being performed with stately grace. The single ring service was used and as the vows were being pronounced which made the contracting parties husband and wife Miss Alonzo played a soft sentimental air on the organ which at the conclusion of the ceremony changed to the sonorous cadences of Lohengrin's wedding march. Bride and groom followed by their attendants, matron of honor walking with best man, bridesmaids with ushers, and flower girl with ring bearer, left the church going down the east aisle.

The bride looked her sweetest in a becoming wedding gown of cream satin mousseline over taffeta, with a yoke of real point lace and trimmings of German val. A long filmy bridal veil enveloped her figure. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, from which hung strands of maiden hair ferns dotted with lilies of the valley.

The matron of honor was gowned in a beautiful creation of pale pink chiffon cloth over taffeta, and trimmed very effectively with Irish point lace. She wore slippers and gloves to match and carried an armful of long stemmed pink carnations.

The bridesmaids were all attired in pretty white frocks, and wore short bridal veils confined to their coiffure with holly wreaths. They carried bouquets made of holly, and tied with white satin ribbons.

The little flower girl and ring bearer looked real cute in their dainty costumes, and performed the parts assigned to them very gracefully. Little Miss Miska in a white frock cut slightly décolleté carried a basket filled with fragrant blossoms. Master McCord looking like a diminutive grandee of Colonial days in white satin frock coat and knickerbockers carried the wedding ring in the center of a large calla lily.

Beautiful Decorations Were a Feature
The wedding was one marked by elaborateness in every detail, perfect arrangements in every appointment. The decorations were one of the striking features both at the church and at the house. Christmaside being near at hand evergreen, mistletoe and holly entered largely into the decorative scheme and the effect was very artistic and tasteful. Huge ropes of evergreen were festooned from the ceiling of the church and along the side walls, and the front part of the church was a mass of greenery. Evergreen ropes entwined around the pillars at the sides of the organ loft were studded with tiny incandescent lights, and two little floral bells under which the bride and groom stood while plighting their troth had small incandescent lights as clappers. The Haynes residence where the reception was held afterwards was also very effectively decorated principally in holly, smilax and mistletoe. The dining room was particularly pretty. The smilax was donated by Mrs. G. L. Wilson, of Fresno, California.

The bridal party proceeded immediately to the bride's home after the marriage where an informal reception followed until midnight. In the receiving line besides bride and groom, who were showered with congratulations by the arriving guests, were the matron of honor, best man, and Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, uncle and aunt of the now Mrs. Castle. Mrs. Arthur Seligman and Mrs. A. B. Renahan presided in the dining room in serving refreshments, assisted by Misses Lamy, Cross, Purcell, Boyle, Christensen, Marian Bishop and Helen Laughlin. Mrs. R. L. Bacon had charge of the coffee urn and was assisted by Mrs. H. P. Bardshar and Mrs. F. P. Blandly.

Bridal Couple Leave For New Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Castle left on the afternoon train today via the Santa Fe Central and the Belen cut off for their new home at Mountainair, where the former is stationed as an examiner of agricultural lands for the Bureau of Forestry. They carry with them the best wishes of their many friends for future happiness and prosperity. They received a large number of handsome wedding presents which were exhibited during the reception.

Among the visiting guests at the wedding were Mrs. Alvin S. Boice, of Canon City, Colorado, Ernest Dougherty of Fresno, California, and Elwood J. Terry, of Washington, D. C.

MANY COLORADO MINES SHUT DOWN

Present Low Price of Silver, Copper, Lead and Zinc the Cause—Thousands Are Idle.

Denver, Dec. 19.—Mining conditions generally so far as they relate to low grade properties from which are taken base metals are unsatisfactory according to an article published in the Republican today. At the present low prices of silver, copper, lead and zinc mines that operated at a slight margin of profit are losing money and the managements have been compelled to close down in Leadville, Creede, Aspen and Silverton, throwing two thousand men out of work already. Mining men are optimistic, however, and believe the present low prices will not continue long.

LEWIS IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Chicago Man Would Accept gubernatorial Nomination From Illinois Democrats.

New York, Dec. 19.—J. Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, announced last evening that he would accept the Democratic nomination for governor of Illinois if it were tendered him.

"We need no new laws," said Lewis, "but a sensible execution of the old ones."
He predicted either Cannon or Foraker would be the Republican candidate for president. He said that if the conservatives of the Democratic party control the next national convention, Gray of Delaware, or Johnson of Minnesota, will be the candidates, but if the Roosevelt Democrats rule, Bryan will be nominated.

WANT BONAPARTE FOR PRESIDENT

Physicians of Country Behind Move- ment

CAMPAIGNING SECRETLY

Movement Being Conducted By Means of Confidential Correspondence.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—The Tribune today says:
An underground movement which has as its object the electing of Attorney General Charles J. Boneparte to the presidency, is now in progress. There is not any evidence to indicate that Bonaparte himself is aware of the proceedings of his campaign managers who are physicians.

The issue is to "exterminate the criminal classes." The physicians propose to confine habitual criminals in asylums and prisons for life. Bonaparte, as he has made known in speeches, would hang them. The physicians admit that habitual criminals should be hanged but are afraid the country is not yet ready for this.

The movement is being conducted by confidential correspondences.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO OBSERVE CHRISTMAS

Grand Commander John C. Slack of Knights Templar of New Mexico Urges Celebration.

Dr. John C. Slack, most eminent grand commander of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of New Mexico, has issued a circular to the various commanderies of Knights Templar of the territory, calling upon these bodies and their members for a proper celebration of Christmas. Grand Commander Slack quotes from the directions given by the most eminent grand master of Knights Templar of the United States. The circular is of especial interest to Knights Templar in this territory of whom according to last reports there are about 400. The circular reads:

Christmas Observance.
"To All Knights Templar under the jurisdiction of the grand commandery of New Mexico and all sojourning Sir Knights:

"Greeting—The committee on Christmas observance of the grand commandery Knights Templar, U. S. A., has prepared the following sentiment for the Christmas toast:
"To our most eminent grand master, Henry Warren Rugg, with the love, respect and cordial support of 172,000 loyal Sir Knights.

"The grand master sends the following response:
"To all Knights Templar: Greetings and good wishes;

"May we together hear and heed the Christmas message of love and service. May our beloved order of Christian chivalry express in the lives of all true soldiers of the Temple, the principles and teachings of Him whose advent brought the new gospel of life and happiness to men. The sentiment of this joyous season is the soul of Templary—love and service to the watchwords of our strong brotherhood. Let us pledge ourselves anew to our honored institution which witnesses to the wisdom, the faith and the works of its founders, and is today a blessed ministry of fellowship and cheer; a mighty force in the work of the world, and a potent factor in its advancing civilization.

"The return of seasons again brings to us that day of glad tidings and great joy; therefore I direct that each commandery in this jurisdiction assemble in its asylum on Christmas day, Wednesday, December 25, 1907, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the observance of the same, extending a courteous invitation to all visiting Sir Knights.

"Your grand commander extends to all Sir Knights a courteous and knightly greeting, with best wishes for the welfare and prosperity of all in this joyous season.

"The recorder of each commandery will report to the grand recorder the action on the Christmas observance.
"Courteously yours,
"JOHN C. SLACK,
"Grand Commander.

"Attest:
"ALPHEUS A. KEEN,
"Grand Recorder."

RECOMENDED FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL

John W. March of Estancia Receives Support of Territorial Republican Organization.

Special to the New Mexican.

Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 19.—It is ascertained here on reliable authority that after careful consideration of the application of John W. March, a civil engineer and a resident of Estancia, Torrance county, for appointment as surveyor general of New Mexico, a vacancy in which office will occur by the resignation of Morgan O. Llewellyn, the present surveyor general, Governor George Curry, Chairman H. O. Bursum, of the Republican Territorial central committee, and Solomon Luna, member of the Republican national committee, from New Mexico, have favorably recommended the application and the appointment of Mr. March by the president. It is understood that this was telegraphed to Delegate W. H. Andrews at Washington to be presented to the president. Delegate Andrews has heretofore signified his intention to act in accordance with the recommendations to be made by the Territorial Republican organization. Mr. March will be in Santa Fe shortly to make acquaintances. It is believed that the president will approve the recommendation and that the appointment will be made.

Witness in Tall- adge Case Springs Sensation

SUITS FILED FOR SLANDER

Tallmadge Brothers Appear as Plaintiffs in Latter Actions.

Roswell, N. M., Dec. 19.—In the Tallmadge land fraud case now on file here, counsel for the government announced that they would dismiss Indictment No. 417, charging B. H. Tallmadge and John F. McGrew with conspiracy to defraud the United States, as against John F. McGrew.

The government called Mr. McGrew as a witness in its behalf and he testified substantially as follows:

"That he was acquainted with B. H. Tallmadge in September, 1904; that B. H. Tallmadge and Dr. Auld were at his request witnesses for him at the time he made use of a desert land entry; that he requested them to act as such witnesses and that he made no quit claim deed prior to perfecting his entry on the land and the sale of same; that he entered the land for his own benefit and use and had no understanding or agreement with B. H. Tallmadge or any one else regarding the sale of same prior to his filing on the land and up to the time he actually sold it. That he sold the land to B. H. Tallmadge; that sometime after he had entered the land he himself paid, the land office fees and also the attorneys' fees; that the Tallmadges or any other persons were not interested in this filing, directly or indirectly prior to the time he entered the land."

James W. Overstreet testified that he entered land for his own use and benefit and that the Tallmadges had nothing whatever to do with his filing and that the land which he filed on was later relinquished and land script and patent issued by the government. Mr. Overstreet is under indictment with B. H. Tallmadge, charged with conspiring the government out of the use of public land.

He further testified that the special agents of the government had offered him money if he would add them in indicting the Tallmadges and promised to dismiss the case against him if he would turn state's evidence, but Overstreet swore that he stood pat and since he refused to testify against the Tallmadges, the government dismissed the case against Overstreet.

Following the offering of this sensational testimony another sensation was sprung when suits were filed by the Tallmadge brothers for $20,000 each against T. M. Monzingo, alleging slander. Both Monzingo and Naylor are witnesses for the government in the present trial. Another sensation, it is said, is booked, and it is reported that there will be an important arrest made.

FIVE HUNDRED MINERS ENTOMBED

Fearful Explosion Wrecks Pennsylv- ania Collier—All Believed to Be Lost as Fire is Raging Inside.

Conneville, Penn., Dec. 19.—(Bulletin.)—Four hundred miners are entombed in the Darr mines of the Pittsburg Coal Company at Jacobs Creek, 18 miles west of here. Fully one hundred are Americans, the rest of whom are most Hungarians. A terrific explosion shook the country in the vicinity of the mines at 11:30 o'clock this morning and shortly after smoke began to issue in heavy clouds from the mouth of the mine, which is of the slope variety. This circumstance in connection with a fire which is raging inside prevented rescuing parties up to 1 o'clock this afternoon to make any attempt to rescue the unfortunate men in the mine. On account of the violence of the explosion, which rent the interior of the mine and the presence of fire, together with the blocked condition of the mouth of the slope, it is not thought that there is any chance for the men inside to escape alive. The cause of the explosion is yet unknown.

FIERCE ENCOUNTER ON FLOOR OF THE HOUSE.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Immediately after the House adjourned today Representatives John Sharp Williams of Mississippi and De Armond of Missouri became engaged in a personal encounter on the floor of the House. The men closed in and dwelt each other several hard blows. Friends separated them. Williams' face was streaming with blood.
