Sent to Chicago.
Frank Schultz shipped the big black eagle which he has kept in captivity for some time to a friend in Chicago, Wednesday. This was the largest and finest specimen of its kind we have seen.—Roy Spanish-American.

A Ranch Fire.
Wednesday afternoon fire destroyed the horse barn and fowl houses at the Lamb ranch. With the barn went a quantity of kaffir corn and practically all harness belonging to the ranch, which was a considerable loss in itself. The origin of the fire is unaccounted for.—Dayton Informer.

Annexed the Apples.
Chief Whiteman and Assistant Chief Walter Gill pulled off a joke on the fire boys last night that was a little out of the ordinary. They confiscated an extra fine box of apples at the Roswell Seed Co., and then turned in a fire alarm, for the boys to come and get them. From the time the alarm was turned in the store, it was just 110 seconds until the full department arrived and annexed the apples.—Roswell News.

Arrested Again.
Eduardo Baca, of Albuquerque, attorney for Florencio Hill, who is charged with a murder committed at San Marcial, has received a telegram to the effect that his client had been again arrested in Juarez, Mexico.
Hill was arrested in Juarez nearly a month ago, but later released by the Mexican authorities. Mr. Baca did not know the reason for his re-arrest. Mr.

Baca said that he might bring Hill to Socorro, where arrangements have been made for his furnishing $5000 bond and gaining his release. Hill, it was reported, intended to come to Socorro, if his attorney were permitted to accompany him, to surrender himself to the sheriff and then to give bail.—Socorro Chieftain.

Bringing Good Price.
This year's feed stuff is bringing the farmers a good price when they choose to sell it. Most of them however, have learned the advantage of feeding and are not offering their feed for sale.
Brown and Bryan are buying considerable feed and grain from the new crop. They stored two car loads this week. They are paying $15 per ton for headed maize and $13.50 per hundred for the threshed and 5 cents per bundle for good bundle stuff. McCluskey is also buying a lot of feed for a Roswell man and the sheep men are interested and looking for feed for wintering purposes. A good market here will be found for all the feed the farmers will bring in now.—Clovis Journal.

Old Grant Litigation.
An important litigation matter, known as the Antonio Martinez grant case from Taos county, which has been in the courts for the past 12 years and involves 61,000 acres of Taos county land, has occupied the attention of the district court for the past week at the court house. The leading parties in the suit are present residents on the tract, the Taos Indians, the proprietors of the Lareux grant, and numerous other settlers. The over-lapping claims are based on two grants, the first made by the Spanish government in 1716, upon which all subsequent abstracts of title have been based. Some very old and interesting Spanish documents have been brought into court as exhibits during the protracted litigation. Judge Leib expects to render a decision very soon which will quiet many of the troublesome features of the Man in His Room.

Last Friday night about 3 o'clock Mart Randall woke up and found a man in his room. Mart yelled and the man left. Mart raised the household, and it was found that the man had opened the door, which had not been locked, and walked in. He had propped the door open, so he could make an easy get-away if discovered, and he had also propped the gate open. Mart

Joy Ride Results.
A joy ride that almost ended seriously was the experience of two ladies and gentlemen said to hail from Dominga who refused to give any information regarding themselves, and an eight year old boy whom they had picked up as a guide, when their Buick ran into a wire fence and turned turtle at the south end of the officers' line last night at 8:45. The driver stated he understood the boy to say that the road was perfectly straight for two miles and that he was driving at about 35 miles an hour when a fence loomed up before him and he realized that the roadway terminated and that it would be necessary to turn to the left into another roadway, he applied the emergency brake and made a heroic effort to turn his speeding car in the narrow roadway that was fenced on every side. With a crash the car plunged through the fence, tearing the wire for several sections and loosening the poles for 50 feet in both directions.
In turning as he did and at the terrific speed, the car swerved on two wheels which were unable to stand this strain and were crushed. The shock and momentum of the car caused it to turn completely over and it lodged against a tree, this being what saved their lives as all were able to crawl from under the car unaided.
Both ladies were taken to Dr. Poust's quarters where their injuries were dressed and were then hustled to Silver City by the two men, who were very anxious to get away from the scene of the accident, and with them went the only means of identification, the license tag number, which was removed by one of the men before any of the Postpeople reached the scene.—Silver City Enterprise.

BIG SENSATION IN HIGH SOCIETY

Clarksburg, W. Va., Nov. 4.—Photographic films showing nude likenesses of several young society young women of this city were taken from George E. Thomas when he was arrested on a charge of "pistol toting."
When Thomas's arrest became known today there was consternation in several aristocratic homes, and hurried call over telephones were made for Chief of Police H. L. Brooks, to whom appeals were made to prevent a "scandal."
Chief Brooks took the films to a photographer and after having prints made, soon was able to identify from them several of Clarksburg's prettiest and most popular young women. Chief Brooks has not yet disclosed the identity of the women, who, in posing in the nude, were subjects for young Thomas's camera.
Thomas is said to have been living in luxury and idleness for weeks. When arrested a loaded revolver was found on him.
The police have not yet been able to make Thomas disclose the methods he used to secure his photos. When arrested he begged the police to destroy the films which were found on him and in his rooms, declaring that he did not wish to ruin the reputation of several of Clarksburg's most prominent young women.

HOW IT FEELS TO FLY IN AIR SHIP

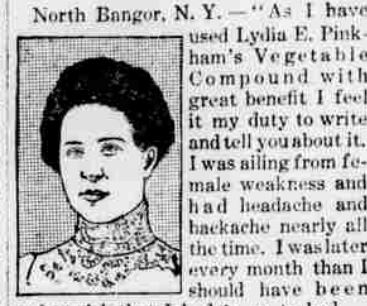

New York, Nov. 4.—On the liner Majestic, which arrived from Southampton, one of the passengers was Mrs. A. V. Heyliger, who spent the last seven months traveling in Europe.
Most of her time was spent in France. Two weeks ago, while living at Buc, just outside of Paris, she was introduced to Maurice Pegoud, who loops the loop thousands of feet in the sky, sails upside down in his airship and otherwise makes monkey notions of the laws of gravity.
Mrs. Heyliger asked to fly with the nifty Frenchman. With the courtesy of the Gaul, Pegoud took her on a flight. Mrs. Heyliger thinks she went up four miles. At any rate they were way above the church spires when the polite aviator said to his fair companion:
"We will now loop the loop."
"We will do nothing of the kind," gasped the lady. She threatened to "whoop the whoop" and she did scream a little bit. The aviator smiled and said that he would descend.
"I was dizzy," and I have never known before how dear this old earth is," Mrs. Heyliger said today.
"We came down fast, I suppose, but it seemed ages to me. I had been dying to go up in an airship, though I would surely die before we got down. I would not go on top of a tall building now for anything in the world."

SHE JUST TOOK IT DID NOT STEAL IT

Pittsburg, Nov. 4.—Miss Irene Adler accused Paul M. Feldstein of stealing a diamond engagement ring valued at $210, which he had given her. A jury decided the man not a thief.
The story of the brief courtship and what followed was disclosed at the trial in criminal court. Miss Adler met Feldstein in January and they became engaged in April. The girl was given a diamond ring. She saw the receipt, which showed that it had cost $210. Wedding announcements were sent out and preparations were made for the marriage, which was to take place on Memorial day. Feldstein did not appear. Miss Adler received the following telegram: Going east. Urgent business. Postpone things indefinitely."
Miss Adler did not see Feldstein until June 30, when he was in office where she was. He was washing her hands

WOMAN'S ILLS DISAPPEARED

Like Magicafter taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Bangor, N. Y.—"As I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with great benefit I feel it my duty to write and tell you about it. I was ailing from female weakness and had headache and backache nearly all the time. I was later every month than I should have been and so sick that I had to go to bed.
"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and these troubles have disappeared like magic. I have recommended the Compound to many women who have used it successfully."—Mrs. JAMES J. STACY, R. F. D. No. 3, North Bangor, N. Y.

Another Made Well.
Ann Arbor, Mich.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for me. For years I suffered terribly with hemorrhages and had pains so intense that sometimes I would faint away. I had female weakness so bad that I had to doctor all the time and never found relief until I took your remedies to please my husband. I recommend your wonderful medicine to all sufferers as I think it is a blessing for all women."—Mrs. L. E. WYCKOFF, 112 S. Ashley St., Ann Arbor, Mich.

There need be no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to remedy woman's diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical. Why don't you try it?

lying on the edge of the basin. She said Fledstein picked it up and told her that he would pawn it for $200 to identify a woman who had made him run away and break the engagement.
At the trial she declared that the engagement ring was a gift and, therefore, hers, whether the marriage was celebrated or the engagement broken off.

Forecast.
For Santa Fe and vicinity: Partly cloudy but generally fair tonight; Wednesday fair and warmer.
For New Mexico: Tonight generally fair, colder in south portion; Wednesday fair, warmer in east portion.
Conditions.
The low barometer central over the Salt Lake basin and Arizona Monday morning has been dissipated, but the pressure remains high over the plains and Rocky mountains. It is falling, however, on the north Pacific as an area of low barometer is advancing from the Canadian Pacific. Rain or snow has occurred in New Mexico, northern Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and southeast Wyoming. Temperatures are much lower over Wyoming, eastern Colorado, Kansas, northwest Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, but are rising in the far northwest. Conditions favor generally fair and cool weather in this section tonight; Wednesday fair and warmer.

MORE BOTTLES SOLD EACH YEAR.
It is easy to understand why an increasing number of bottles of Foley Honey and Tar Compound is sold yearly. Thos. Vorrain, 286 Edward Street, Houghton, Mich., gives an excellent reason when he writes: "Foley Honey and Tar Compound has always proven an effective remedy, quickly relieving sticking in the throat, and stopping the cough with no bad after effects.—The Capital Pharmacy."

That Is True

"Coffee drinking almost ruined my health before a heart and nerve specialist informed me that coffee was my whole trouble.

"I am 53 years of age, and from boyhood up to about the year 1900 I was strong and well, could eat any kind of food day or night, slept soundly, and it was said that I had no nerves.

"I began to suffer from indigestion and was getting sleepless and nervous. I took medicine, kept at work, and stuck to my coffee—the harm of it was never suggested to me.

"One morning just after dressing I collapsed, and for six weeks I was very, very sick. But I pulled through. After another rest I did not improve, but became worse. My heart got very bad, so weak at times that I would faint. I also suffered from constipation.

"In February, 1908, I was obliged to resign my position as manager.

"Finally in July, 1911, I came to San Francisco to consult the best heart and nerve specialist to be found, and was directed to Dr. _____ He made a thorough examination and several blood tests. He told me that the trouble was with my heart and nerves—brought about by coffee; that the caffeine contained in coffee was poison to me; and to stop the use of coffee absolutely and immediately. Since that time I have not tasted one drop of coffee.

"When I stopped coffee, I thought, what shall I drink. Milk has a tendency to constipate me; cold water is all right in its place, but it doesn't belong on the breakfast table. So I concluded to try Postum. It is delicious with cream and sugar. I drink it whenever I can find it, and I enjoy it as well as I once did coffee.

"My normal weight was about 170 lbs. and I had been as low as 133. In three weeks I was greatly improved; in six months I began to feel like my old self, and now, ten months after I stopped coffee, I am about well and weigh 178 lbs. I have not been constipated once—not once! My stomach seems as good as ever; I sleep well, feel well, and I am well.

"I am sure my good doctor's advice, 'stop coffee,' is the secret of my improvement.

"Of course I 'have it in' for coffee, and why shouldn't I? See what it cost me, my health, position and thousands of dollars.

"Now in conclusion, you are at liberty to use my name any way you wish. I enclose names of my doctors. My only object is to help other afflicted persons. I don't want any compensation, and would not accept any."

Postum now comes in two forms.

REGULAR POSTUM must be well boiled.

INSTANT POSTUM is a soluble powder. A spoonful dissolved in a cup of hot water and, with sugar and cream, makes a perfect cup INSTANTLY.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds.

A mighty army of former coffee-drinkers now use

POSTUM

"There's a Reason."
